ROURKES FAIL TO HIT BALL

Inability to Connect Loses Game to Denver, Five to One.

NO ERRORS ON EITHER SIDE

Pitcher Beebe, Tried Out for First Time, Is Unsteady and Manages to Get Himself in Something of a Hole.

By MASON YOLLD. DENVER, July 26.—(Special Telegram.)—Inability to hit the ball at opportune times lost for Omaha the last game of the series here today by 5 to 1. The Rourke managed to get men on bases in almost every inning, but the hit to send the runs across never came after the second.

Young Leonard was the Grizzly fliker today and worked himself out of holes with apparent ease. Benton Beebe, Pa Rourke's new twirler, was sent in at the beginning, but was unsteady. In the sixth inning the Cubs landed on him for four hits, including two doubles, for three runs. With two men down he was benched and Manager Arbogast sent Hicks in to finish. Denver did not win the game without a hard battle. The Omaha boys were fighting at all times and playing great ball. The support they gave their pitchers was errorless. The Rourke got their only run in the second frame. Johnson sent one too hard for Kenworthy to handle. Schipke sent him to second with a single to left and he scored on Niehoff's single to left. The Grizzlies tied it up in their half of the second on two singles and a sacrifice. In the third inning Beebe worked himself into a bad hole, but managed to wiggle out of it. A single and two walks after two had died filled the bases. Beebe then sent some twisters to Lindsay and he fanned. In the sixth Denver made three runs. Block singled. Weidensaul sacrificed. Kenworthy sent Block over with a single. He stole second and scored on Cassidy's double, who in turn scored on Beal's clout. Schipke Spears Ball. Schipke robbed the Cubs of a run in the eighth inning with a pretty stop and peg. Cassidy was on third, with one down, when Quillin sent a liner past Hicks. Schipke made a grab for the ball with one hand and with a marvelous heave got Cassidy sliding into the plate. A lightning-like double play in the ninth inning robbed the Rourke of any chance of victory when they started a batting rally. With one down, Schipke got to first on an infield hit. Niehoff came through with a single, sending the Skipper to third. Scanlon sent a hot one to Kenworthy just in front of second. "Kenny" touched second and sent the ball to first, ending the game. Omaha leaves here tonight for Wichita to open a four-game series with the Jobbers tomorrow. Score: OMAHA, AB. R. H. O. A. E.
