

MURDER IN RAILROAD CAMP

Austrian Kills Father and Fatally Wounds Son at Weston, Ia.

REIVAL CAMPS ENGAGE IN RIOT

Peter Beygovic, in Fight with Visitor from Other Camp, Falls Revolver to Commit Deed.

One man was instantly killed by a bullet through the heart, another fatally wounded by a bullet that penetrated his body just above the heart and a third man received a stab wound in the shoulder during the progress of a fight that took place about 7:30 last night at Weston, ten miles east of Council Bluffs.

The man who did the shooting escaped. All are Austrian railroad laborers. A force of about 150 men is camped at Weston, engaged in laying new steel rails for the Milwaukee railroad company.

The younger Beygovic became involved in a fight with him and was getting the worst of it when the father interfered. The son's assailant then drew a .38-caliber revolver and shot the father, killing him instantly.

The body of the elder Beygovic was sent to town on the Rock Island and the wounded son was brought to Mercy hospital in an automobile driven by Dr. O'Keefe, who responded to the call for surgical aid.

The village has no officers and a call was sent to Council Bluffs. Sheriff McCaffery and Deputies Leuch, Gillaspay, Wadding and Coroner Cutler left immediately in one automobile, and Night Police Captain Shafer, Detective Lane and Constable Humphrey started in another.

Bygovic, who did the shooting, was aided to escape by his comrades and getting after reloading his revolver and putting an extra box of shells. The officers did not attempt to follow him last night but threw out a net which they believe he will be unable to evade.

A committee was appointed to draw up resolutions condemning the action of Justice D. T. Wright of the District of Columbia in sentencing John Mitchell, Samuel Gompers and Frank Morrison to imprisonment, and asking that he be impeached, to be sent to Speaker Champ Clark and Woodrow Wilson.

OLIVE BRANCH SLASHED IN FIGHT WITH WOMAN

Just as Olive Branch, colored, otherwise known as Olive Lucky, stepped out of a doorway near the Midway saloon at Twelfth and Dodge streets last night at 11 o'clock, May Hogan, also colored, leaped upon her with a sharp pocket knife and slashed her across the face.

Three weeks ago a similar outting affair with the same woman as principals resulted was given attention by the police. Olive Branch says she is not the Olive Branch that is commonly spoken of as a token of peace, even though she is charged with disturbing it.

Competition Keen For Winnebago Land

WINNEBAGO, Neb., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—Bids for leasing Indian land on this reservation were opened today and much interest was displayed by all parties concerned. A list of lands to be leased was posted at this place and at all the banks in this county early in June.

All holders of expiring leases on this land are permitted to meet whatever price may be bid for the land on which they now hold lease. In case this price is met, the one holding the expiring lease is preferred.

Three hundred and sixty pieces of land were up for lease and 500 bids were received. The highest bid per acre on any piece was $5 and the lowest bid per acre was 25 cents.

Farming and grazing leases are divided into three classes. Leases of the first class are made by Indians who are pronounced competent to transact all of their own business affairs and are made exactly as any other lease between two citizens.

All land up for lease will be leased sooner or later, but owing to errors in many of the bids, there were not enough bids accepted to clean up the list. Many bidders submitted bids on class (2) two land, which is not leased through the office, and consequently lost their bid.

Competition is keen among the bidders for this reservation comprises land that is unusually fertile and drouth causing complete failure is almost unknown. Special Examiner G. N. Tunison, who is employed by the Indian office to determine help to be given to land titles, left here today for Wind River, Wyo., where he will take up the work of determining heirs to estates on that reservation.

Ringling's Steward On Cost of Living

Albert L. Webb, steward of Ringling Brothers' circus and formerly an Omaha boy, throws some interesting light on the present high cost of living. A talk with him would do much to open the eyes of the housekeepers, as well as the voters, to the true conditions in this country.

"It costs me only 1 cent more per meal for each person than it did fourteen years ago," says Webb. "I know from the running expenses of my home that the cost of living has increased about 50 per cent in the last ten years. But you see the circus escapes because we have cut out the middleman; there you have the whole trouble—the middleman. He is the one who is making the hardship in this country, likewise all the money. By middleman I mean those who stand between the consumer and the producer—commission merchants, cold storage firms, particularly the men who speculate in the necessities of life, the stock gambler and the jobber.

"Food is cheap enough in this country for anybody; it is not properly distributed, that's all. The law will have to help out the middleman, but the housekeeper can't do much. How is the marketing done for the average family? By telephone; the delivery man brings the food, the hired girl receives it and the housekeeper does not know its weight or its condition. If the women who run homes would go to market as I do and study prices and foods they would find their bills greatly reduced. They should not go to just one market, but to several, so they would have a line on prices. Prices fluctuate and I buy according. When pork goes up I buy veal. When veal goes up I drop to mutton. The market basket is a money saver, but you seldom see it any more."

SURETIES MAKE ADMISSIONS

Bondsmen of South Omaha Saloonists Have Little or No Property.

SOME OF THEM HARD TO LOCATE

Assistant Attorney General Ayres and Ed P. Smith Discuss the Use of Large English Words.

Difficulty in finding sureties on the alleged worthless bonds accepted by the South Omaha Board of Fire and Police Commissioners made progress slow yesterday in the state ouster suit against Fire and Police Commissioners John J. Ryan and Joseph Pivonka. Only a half dozen sureties were found with subpoenas during the day. They admitted that when they signed the bonds they did not have sufficient property to qualify as sureties in the sum of $5,000.

