EXPENDITURES BEING LIMITED Resolution Agreed to Which Author izes Clerk to Draw Only One-

Twelfth of Fund Each Month

for Any Department.

Although City Treasurer John Gillin recently announced to the public that he had located sufficient funds with which the fire and police board might maintain their crippled departments until the end of the fiscal year, City Clerk Perry Wheeler announced to the city council yesterday that he had but $30 in the police fund, which is supposed to maintain the department for the next two weeks. City Clerk Wheeler told the councilmen that lie would not lay his office liable by drawing warrants against a depleted fund. The information given the council by the city clerk means that the police fund will probably run short from $600 to $1,000 unless the council accepts $800 occupation tax from the telephone company which was refused by the treasurer some days

The real business of yesterday's meeting was to consider ways and means for escaping the annual deficit in the different funds. As suggested a year ago by his department. City Attorney H. D. Murphy insisted that it was the duty of the council to live within the funds provided for the separate departments. The policy of limiting the expenditures of the different departments was embodied in a resolution which is to be directed to the city clerk authorizing him to draw monthly warrants of not more than onetwelfth of any fund for the maintenance of any department. The resolution, while not voted upon, was generally agreed to by the different members of the council. It was also agreed that all balances remaining in the respective funds at the end of the fiscal year, will be turned into the interest and sinking

The council seemed earnest in its endeavor to inaugurate a policy of retrenchment in the different departments of the city and agreed upon a committee of the council, the city clerk and the city attorney to draft a plan of economy to be submitted to the council at a later meeting. The following is the motion bearing on the police fund:

I move you, the adoption of the follow-ng resolution; that the funds set apart ing resolution; that the funds set apart for the fire department, likewise the funds set apart for the police department, be each divided at the outset of the fiscal year into two separate funds, one to be the salary portion, the other to be the maintenance portion of said fund, and that it be, and is hereby, resolved that the salary portion of said fund be divided that the talary portion of said fund be divided by the twelve parts representing the fively into twelve parts, representing the twelve months of the fiscal year, and that the lire and police board be notified that the mayor and council will not allow, nor will the city clerk draw for any month in the ensuing year, warrants in excess of said fund set aside for each of the twelve

Close Sewer Manholes.

Indignant at the tardy policy of the administration in relieving them of a nuisance, forty members of the Southeast Improvement club turned out yesterday afternoon and closed up thirty-six manholes in the sewer along Railroad avenue. The nuisance complained of by the residents of the southeast section of the city was an unendurable stench which is said to arise from the manholes along Railroad avenue sewer. Six weeks ago, the members of the improvement club maintain, they were promised immediate relief. City Engineer Beale has endeavored to alleviate the trouble, but funds at us disposal proved inadequate to the needs. RACES FEATURES OF GLAD DAY

Gus Miller Rings Master and Master of Ceremontes—Ten Barrels of Lemonade Quech Thirsts.

The Omaha traveling men, with their wives and children, some 800 in all, had their annual picnic in Miller park yesterday. They went early and remained until late, having more run than at any time since they had the measles. Gus Miller was ringmaster and master of ceremonies, being ably assisted by H. Sam Chernis, L. L. Carr, Hugo Melchior and all the others who were not on the card for stunts.

There were ten barrels of lemonade in the shade of a bunch of maples, and after old Georgie Beeson yesterday morning, the thirst of the early arrivals had been so promptly with the first note of the slaked. Gus Miller called the game of circus band the little fellow fled for down stand ball, played between the Melchiors town, where he spent the entire morning and the Holbrooks.
