POINGARE STARTS FOR RUSSIA

French Premier Goes to Negotiate Series of Treaties.

MAY TRY TO OPEN DARDANELLES

Rumor That There is to Be a New Alliance—Offensive and Defensive—Another Upheaval is Probable.

PARIS, Aug. 5.—Raymond Poincaré, the French premier, started today for Russia, surrounded by all the signs that usually accompany a great state pilgrimage. Aristide Briand, minister of justice, Théophile Delcassé, minister of marine, Armand Messier, chief of the protocol, Louis Leprieux, prefect of police of Paris, the secretaries and attaches of the Russian embassy and the staff of the French foreign office were all present at the station to emphasize the occasion, while in the premier's train traveled all the leading journalists of France who always mobilize when questions of high politics are in the air.

Near-eastern questions and the Franco-Russian naval convention, the signature of which by M. Poincaré in St. Petersburg will bring the whole fighting forces of the allies within the terms of an offensive and defensive alliance, are to be the main subjects of discussion between the emperor, Sergius Sazanoff, the Russian minister, and the French visitor.

The most prominent feature of the visit will be the Franco-Russian naval agreement which will claim immediate attention.

The eventual opening of the Dardanelles and the steps necessary for its accomplishment also are to be discussed during the fourteen days' visit of M. Poincaré. It is pointed out here that this is likely to be the burning question in the settlement of the Russo-Italian war, for it is felt that Russia is not building $15,000,000 dreadnaughts in the Black Sea with the intention of anchoring them in an enclosed lake, and unless the question is settled soon, it is bound to cause another European upheaval at the time of completion of the ships, a couple of years hence.

Healthy Mothers

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother adds nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend is sold at Mother's Friend drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature. BEARFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

IOWA HORSES ARE RELEASED

Veterinary Department of Hawkeye State Busy in Canada.

NO CAUSE FOR KILLING ANIMALS

Effort Will Be Made to Recover Value for Owners—Appointments by Executive Council—Federal Posters Torn Down.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
DES MOINES, Aug. 5.—(Special Telegram.)—After a long controversy the state veterinary department of Iowa has at last secured the release in Canada of all of a shipment of horses from Mitchell county to Saskatchewan. The horses had been in quarantine since last March, on the claim that some of them showed signs of disease. The shipment of horses was detained at the Canadian border and nineteen of them were condemned and killed as diseased. The owner appealed to Iowa for help and the state veterinarian went to Canada and made personal investigation. He declared that none of the animals was diseased and it was an outrage that any of them should have been killed. An effort will be made to recover for the loss.

Appointments Made.

The executive council announced the following appointments: Thomas Downing, Washington, and Frank Kinsey, McGregor, commissioners of animal health; Isaac R. Hitt, Washington, commissioner of deeds, and C. D. Phelps, Clear Lake, assistant veterinarian surgeon.

No Posters Allowed.

Major Haverstick, general inspector of the United States treasury, dropped into Des Moines this morning and jumped on the army and navy and the marine corps recruiting officers. He ordered the army, navy and marine corps of officials immediately to take down and to destroy that it was never put up again the military advertising lithographs around the federal building. He also ordered the removal by the postal savings bank of notices tacked up in places of vantage in the postoffice building. It is declared that the federal buildings cannot be used as bill boards even if partly abandoned.

BEVERIDGE SOUNDS KEYNOTE FOR BULL MOOSE CONVENTION

found a party through which all who believe with us can work with us; or rather, we declare our allegiance to the party which the people themselves have founded.

For this party comes from the grass roots. It has grown from the soil of the people's hard necessities. It has the vitality of the people's strong convictions. The people have work to be done and our party is here to do that work. Abuse will only strengthen it, ridicule only hasten its growth, falsehood only speed its victory.

Party Forming for Years.

Parties exist for the people; not the people for the parties. Yet for years the politicians have made the people do the work of the parties instead of the parties doing the work of the people. The people vote for one party and find their hopes turned to ashes on their lips; and then, to punish that party, they vote for the other party. So it is that partisan victories have come to be merely the people's vengeance; and always the secret powers have played their game.

The Progressive Party Asserts Anew the Vitality of the Constitution.

We believe in the true doctrine of states' rights, which forbids the nation from interfering with state affairs, and also forbids the states from interfering with national affairs. The combined intelligence and composite conscience of the American people is as irresistible as it is righteous; and the constitution does not prevent that force from working out the general welfare.

From certain sources we hear recriminations about the danger of our reforms to American institutions.

What is the purpose of American institutions? Why was this republic established? What does the flag stand for? What do these things mean? They mean that the people shall be free to correct human abuses. They mean that the men, women and children shall not be denied the opportunity to grow stronger and nobler. They mean that the people shall have the power to make our land each day a better place to live in. They mean the realities of liberty, and not the academics of theory. They mean the actual progress of the race in tangible items of daily living and not the theoretic of barren disputation. If they do not mean these things they are as a sounding brass and tinkling cymbal.

Predicts Nation of Ideals.

A nation of strong, upright men and women; a nation of wholesome homes, realizing the best ideals; a nation whose power is glorified by its justice and whose justice is the conscience of scores of millions of God-fearing people—that is the nation the people need and want. And that is the nation they shall have.

