DUBLIN, July 19.-The arrival of the prime minister in Dublin tonight was characterized by much popular enthusiasm and an outburst on the part of the suffragettes. An attempt made by the suffragettes to hold a demonstration on the arrival of the prime minister's boat was frustrated by the authorities, but during the progress of the party to the Hotel Gresham a hatchet was thrown at his carriage. It was at first reported that the weapon struck John E. Redmond, the nationalist eader, on the head, but this proved to be erroneous. Mr. Redmond was slightly injured while entering the hotel, where the crush was so great that his head was jammed against the door.

Two women who occupied a box at the Dublin theater, where Mr. Asquith will speak tomorrow, threw a blazing chair into the orchestra and set fire to the box curtains, causing a panic. One of the vomen escaped, but the other, who gave the name of Gladys Evans and said she came from England, was arrested.

On the arrival of the carriage at the hotel, Premier Asquith and Mrs. Asquith, John E. Redmond, feader of the Irish nationalists, and the lord mayor of Dublin proceeded to an elaborately decorated alcony, where Mr. Redmond publicly welcomed the prime minister. A large crowd gave the premier an ovation. Mr. Asquith in a brief speech said this
