JUSTICE MAKES FOUR HITS

Little Shortstop Hits Ball Almost at Will and Gets Three Singles and One Triple in Five

Ps Rourke's athletes ran rampant yesterday afternoon and demolished the Topeka Kaws, by a 12 to 0 score. "Chick" Brandom and "Parson" Frantz, both formerly with the Kansas City Blues, were hammered to all parts of Rourke field for a total of seventeen hits, netting the Omaha boys thirty-one bases.

Eddie Justice. Omaha's clever shortstop and the head of the batting list, started things in the first, and before Brandom had got squared away, a total of five hits, including two doubles, two singles and a home run had been made

In the second a triple and a single were made. Brandom was benched after this inning and "The Parson" sent to the rescue. He did very well until the sixth, when three more, all singles, were registered. In the seventh, Jack Ryan started the ball rolling again with a homer. A single and a triple followed.

Ryan was picked by Manager Arbogast to win the third game of the series and had an easy time. When he left the game in the seventh he had given but two hits, one of which was a scratch. Fentress then relieved the former major in the seventh was given a rest, while Johnny Gonding broke into the game for a couple of innings.

Eddle Allen, the new fielder, was in left and gave a swell account of himself. In four times at bat he got a single and a triple and took two difficult chances in the outfield. Kane Raps Homer.

when he made a home run in the first inning. He caught the ball square and sent it down to right. The ball went over Lee's head and out to the fence Ryan's hit went over the right field fence and was one of the longest hits made this season.

Justice started the ball rolling on a hit. Coyle scored him with a double Allen sacrificed. Johnson singled, sending Coyle home. Kane cleared the bases with a home run.

Ryan landed safe in the second on an error, and scored on Justice's triple to center. Coyle was hit by a pitched ball. Allen scored Justice with a single. A sacrifice fly by Johnson put Coyle

In the sixth Justice singled to left, and Johnson going to third. Schipke walked. filling the bases. Niehoff laid down a bunt and beat it out, while Johnson raced home.

Harry Koch, the agile little racquet wellder of the Field club, is again tennis singles champion of Omaha, winning this honor by successfully defending his title in a thrilling five-set match from Cub Potter, winner of the 1913 tournament, at the Field club courts yesterday afternoon.

Score for match, 3-6, 7-5, 3-6, 6-2, 7-5. A crowd of fully 400 was on hand for the championship matches, the dance floor gallery being four deep with apectators, most of whom-were of the gentler sex, and the north bank of the clay courts being massed with other tennis nthusiasts. All available space along the south end of the courts was taken up with loaded automobiles.

Potter and Scribner in Doubles. Cub Potter and Are Scribner grabbed the championship doubles honors by winning their match from Harry Koch and Lyman McConnell to the tune of 3-6, 6-2, 6-1. The former pair outguessed their opponents at every stage of the game in the last two sets.

lad of Creighton university took the consolution singles finals, defeating the voteran, Clarke Powell, 2-6, 6-3, 8-6. Powell played a stellar net game, but did not cover back court so well as the blue and white lad.
