Jackson Goes in and Finishes the Game, Holding Pa's Men Down

By MASON YOULD. WICHITA, Kan., July 29.—(Special Telegram.)—Manager Arbogast's reter was found for four hits in the first Hughes' double. Score: two innings and was distinctly off lost Omaha the third game of the series by a 6 to 3 score. When the Jobbers came to bat in the third inning the Rourkes were two runs to the good.

Arbogast' sent Robinson back into the box and the Wichita batters landed or him for three more hits and tied the score. Robinson was not benched then but was allowed to pitch the remainder of the game and was found for at leas one hit in every inning. He also passed three men and made a wild pitch. Manager George Hughes of the Wichita team took Scott out in the third nning after Omaha had made three hits off him and put Jackson in. Jackson was in great shape and did not give a hit until the ninth inning, when Scanlon connected safely, batting a pinch. The Rourkes played the greatest kind of base ball and would have won hands down had Robinson been jerked. The first Omaha run was made by the cleverest base running seen in third and stole home while Scott was winding up. In the third inning clever work on the bases by Coyle saved a double play and resulted later in Omaha making two runs. Thomason sent one to Hughes, who attempted to get Coyle, but the latter delayed the play by dropping to the ground. By the time Hughes had tagged Coyle, Thomason had reached first safely. Kane scored both with a double to the right field boards. puble to the right field boards.