For never doubt that we Americans will make good the real meaning of our institutions.

Never doubt that we will solve, in righteousness and wisdom, every vexing problem. Never doubt, that in the end, the hand from above that leads us upward will prevail over the hand from below that drags us downward. Never doubt that we are indeed a nation whose God is the Lord.

And so, never doubt that a braver, fairer, cleaner America surely will come; that a better and brighter life for all beneath the flag surely will be achieved. Those who now scoff soon will pray. Those who now doubt soon will believe. Soon the night will pass; and when, to the Sentinel on the ramparts of Liberty, the anxious ask: "Watchman, what of the night?" his answer will be "Lo, the morn' approacheth."

fore His judgment seat. Oh, be swift our souls to answer Him, be jubilant our feet. Our God is marching on.

Cheers Are Frequent.

Mr. Beveridge was cheered throughout his speech, a tumultuous interruption coming when he assailed the "boss ridden old parties." The rulers of the old parties, he said, were "invisible." They are the invisible government behind our visible government," he declared. "It is this invisible government which is the real danger to American government."

At one point in his speech Mr. Beveridge referred to "professional politicians." "To hell with the politicians!" came a shout from the gallery and the delegates cheered.

Senator Beveridge's speech kept the floor and galleries cheering. Delegates and spectators rose to their feet with a wild shout when he denounced the Standard Oil and Tobacco decisions of the supreme court.

Under the decrees of the court the oil and tobacco trusts can still raise prices and have already done so. They can still issue watered stock and they surely will do so. They can still throttle other business men and the United Cigar Stores company is doing so. They can still corrupt our politics and, at this moment are including in that practice.

A chorus of jeers and groans greeted Beveridge's attack on President Taft and the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill. The long low call of the "bull moose" was heard for the first time in this demonstration.

Throughout Senator Beveridge's speech a persistent spectator in the gallery interrupted several times with the shout: "How about the liquor question?" Beveridge ignored him and there were shouts of "put him out."

Senator Beveridge concluded at 3:07 after he had been talking for more than an hour and a half.

The Missouri delegation selected Charles Walker as chairman, but did not file the committee papers.

California delegates by a resolution declared: "We need Governor Johnson on the Pacific coast more than they need him in Washington as president of the senate of the United States."

Rules Are Adopted.

The Californians named Governor Johnson as chairman of the state delegation and Chester H. Rowell national committeeman. F. J. Henry was put on the credentials committee and Chester H. Rowell on the platform committee.

The rules of the house of representatives, amended in many places, were adopted as the rules of the convention. A new rule barring contested delegates from voting on any question before the convention was included in the amendments and was greeted with cheers. It was as follows:

In the event of contest regarding the right of any delegate or alternate to sit in this convention, notice of such contest shall be filed with the secretary and any delegate or alternate whose seat has been contested in good faith shall stand aside and not be permitted to vote as a member of this convention until his credentials have been accepted by the convention, provided, however that in the make-up of the temporary roll of this convention the recommendations of the provisional national committee shall be accepted as prima facie evidence of the right to sit as delegates or alternates in this convention without the right to vote until the credentials in question shall have finally been determined by the convention itself.

The roll of states was then called for the reading of the members of the various committees.

The roll had proceeded as far as California when a motion was carried to dispense with a further reading, the state delegations sending their lists to the desk.

Former Secretary of the Interior James Garfield of Ohio was recognized and from his place on the floor moved the appointment of a committee to invite Colonel Roosevelt to appear in the convention at noon to deliver an address and also to escort him to the convention hall.

The motion was enthusiastically seconded and carried. The committee named was as follows:

E. A. Van Vliessenberg, Pennsylvania; Oscar H. Straus, New York; J. Franklin Fort, New Jersey; John M. Barker, Louisiana; Miles Polinder, Washington; Leslie Coombs, Kentucky; Julian Harris, Georgia; M. O. Dawson, West Virginia; J. N. Williamson, Jr., North Carolina; George E. Watkins, Michigan; Nicholas Helenburg, Montana; Chester

H. Howell, California; Joseph R. Baldwin, Maryland; Ben H. Lindsey, Colorado; John L. Stevens, Iowa.

The proposed "experience meeting" with brief speeches from representatives of various states, proposed for the late afternoon was postponed and at 7:37 p. m. adjournment was taken until noon tomorrow.

THE SECRET OF LONG LIFE.

Do not sap the springs of life by neglect of the human mechanism, by allowing the accumulation of poisons in the system. An imitation of Nature's method of restoring waste of tissue and impoverishment of the blood and nervous strength is to take an alternative glyceric extract (without alcohol) of Golden Seal and Oregon grape root, Bloodroot, Stone and Mandrake root with Cherrybark. Over 40 years ago Dr. Pierce gave to the public this remedy, which he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. He found it would help the blood in taking up the poisons from the food, help the liver into activity, thereby throwing out the poisons from the blood and vitalizing the whole system as well as allaying and soothing a cough, and no one ever takes cold unless unacquainted, or exhausted, and having what we call mal-nutrition, which is attended with impoverished blood and exhaustion of nerve forces. The "Discovery" is an all-round tonic which restores tone to the blood, nerves and heart by imitating Nature's methods of restoring waste of tissue, and feeding the nerves, heart and lungs on rich red blood.
