MILLION IN PARKER FUND

W. F. Sheehan Testifies About Democratic Finances in 1904.

MONEY SENT TO NEBRASKA

Witness Does Not Recall Whether Mr. Bryan Was Candidate for Senator That Year or Not.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—The democratic campaign fund contained about $1,000,000 when Alton B. Parker ran for president in 1904, according to W. F. Sheehan of New York, who testified today before the senate committee investigating campaign funds.

Mr. Sheehan was then chairman of the democratic national executive committee. Money was sent by the committee, he said, to Maine, Colorado and Nebraska.

"To Maine, did you say?" asked a senator.

"Yes; with very gratifying results to the democrats."

"How much was sent to Nebraska?" inquired Senator Oliver.

"I think about $15,000."

"Mr. Bryan was the candidate for the senatorship that year, was he not?"

"I don't remember exactly; candidates for the senatorship were not."

"Well, I think he was," interrupted the Pennsylvania senator.

Mr. Sheehan said he remembered August Belmont was a large contributor that year and Senator Oliver asked if Thomas E. Ryan was also a contributor in the same campaign. The witness responded that he was.

Mr. Sheehan wanted the committee to understand when he estimated the democratic funds in 1904 at $1,000,000 he was not contradicting August Belmont, who "guessed" on the stand that the amount was $600,000 or $700,000.

"It is all a matter of memory," insisted Sheehan. "I think the national committee used directly about $800,000. I think there came through the committee some contributions for specific use in New York state. I have an impression that amounted to about $200,000."

The witness declared the committee made a rule at the beginning of the campaign not to accept money from any trust. He believed no such contributions were made directly or indirectly.

Sugar Money Returned.

"There was $16,000 contributed," began Mr. Sheehan, "by the American Sugar Refining company—not by Mr. Havemeyer—to the state committee. Before the check was cashed we heard about it and it was returned."

Senator Clapp asked the witness for the names of the contributors of more than $5,000.

"I recollect Mr. Belmont chiefly because of his testimony," replied Mr. Sheehan. "I was away up in Maine much of the time and did not have so much to do with the raising of funds. There were others who contributed more than that sum, but I cannot remember them."

"Who was the most active in securing money?" asked Mr. Clapp.

"Why, senator, various people were soliciting on their own responsibility. The members of the committee were active. People were circulated. We published request for funds. Democrats or others interested in the success of the ticket, came in to inquire if it was satisfactory for them to get out and raise home money."

"Did you solicit?"

"Not much, I devoted my energies to other work."

Mr. Sheehan said the late Daniel S. Lamont assisted him in collecting money. Colonel Lamont had been connected with corporations, he said, but he could not remember what ones.

PROUTY SAYS SHIPPERS MUST HAVE NEEDED FACILITIES

KANSAS CITY, July 18.—"If we ever have government ownership of railroads in this country it will be because the shippers cannot obtain the facilities that they must have in any other way," asserted C. A. Prouty, chairman of the Interstate Commerce commission, in addressing the second day's session of the nineteenth annual convention of the National Hay association here.

Mr. Prouty spoke on "The Danger Point" discussing matters pertaining to the shipper and railroads from the standpoint of the Interstate Commerce commission. Government ownership he said would not come unless the shippers of the country found that it was the only way in which to meet their demands for transportation.

"Hay has done more for Kansas than politics," said F. D. Coburn, secretary of the Kansas Board of Agriculture, in addressing the convention on "Alfalfa."

"Land that formerly was worth $5 an acre," he continued, "now is worth $15 to $100 an acre because it raises several crops of alfalfa a year."

Fisher, who has, for many years, been the head of the school at Lombard.

ESCAPES RAIN OF BULLETS

American Has Narrow Escape While Traveling in Mexico.

USES CUSPIDORS AS SHIELDS

In Train He Was Riding Many Soldiers and Civilians Are Shot Down and Then Relieved of Valuables.

Lying close to the floor of a passenger coach in the heart of the hostile districts of Old Mexico, with a cuspidor tightly pressed against each ear to ward off fusillade after fusillade of insurrecto bullets, Harry O. Robinson exercised the instinct of self-preservation so well that he was able to tell the story of massacre while at the Hotel Rome this morning.

Mr. Robinson was on the passenger train bound for the mining districts south of Mexico City when it was attacked some time ago by a marauding band of the Zapadistas, or insurrecto followers of General Zapata, who massacred the forty federal soldiers aboard the train and killed many of the civilians in the battle.

"I had occasion to go some forty miles south of Mexico City in connection with my mining business. It happened that a detachment of forty federal soldiers was being transported on the same train. The insurrectos in some way had heard this and this was one of their opportunities for a massacre. We had entered a rough country of lava beds cut up by ravines and covered with cactus and small shrubbery. Just around the curve ahead of us the insurrectos had derailed a freight train, so, of course, our train stopped. Immediately the Zapadistas opened fire on us from every direction. The first fusillade of bullets killed many of the soldiers and many civilians as well, and the rest of us at once dropped flat upon the floor. The soldiers fired from the windows of the cars until every one of the forty had been killed in the coach. Men were killed on both sides of me, and I decided if I was to be shot I did not want to be shot in the head. So I grabbed two cuspidors from the aisle and clapped one to each side of my head. A Mexican passenger some distance behind me crawled up to me and snatched one away from me and used it as a shield for his own head. Every Mexican passenger in the coach was praying throughout the entire battle, while the federal soldiers were falling wounded and cursing one by one.

"When the guns of the soldiers in the coach had been silenced by the killing of the soldiers, the Zapadistas rushed the train, and all the civilians were forced to give up their money."

