OMAHA DROPS LAST ONE

Denver Bunches Its Hits and Finishes With the Score Eight to Four.

DOUBLE STARTS IN THE FIFTH

Visitors Tie the Score in the Fourth and After the Next Round Have Things Their Own Way.

Denver bunched its hits off Rhodes in the fifth inning in yesterday's game and with the assistance of a walk and an error, chalked up four runs, overcoming the two run lead by the Rourkes and won the last game of the series, 8 to 4.

Until the fifth inning everybody pointed to Omaha making it all four games of the series, but Denver worked him out of the hole on Leonard and then walked Kenworthy. Cassidy slammed a hard one to Niehoff, who failed to get it. Beall then slammed out what ought to have been a single, but Thompson let the ball get away from him and three men crossed the plate.

With but one man down, Manager Arbagast gave Dundy the high sign to move from the mound while Jack Ryan went in to stop the noise. A single off him got another run in. After this Ryan was invincible until the ninth when he hit Kenworthy with the ball and Beall smashed the pill over the center field boards.

The Rourkes were a little ripe yesterday and did not play up to snuff. Their playing was listless. However, at the bat they managed to get Leonard for the first four innings, but after that the young southpaw settled down and pitched elegant ball.

Starts Off Well.

Omaha started off to win in the first inning. Justice singled and went to second on Coyle's single. A wild pitch advanced a peg. Kane slammed out a single to center, scoring both men.

Denver came back and tied in the fourth. Cassidy hammered out a triple and scored on Beall's sacrifice fly. Quilley landed safe on Justice's error and scored on Block's three-bagger.

The Rourkes again took a two run lead in their half of the fourth. Scanlon reached first on French's error. Justice singled, Scanlon going to second. A new man advanced on a wild pitch and a two bagger by Thompson scored them.

Denver hopped in the lead in the next inning. With one down, Leonard doubled to center. Kenworthy walked. Cassidy sent one too hard for Niehoff to handle. Beall slammed a hit to center and Thompson made a botch of stopping it while Leonard, Kenworthy and Cassidy raced across the pon. Block singled scoring Beall. In the ninth Kenworthy was hit with the ball. Beall sent the pill over the fence scoring Kenworthy and himself. Score:

Notes of the Game. They have gone away. Omaha had nine men left on bases. Fourteen out of seventeen games is not so bad.

Now for four games at Denver and then to Wichita. Johnson was walked twice and hit with the ball once.

Justice made a beautiful catch of Cassidy's fly in the seventh. Seventeen games on the road and the Rourkes are doing well. Two three-baggers in one inning will surely score a run in any game. Leonard did get sweet revenge for his loss of the opening game of the series. Denver made more runs in the fifth inning than during the first three games of the series. Niehoff pulled French's foul ball out of the grandstand in the second inning. Beall's homer was quite clout. The ball went over the beer sign in center garden.
