No. 2— Priced at 98c—A wonderful bargain in this lot; odd lots of Madame Irene, Bon Ton, Kabo, etc.; sold formerly as high as $5, Thursday at..... 98c

We quote only a few indicators in Undermuslins; Ladies' Cambric Drawers, India Linen, Tucked Ruffle; the value 30c a pair, the price Thursday, per pair at..... 19c

On one table many odd lots, fancy trimmed drawers; fine lace and embroidery edging and insertion; the values, 65c to $1 a pair, the price Thursday, pair..... 39c

Petticoat Prices Pruned—Fine white petticoats, trimmed with deep embroidery flounce and circular lace flounce; sold before up to $2.75; pruned for Thursday, each at..... 98c

On another table a lot, which are mussed slightly from handling during the sale; some sold as high as $5 each; petticoat pick of the lot, each at..... $1.95

Let's Talk Tumblers—While awaiting more copy; Colonial tumblers will sell Thursday, 6 for 15c; usually 35c the 1/2 dozen; you will take these with you, please; cost of delivery and risk of breakage too great for us to take at the price.

Fine etched tumblers, usually 45c for six; Thursday 19c for half dozen. No delivery.

The Tumblers will be Sold in the Basement.

Now for a Shoe Story—A Story Which Can Only Be Told Truthfully Once—and a Sale Which Can Never be Repeated

25 Per Cent Off Women's and Children's Shoes—Nothing unusual, perhaps, about the statement; this, however, is a new stock, made and bought for this season's trade—not a single pair a carry-over; and here are some foolish prices on other lots—all new styles, also of high quality:

Firstly—Women's white canvas pumps and button boots, newest models, quality fine—$3.50 and $4.00 the worth, Thursday, at..... $2.85

Secondly—Some beautiful pumps and Colonials, in dull patent, tan and satin. Mr. Tuttle says, "the prettiest ever," late style, of course; $5.00 regular price; only seen in high grade stores. Thursday, $3.35 a pair. There will be a scramble for this lot.

Thirdly—To cause real excitement—All that remains from the big July Purchase—patent leather pumps and Oxfords, velozee pumps in brown and gray—tan pumps and oxfords—also Moire silk pumps; $5.00 grades, on Thursday, per pair, at..... $1.95

Remember entire stock is new—not an old style in the store.

It is especially important that you visit the Shoe Section in the morning. In the afternoon it will be difficult to get a seat or a salesman—for Thursday will be a Big Day.

BIG BASEMENT BARGAINS

Thursday a grand clean-up of Domestic Tissues and Borders; sold up to 15c, per yard at..... 5c

25c mercerized and nainsook, at $1.29

Men's Shirts—There will be a big quantity of good one dollar shirts to sell, each, at..... 49c

And that's not all of the shirt story, for we will place on sale all our Fine Summer Shirts; shirts with a pedigree, the very Aristocrats of Shirtdom—
$1.50 shirts at..... $1.29
$2.00 shirts at..... $1.59
$3.00 shirts at..... $1.95
Silk Socks, per pair at..... 25c
25c Wash Four-in-hands..... 10c
50c kind, 3 for..... $1.00

Back again to Women's Wear, but the chase is a merry one, because of money-saving opportunities—We would not willingly carry over one yard of Fine Cotton Goods, hence the prices which follow—

Dimities, Linens, Tissues, Organdy, Borders, goods which sold at 25c and 35c, per yard at..... 12 1/2c

Voiles, Jacquards, Linen, 45-inch mercerized borders, Silk Warps, too; fabrics which sold up to 50c, Thursday..... 19c

And the High Class Imported French Voiles, Organdies, Carreaux, novelty patterns, many exclusive; sold up to 75c, per yard at..... 25c

Additional interest added by the sale of $1.00 Ratine; pink, white and popular, per yard at..... 69c

Thursday we propose to start a Suit Sale—which will cause a Real Sensation—one big aggregation priced so low as to seem ridiculous—values so apparent as to strike home with force at once. Yes, bargains so wonderful as to make the occasion historic—and have you date events from

The Day of the Big Suit Sale at Kilpatrick's

Entire Stock of Tailored Suits—no matter what the former price was and utterly without regard to the cost of production—without limit and without restriction. Whoever has the price can get one—suits made from fine imported fabrics—Woolens and Silks from the best makers in America. Fashionably shaped and made by expert men tailors. Woolen suits and silk suits which sold before at $30, $40, $45, $50, $60, $75—go at

One Price $12.50 10 A. M. Thursday

No Alterations—No Exchanges—We were about to say we wouldn't even deliver them, but weather is too warm to ask purchasers to take Suits home themselves—You won't mind the no alterations and you won't want to exchange; bargains so genuine; the price will compensate for any trifling changes.

Intending purchasers please us by not holding on to more than you want when you see that the selection is not just right—drop it please—give someone else a chance. Ladies really enjoy our sales. Our patrons are never boorish—always good natured.

The browning of the leaves leads us to moralize and reflect that the season's wheel is ever revolving, and that now as ever, "Summer and Winter shall not cease." Seems early to think of Fall, much less write about it. But time is on the wing and ere we are aware, Autumn will be here. Fitting therefore to think of preparations and here's where taking the Old Father by the forelock is profitable.

Thursday 5 lots of Curtains, consisting of 1 to 4 pairs of a kind, bunched to make a clean sweep for us, and a mighty handy thing for you to have on hand next month if not today.

Now we are conscious of the fact that names and descriptions avail but little. You must take our word for assurance of values. Those of you who know us need no guarantee. Hundreds we believe who have not known us will have an opportunity to distinguish during this sale between the false and the true. Store opens at 8. Come early for things will surely hum on Thursday.

Preparing for a great Silk sale Saturday. Scores of sample pieces shown in window. Tell your friends. Don't forget to look in window. Many have asked for reservations—but justice to all compels us to decline to lay aside or reserve any for anybody. Peddlers and dealers refused.
