

"And August Sees the Harvest Past"

So runs the rhyme of the months. In our own state, thank Providence, there is promise of a bountiful yield—a bountiful barn-filling crop means bountiful business—and it is to prepare for that that we are ridding shelves, racks and counters of all Summer Merchandise.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 3rd at KILPATRICK'S SWIFT SELLING SUMMER STOCKS!

SILK SALE STARTS AT 9 A. M.—Hundreds of women have inspected styles shown in window. The assortment is varied, ranging in value from 85c to $1.25 to put it modestly—there are, indeed, some which were made to sell at $1.50. Widths range from 18 inches to a full yard wide. Just the thing for an extra dress, waist or skirt. Don't care whether for a go-away or stay at home. Among the Pongees, Foulards, Taffetas, Messalines the most critical can find something to suit. Many asked for reservations. With a desire to be fair to all—we were compelled to refuse every one. All will go on sale, including some which we had not space to display. At one price—9 A. M., remember.....

"'Twas a spark popped from the fire," says she
"And burnt three suits of lan-jay-ree."

To settle the matter and satisfy the objector, we confess our French teaching was sadly neglected.

Never in the month of August did we see such activity in the Undermuslin department. Thursday immense business, Friday excellent. Saturday will be the biggest yet if Mr. Welch will give us fair weather.

And now please remember, silk sale 9 A. M. All our other specials start at 8 A. M., end 9 P. M. May we not ask you for your own sake as well as ours to try to visit Shoe Section in the morning. Salesmen are trying hard to give proper Shoe Service, which means shoe fit and shoe comfort—hard to give it in the rush of Saturday afternoon.

Potato Flour Cake.
Break two eggs into a bowl, add one tablespoonful of cold water and beat until light, using an egg-beater; then add one-third cupful of sugar gradually, while beating constantly. Mix and stir one-half cupful of potato flour, one teaspoonful of baking powder and one-fourth teaspoonful of salt. Combine mixture and add one-fourth teaspoonful of vanilla and one tablespoonful of melted butter. Turn into a buttered and floured seven-inch square cakepan, sprinkle with powdered sugar and bake in a moderate oven from twenty to twenty-five minutes. This same mixture may be baked in a round tin, split and filled with whipped cream (sweetened and flavored), cream filling, lemon filling, jelly, jam, or Mocha frosting.

Mocha Frosting.
Take three tablespoonfuls of coffee (which has been left over from breakfast) and heat quickly to the boiling point. Add confectioners' sugar gradually, while stirring constantly, until of the right consistency to spread, the amount required being about two and three-fourths cupfuls; then add two teaspoonfuls of vanilla. Add a little more confectioners' sugar, to make of right consistency, and spread on cake.

Salted Almonds.
Cover one-fourth pound of Jordan almonds with boiling water and let stand three minutes, drain, cover with cold water, let stand three minutes, and again drain. Rub off skins and dry nuts between the folds of a towel. Put one-third cupful of olive oil in a small saucepan, set on range, and when hot put in one-fourth of the almonds and fry until delicately browned, stirring constantly to keep almonds in motion. Remove with a spoon or skimmer, taking up as little oil as possible. Drain on brown paper and sprinkle with salt; repeat until all are fried. If olive oil is not at hand,