The same situation existed today. Several men whose names are identical with those of men who signed the bonds came into court in response to subpoenas and were sent away as soon as it was discovered that they were not the men wanted. Joe Davolinsky, who signed the bond of John Hlnowski, for whom he was tendering bar at the time, said he owned a lot in Ralston and one in South Omaha. The Ralston lot was worth $3,000, he said, but when searching examined by the assistant attorney general he admitted he paid only $25 for it. He bought it on the installment plan and had no deed to it at the time the bond was signed.

A Polish witness stared blankly when questioned in elegant English by the assistant attorney general. Ed P. Smith of counsel for the defense made the witness understand by using the commoner English words.

"Avoid the use of a little technical nomenclature of your scholastic profession," advised Smith, smiling at the assistant attorney general.

Sharp Reply Made to Secretary Stimson

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—War was declared today between the house of representatives and the War department on the question of granting individuals the right to take up water power sites, when Chairman Adamson of the house interstate commerce committee wrote a sharp letter to Secretary of War Stimson concerning the problem. Mr. Stimson previously had written to Mr. Adamson protesting against an omnibus water power site measure reported favorably by his committee and in which were several bills that had been subject to attack. In answering the secretary Mr. Adamson did not mince words.

"Your letter presents a singular admixture of statements well known, unwarranted conclusions and erroneous opinions of both law and the fact," he wrote.

Mr. Adamson declared the government could not undertake to develop all the projects that he held were necessary to the advancement of the country and that private enterprises, with strict limitations, should be allowed to invest its capital and energy in that development. He scouted the idea of a water power "trust" and asserted that the secretary of war, "if he had done his duty," had legal means and authority to safeguard the government in all such leases. Mr. Adamson condemned the existing law which prevents capital from undertaking water power development work. He said hundreds of water power sites, which might be adapted to the public good, were undeveloped.

ATTORNEYS WRANGLE OVER DARROW'S CONVERSATIONS

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3.—The much-discussed secretly procured stenographic report of conversations between Clarence S. Darrow and John R. Harrington again proved a source of delay in the bribery trial today of Clarence S. Darrow and brought to a temporary halt the cross-examination of the defendant.

Asserting that he could show that Darrow did tell Harrington last September that he had $10,000 in currency for the purpose of "reaching" jurors in the McNamara case, District Attorney Ford asked Darrow if he had not admitted to Harrington on February 14 last in a local hotel that he did make the statement and had asked Harrington not to tell it to the grand jury.

Money for Refugees Provided by Senate

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The destitution of American refugees from Mexico, now quartered at El Paso, resulted in the passage by the senate today of a resolution authorizing the War department to spend $100,000 in transporting them to such points in the United States as they wish to reach.

The measure was presented by Senator Bailey and passed after a brief debate. It will need the approval of the house and the president before the appropriation becomes available. Senator Bailey declared the refugees were in dire need, and in most cases were unable to proceed beyond that city. Transportation would be provided under the resolution only for those who are receiving some aid in "shelter or sustenance" from the government at El Paso.

Calling in Funds to Build Interurban

CRESTON, Ia., Aug. 3.—(Special.)—A call for the first payment on the Creston, Winterset & Des Moines Interurban railway bonds was issued yesterday by the board of directors after the bond issue was subscribed in full. Yesterday was the date set for the subscription for stock to be completed. When the directors met it was found that they still lacked $3,000 of having the required sum due from Creston.

The farmers along the right-of-way had met their share, but the problem confronting the promoters was right here in the city. A number of enthusiastic supporters of the road came to the rescue and saved the day, who had already subscribed heavily to the fund. The call for the first assessment of 5 per cent on the stock subscription. When this is paid over the work is expected to begin.

Alice Drexel Thrown From Car in Collision

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 3.—Miss Alice Drexel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Drexel of Philadelphia, well known in society circles in this city, had a narrow escape from serious injury today when her automobile was struck by an automobile delivery wagon. Miss Drexel was thrown from the machine to a lawn and suffered nothing worse than a shaking up. Her maid, Marie Laglene, received a slight concussion of the brain and her chauffeur, George Koschyn, had a leg broken besides sustaining other injuries.

Mrs. Styvesant Fish, who was nearby, called doctors and an ambulance and the maid and chauffeur were removed to the Newport hospital. Miss Drexel was able to go home.

CONGRESSMAN ASKS WILSON TO SAY WHAT IS REAL BEER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—"What is beer? And if so why?" are the two questions Representative Anderson of Minnesota wants Secretary Wilson to answer. Mr. Anderson asked the house committee on agriculture today for the answers and later introduced an amended resolution calling on the Department of Agriculture for them.

Mr. Anderson's only curiosity is to know what beer is not beer. His constituents raise barley which they believe is the only grain which should go to make up beer and that other concoctions are a snare. Mr. Anderson recently, with credentials from the National Consumers' league, got from the Agricultural department a definition of beer signed by Dr. Harvey Wiley. The definition was not given the force of law by Secretary Wilson, Mr. Anderson says, and he wants to know why.

The Wiley definition of beer as set forth in Mr. Anderson's resolution is a "fermented product made from a mash composed of barley malt and hops with or without a small quantity of unmalted cereals not exceeding 30 per cent of the weight of the barley malt used."