City Starts Crusade Against the Vagrant Lounging on Streets

With the prisoners in the county jail locked in the cells and bull pens as tight as sardines the city police force has started a crusade against the vagrants lounging in Jefferson square. When these prisoners are turned over to the care of the county Sheriff McShane and his deputies will have a difficult task on their hands to provide sleeping quarters for them.

There are 21 male prisoners in the county jail and twenty-three women in the women's department. While the men's department still has room for a few additional boarders, the women's department is overcrowded.

The jail will only lodge ninety-eight prisoners properly. There are almost twice this number in the jail now. In some cells two and three prisoners are forced to occupy one bed. Those that are not fortunate enough to have a hard board and a thin mattress to sleep on are forced to lie on the hard cement floor or tables.

The police arrested forty-six vagrants in Jefferson square yesterday. These will all be turned over to the county to board and room for at least thirty days, and probably sixty or ninety days. The police are going to continue the arrest of loungers in the park who cannot give a good account of themselves. This will mean that large numbers of prisoners will be turned over to the county jail each day.

Deputies at the jail say Justice of the Peace Claiborne, while he was acting police judge when Judge Foster was in the hospital, supplied the county with at least sixty boarders, who were working men, and arrested for being drunk or some other minor offense.

Thirty of these men were sentenced to ninety days, ten to sixty days and twenty to thirty days on county feed.

RURAL MAIL CARRIER DEAD FROM ACCIDENT

TECUMSEH, Neb., July 18.—(Special Telegram.)—Harry Walrod, one of the rural mail carriers from the Crab Orchard postoffice, died today as the result of a runaway accident Monday. Mr. Walrod's team became frightened at a bicyclist and ran away, throwing him out of his rig. A farmer, O. F. Hunt, came to his rescue and accompanied him over the balance of his route. Mr. Walrod suffered a fracture of the skull and became unconscious Monday evening and so remained. An operation was performed yesterday, but to no avail. Mr. Walrod was 21 years of age, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Walrod of near Pawnee City, and was unmarried.

The funeral will be held at the Crab Orchard Methodist church at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, and will be conducted by Rev. J. E. Wiley of Burchard. Burial will be in the Crab Orchard cemetery.

Australia to Resist Onset of Beef Trust

MELBOURNE, Australia, July 18.—Answering a question in the House of Representatives, whether the American beef combine was establishing a packing works in Australia, Premier Fisher, said: "The government will spare no efforts and no expense and will use all the means in its power to protect Australia from the rapacity which has characterized the operations of the American beef trust in other countries."

BRISBANE, Queensland, July 18.—Regarding the report that American meat packers are setting up a big meat packing works, a representative of the company concerned today denied that it was a branch of the American beef combine. EDITORS FAVOR SUBMISSION

Go on Record to Have Voters Act Upon Woman Suffrage.

NO ACTION UPON THE QUESTION

President Urlick of State Federation of Labor Expects Opposition to Appointment as Marshal in Iowa.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Ia., July 18.—(Special Telegram.)—Newspaper editors of Iowa went on record favoring the submission to the voters of the state of a constitutional amendment permitting women to vote, but opposed going on record as actually favoring adoption of the amendment.

At a session of the Upper Des Moines Editorial association, Miss Safford, head of the State Women Suffrage association, presented a resolution not only favoring submission, but approving the idea.

A democratic candidate for state office made a fight to have the whole subject ignored, but failed. The indorsement part was stricken out and the resolution adopted by an overwhelming vote in favor of letting the people vote on it.

Urlick Will Resign.

A. L. Urlick, president of the State Federation of Labor, stated today he will retire from the office of president and all connections with the labor movement, if he is appointed United States marshal for Southern Iowa in accord with the recommendation of the republican delegation in congress. He has been president many years. He declared that he expects opposition to his appointment.

PLUMBERS OBJECT TO CITY'S SALE OF METERS

FORT DODGE, Ia., July 18.—(Special.)—Fort Dodge plumbers and Fort Dodge councilmen are arrayed in real battle royal against each other as result of the city's announcement that it will sell water meters at a price lower than that quoted by the plumbers. Advertising their action the city, so the plumbers say, misquoted the plumbers' price as $12, when it is but $10. The city is offering meters at $5, but the plumbers infer the kind they will sell is far inferior to that they have been marketing. Plumbers are up in arms and say they will fight the city's purpose to infringe upon their business.

Omaha Man Leaps From Hotel Window

WICHITA FALLS, Tex., July 18.—W. J. Rowe, aged 35 years, traveling freight inspector for the Union Pacific railroad, ended his life by leaping from a fifth story window of a hotel here today. He had been ill for several days. Rowe's family resides in Omaha.

Union-Pacific Headquarters in Omaha were notified of Mr. Rowe's death yesterday afternoon and the headquarters communicated the news to Mrs. Rowe at the home, 280 Pratt street.

Mrs. Rowe was almost prostrated with grief and worry. She said she could not believe her husband committed suicide, as he was in good health and the best of spirits when he left Omaha a week ago last Monday. She believes his death must have been due to accident or severe illness. For several days she has received no letters from him and this has led her to fear he was not well.

Mrs. Rowe has sent telegrams to Mr. Rowe's father and brother in Oklahoma, City and to another brother in Buffalo, N. Y., but has received no replies.

Mr. Rowe was 33 years old. His family consisted of his widow and one child.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 18.—A heavy explosion of gas in No. 5 colliery of the Lehigh & Wilkesbarre Coal company at South Wilkesbarre tonight, caused the death of three miners and serious injury to three others. The dead are Joseph Toth, miner; Stanley Nekart, miner; and Anthony Lued, laborer. Frank Wrobel is fatally burned and his death is expected before morning.

As far as could be learned, it is believed the explosion was caused by one of the miners firing a black stick, the fire from which ignited a pocket of gas. The force of the explosion was so great that it hurled the men in all directions and wrecked a large portion of the mine.
