

Orkin Brothers, Successors to the Bennett Co., Announce, Beginning Tomorrow The Final Clean-Up of the Bennett Entire Half Million Dollar Stock

Bargains, for the wardrobe and the home, in a deeper and broader sense than you have ever known is the only way this sale can be described--the biggest selling event you have ever known brought to a fitting climax in this final clean-up.

The best way to point out the extraordinary advantages of this sale is to delegate the following items to show you how wonderful are the saving opportunities for everyone--hundreds and thousands of bargains that set a new standard of under-pricing in the Middle West.

Everything Remaining From the Old Bennett Company's Stock Must Go Regardless of Its Value

All broken lines, all odd lots, all soiled and mussed goods, all their cancelled orders we purchased, all the remaining complete lines that bear the old Bennett Company's label are included in this final bargain rally. We don't care what they cost us or what they are worth--all we want is that they hurry out of our way so we can re-arrange the departments, install new fixtures and improve the store's service as rapidly as possible. Look for the blue price tickets and read carefully every advertisement that follows. Many of the bargains will not last out more than a single day's selling.
