Henley Regatta Will Be Held at St. Catherine's in August.

Event. ST. CATHARINES, Ont., July 10 .-There is a mighty good chance that the senior singles sculling championship will wrested from Canada at the Canadian Henley regatta which will be held on Saturday, August 2 and 3. The next senior singles champion will likely be Dave Regan of Buffalo, the stalwart son of Police Superintendent Regan, who last year showed himself to be one of the fastest parsmen on the continent. In the eastest possible fashion Regan defeated his opponents in the junior and intermediate singles, and was quite ready to go up against Butler, the champion, only he was persuaded other-wise by his friends. Tired out by his two races, the Buffalo lad would have been handicapped by the champion, who had not rowed a race. So Butler last year rowed over the course to protect his championship. Butler will likely be back from Stock im in time to go up against Resan. It may be that other aspirants from across line will arise to question Butler's slaiment this year, and altogether likely a couple from New York and Detroit.

Detroit is coming in full strength, and there will be a great many caremen here from Toronto and Montreal.

Detroit will make another endeavor to from the Toronto Argonauts, which the latter so bravely defended last year. The Detroiters said last year that they would keep righ on trying after that championship until they got it. They are great stayers.

Buffalo will have representatives rices ent from its three rowing clubs, and will make a big effort to sweep inings at this year's Canadian Henjey. The Bufthis year's Canadian Henley. The But-falenians are good sports, and should they win something good after their many years of trying, their victory would be a popular one. As for several years past, all the races but the sights, junior and single, will be rowed with a turn. Preparations for the Canadian Henley are well junder way.

TENNIS YETS DRUB YOUTHS

Kennedy and Madden Win at Happy Hollow.

SIXTY GAMES ARE NECESSARY

Singles and Doubles Finals Today-Happy Hollow Club Arranges to Seat Two Hundred

Spectators.

In the most exciting match of the Happy Hollow invitation tennis tournament. "Spike" Kennedy and John Madden, Kountze club "vets," barely nosed out a win over young Robert McCagus and Joe Adams in the semi-finals doubles yesterday afternoon. The match went the full five sets and the final tab was 6-8, 6-4, 6-4, 2-6, 10-8, which shows that a total of sixty games was necessary to decide the fraces.

From the beginning the match was hard fought. It was a battle of sinewy veterans against agile youngsters. stamina and experience against quickness of eye and youthful vigor. As it happened the "vets" wen out in the end and thereby placed the Kountze club in line for a prominent place on the local tennis map.

Whenever McCague and Adams resorted te lobbing. Kennedy and Madden played a careful back court game and contented themselves with flopping slow, waver-in "dope" balls over the net. McCague's serve proyed a puzzler in the first and fourth sets and when he got to swishing the rubber over the mesh with a corkscrew twist the "vets" were at loss to return without slamming into net or missing entirely.

Veterans Win. With two sets each, Adams and McCague ran the fifth and deciding frame up to 5-2 in their favor. Then the eighth game went to deuce and youngsters took the "ad." With the match point hovering about Adams slammed into net and brought the game pulled up to match point only to lose the advantage. With the critical stage over. Kennedy and Madden made the best of their opportunity and came up from behind with clockwork precision Finally the score reached 8 all and by dint of some snappy service and Madden's ability to hang a couple of net "canoples" at the right time, the "vets" won the next two games and incidentally the set. 16-3. The match lasted exactly two hours and twenty-five minutes. Harry Koch and Lyman McConnell were given a surprise in the other match

PIERCE, Neb., July 27.—(Special.)—
Pierce won its third game this season from Pisinview on the local diamond yesterday by a score of 10 to 6. Hastings was on the center mound for the visitors and did a good job, but had miserable support, as was shown from the tenerrors made by his teammates. Pierce had an easy time of it until the seventh frame, when on a couple of errors and a fortunate hit Plainview tied, 6 and 6. In Pierce's half, however, two more were added and in the eighth the same score was duplicated, Plainview being unable to do anything in its final two innings. Burke, catcher for Pierce, got his second home run of the season with bases full. Score:
