FIGHT AGAINST CUT IN PRICE

City Council of Iowa's Capital City Refuses to Pass Ordinance Limiting Height of Buildings to Eight Stories.

DES MOINES, Ia., July 13.-(Special.)-Arguments were finished by attorneys today in the gas rate case involving the rate for gas in this city. The case was commenced before a master in chancery just one year ago on the application of the company for injunction to prevent the city from enforcing an ordinance reducing the price to 90 cents. Judge Sloan, the master, decided the price was sufficient and today the attorneys finished arguing before Judge McPherson for a change in the ruling.

No Sky Line Limit. will be no sky line limit to Des Moines buildings. The eight story provision included in Mayor Hanna's building ordinance, which came up for its third reading before the city council today, was struck out on motion following an argument before the council against the provision on behalf of the owners of the Fleming building, who are contemplating the erection of another sky-scraper on lots adjoining their present building. All effort to limit the height of Des Moines buildings will be abandoned.

NEW YORK, July 13.-R. G. Dun For & Co.'s weekly review of trade today says:

The volume of business reaches seasonable proportions. With abundant harvests which now seem assured, there should be an early demand for merchandise. Herald Has Opponent on Knees Bleeding from Eye, and Then Officer Interferes-Preliminaries Good.

Interference by Constable Greene of Florence ended in the eighth round the scheduled ten-round go between "Kid" Herald and "Snipes" Fitzpatrick at Cole's hall in Florence last night. Both boys were battling flercely and honors were even when the officer stepped into the ring. Referee Walter Lemming called the affair an even break. In the early part of the scrap Herald had the better of it, "Snipes" playing a waiting game and forcing his adversary to do most of the fighting. In the fourth "Snipes" opened up and the real fight began. Herald's nose started to bleed, causing him considerable annoyance, and being blinded by the blood, his oppon made a chopping block of him. In the next round, however, the mail carrier recuperated and had the older man on his knees several times. In the eighth Herald landed a crashing blow to "Snipes" right eye, sending him to his knees and causing blood to flow. Then the officer interfered and Referee Lemming gave his decision.

Good preliminaries were staged by "Cyclone" Flosnik and "Young Mazzie." Johnnie Sudenberg. West claimed to have
