SCHREIBER USES EVIL EYE

His Benders Too Much for Pa Rourke's Batters.

GOES SOME HIMSE

But One Omaha Man Reaches Th and Only Chance to Score Nippe -Final Result is Five to Nothing.

DENVER, July 25.—(Special Telegram Barney Schreiber's benders were much for Pa Rourke's athletes today the big southpaw held the Rourke's four hits, shutting them out to the melo of 5 to 0. Not only was the big fell holding the Omaha boys to four hi but he was not letting them get base most cases and ten of the Rourkes were nched by the strikeout route.

Jack Ryan was not pitching any slouch ball, either. He let the Grisslies down with six hits, but John Beall repeated his stunt of yesterday by slamming the ball to center field for a home run with one on third. In the eighth he came back with a drive over first base for three bases, scoring when Kane threw wild to third to catch him. Both teams played great ball and it was a bitter struggle to the Jack Ryan, after giving six hits in the first four innings, settled and did not give another until the final round. He struck out four men and passed but one. Skipper" Bill Schipke seemed to be the Omaha man who could locate the He beat out a bunt in the fifth inning, but died on first. In the eighth he opened with a Texas leaguer over second, but he died on first again.

One Chance to Score. way Barney was hurling Omaha had very little chance to win. They had only one chance to score and hat was nipped in the bud. It occurred n the third inning. Niehoff opened with single to right. Scanlon sacrificed and Bert was called out at third in an at mpted steal. He made a pretty steal, but slid over the bag. Allen is somewhat nder the weather owing to the high aititude and Jimmy Scanlon was sent in at left and covered himself with glory by pulling down a couple of hard flies. In the sixth French sent one into the auto park and Scanlon raced for it. By making a beautiful leap he speared the ball with one hand while French was rounding third base. It can readily be seen that it was some clout and that Scanlon saved a run. In the next inning he ran almost to third base from deep left and pulled down a ball sent up by Denver made the first run when Ryan hit Kenworthy with the bail. Beall forced him at second, Schipke to Justice, and Quillin tripled to center, scoring Beall. Kenworthy opened the third with s double to right and scored when Beal pushed the ball out for a homer. Kenworthy walked in the eighth and scored on Beall's triple, the latter scoring on Kane's error. Score:
