castor voted solidly fifty-eight for it. B. F. Marshall of Omaha created a stir when he arose after the Douglas county vote was cast and announced that his vote went with the majority under the unit rule and that personally he favored the plank.

"I want to say," he continued, "that the Douglas county delegation does not fairly represent the democracy of Douglas county."

Mayor Dahlin did not appear in the big tent for the evening session of the convention at all. At his request, H. B. Fleeharty served on the resolutions committee in his place. It was after midnight when the convention adjourned.

In the afternoon W. H. Thompson, the "Little Giant" of Grand Island, was elected chairman of the state central committee over the present chairman, J. C. Byrnes. The friends of Byrnes made a stiff fight in his behalf, but were nerved for defeat which they saw coming and expressed their bitterness in a desire for harmony. Byrnes, himself, moved that the first ballot was announced, before that Thompson's election be made unanimous.

Resolutions Committee.

Dahlin, Omaha; Third district, Otto H. Zaack, West Point; Fourth district, Matt Miller, David City; Fifth district, Fred W. Ashton, Grand Island; Sixth district, James R. Swain, Greeley Center.

Victor Wilson of Polk county introduced a resolution demanding that the party platform be adopted in the open convention without the aid of a committee, but on motion of ex-Senator Plack of Wahoo, the Wilson motion was tabled.

When a motion to adjourn and go to the ball game was voted down, H. B. Fleeharty of Douglas county moved that the convention proceed to the selection of a state committee.

New State Committee.

The counties included in the various senatorial districts got together at once and the following committeemen were selected: First District—Clarence E. Bickell, Cook.

Twenty-fifth District—George C. Gillan, Lexington.

Twenty-sixth District—W. A. Latham, Curtis.

Twenty-seventh District—Robert Graham, Columbus.

Twenty-eighth District—George M. Adams, Crawford.

On motion of W. D. Oldham these were declared the state committee.

A motion of M. L. Corey of Clay county seeking to allow the state committee to select its own officers was voted down.

favor of the candidacy of Thompson. E. E. Plack of Wahoo placed in nomination N. J. Ludl of Wahoo as a compromise candidate, but created no stampede. Arthur Mullen spoke in favor of Byrnes.

When the roll was called and it was seen that Thompson had a majority, Byrnes took the platform and moved the nomination of Thompson be made unanimous.

He said he expected to support Mr. Thompson in his work throughout the campaign just the same as if he had been elected himself.

Tom Allen at once moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Byrnes for the able manner in which he had handled the work of state chairmanship during his service. It was carried. Mr. Thompson spoke very briefly, saying he knew he would have the support of Mr. Byrnes in his effort this fall, after which adjournment was taken until 7:30, when the resolution committee was to report.

PLATFORM OF THE DEMOCRATS

Document Comprehends an Immense Program. GRAND ISLAND, Neb., July 31.—(Special Telegram.)—These are the resolutions as presented to the democratic convention by the resolutions committee.

We, the democrats of Nebraska in state convention assembled, send greetings to the democrats of the nation, and congratulate them upon the success of the Baltimore convention in the nomination of Woodrow Wilson for president and Thomas B. Marshall for vice president and in the adoption of a thoroughly good progressive platform. We hereby express our unqualified approval of the platform and of the platform committee.

We point with pride to the leadership Nebraska's democracy has taken during the last eighteen years under the guidance of William B. Ewing. We congratulate the democrats of the nation that they had in Nebraska a distinguished citizen, a man who dared defy the able men that had wrecked the republican party and that sought at Baltimore the destruction of the democratic party; that he had courage to change the right of those elements to dominate in democratic convention and stood for what he believed to be the interest of the folks of his home.

Senate Amendments to Tariff Measures Voted Down in House

WASHINGTON, July 31.—With machine-like precision, the democratic house today forced, over all opposition, three tariff measures back upon the senate.

They were the wool and sugar tariff revision bills and the excise tax bill, and they were sent back with none of the senate's amendments accepted.

On the wool bill no conference was asked. The house left it flatly to the senate whether that branch desired to pursue the legislation further.

The senate tonight was in a quandary as to what program it would adopt in further consideration of the three bills.

The regular republican were reported to favor a plan whereby they would abstain themselves from the chamber, thus giving the democrats a chance to pass the measures and send them along for the president's veto.

The republican, however, opposed this scheme and insisted that the differences, where they are reconcilable, be threshed out in conference.

Senate democrats, enjoying the republican disagreement, will seek to take advantage of it. Some concerted plan of action probably will be adopted tomorrow morning when the senate democrats caucus on the wool measure. It is admitted that the whole tariff program will be discussed.

The wool tariff revision bill was the first taken up in the house today. There was virtually no debate, except a statement by Majority Leader Underwood and a short reply by Representative Payne of New York.

Payne of New York, ranking minority member of the ways and means committee, moved that the republican members of the Ways and Means committee concur in the senate amendments were voted down, 159 to 78 and 173 to 56.

The last named vote automatically rejected the senate changes.

EIGHT BILLS RETURNED IN BOSTON STRIKE CASES

BOSTON, July 31.—After two weeks' investigation of the recent strike of motormen and conductors of the Boston Elevated railway, the grand jury today reported eight secret indictments.

Judge Pierce, who received the indictments, was informed that the report was a partial one and that the grand jury would continue its investigations on August 15.

The charges on which the special session of the grand jury was called were made by counsel for the strikers, former State Senator James H. Vahey, who declared that six division superintendents in their testimony before the state board of arbitration had committed perjury in swearing that they did not discharge men for joining the union.

He claimed that the law prohibited the coercing of men into agreements not to join or continue membership in the union.

During the last two weeks the grand jury heard 159 witnesses, including carmen, the division superintendents, President William A. Bancroft, Vice President Brush and Directors James Prendergast and James L. Richards.

GIRL IS KIDNAPPED BY THREE MEN IN MOTOR CAR

ELGIN, Ill., July 31.—Staring evidence of exposure, a 14-year-old girl, who gave her name as Raymonna French of 929 East Fifty-fifth street, Chicago, was found on a country road near Elgin last night.

The girl claims to have been kidnaped Monday afternoon by three men in an automobile near her home. Since then she remembers little.

Miss Marie Charnier of Chicago, an aunt of the French girl, came to Elgin this afternoon accompanied by a detective and Mrs. Bates, a neighbor, to whom belonged much jewelry worn by the girl when found. The girl denied having stolen the jewelry and stuck to her kidnapping story. She was taken back to Chicago.

UNION HIGH SCHOOL WILL BE ORGANIZED AT BELLEVUE

The electors of the school districts of Bellevue, Avery and Fort Crook held special meetings in the respective districts last night to vote upon the proposition to unite in the establishment of a union high school to be located at Bellevue.

The proposition carried by a large majority, and a full four-year high school will at once be organized.

For the present it will be accommodated in connection with the academy of Bellevue college, enjoying the advantages of teachers, buildings, equipment, library and athletic grounds on the same conditions as the academy.

YOUNG MOTHERS

No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both herself and the coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months.

Diarrhoea

No case of Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Cholera Infantum or Summer Complaint is so serious as that of WAKEFIELD'S BLACKBERRY BALSAM will not quickly relieve it.

HUMORS IN THE BLOOD

Humors get into the blood usually because of an inactive condition of the system. Those members whose duty it is to expel all refuse matter do not properly perform their work, and an unhealthy accumulation is absorbed into the blood.
