Aulabaugh, the Furrier Demands the Segerstrom Piano Store by August 15th

We are in a quandary—seek advice—seek help—we are willing to remunerate piano buyers RICHLY if they'll GIVE us this help. It's this way—AULABAUGH, THE FURRIER, is going to occupy the former "Segerstrom" store room; he DEMANDS it August 15th. That leaves us only a few DAYS to dispose of the pianos that are HERE. We couldn't move the instruments to Orkin Bros., former Bennett establishment, if we TRIED, for they are remodeling over there, too, and there's not an inch of piano space at our disposal. It's simply up to us to SELL at any price the instruments will bring, on terms that will help the sale along quickest. We have tried, but can not stave Aulabaugh off a day longer than the 15th; he wants to get busy on his FUR DEP'T. and FIREPROOF COLD STORAGE VAULT FOR FURS and on his taxidermy dept. If you've EVER threatened to buy a piano, carry out your threat NOW. The reason is a genuine one—the pianos must go—in a matter of days—even HOURS.

There isn't an inch of Space in the former Bennett Company establishment--We must sell all remaining "Segerstrom" Pianos by Aug. 15th, for we CANNOT move them.

- $25 must sell a good used upright piano before August 15th. $43 must sell a VERY good used upright piano before August 15th. $160 must sell a first-class grand piano before August 15th. $260 must sell a handsome player piano before August 15th. $5 each must sell square pianos, organs, etc., before August 15th. Stools, benches, polish, scarfs, etc., at almost your own price.

Orkin Bros. Co. Successor to The Bennett Co. Sale takes place at former "Segerstrom" Establishment Cor. 19th and Farnam Sts., Omaha, Neb.
