HAGERMAN GETS LAST ONE

Loper Wins in Mighty Pitching Duel with Robinson.

FINAL SCORE TWO TO ONE

Niehoff Only Player to Make Longer Than Single—Lincoln Twirler Safe After the Sixth Inning.

LINCOLN, Aug. 5.—(Special Telegram.)—"Rip" Hagerman and Robinson staged a pretty pitchers' duel this afternoon, with honors even. Sharper's fielding gave Lincoln a hard fought victory by the score of 2 to 1.

In the second Barbour singled and was sacrificed to second by Mullen. Barbour took third on Carney's infield out and scored when Hagerman singled to center.

Lloyd opened for Miller advanced him to second with a sacrifice. Cobb beat out an infield hit and took second when Niehoff threw badly to first. Lloyd going to third. Robinson emitted a wild pitch and Lloyd romped over the plate.

The next two innings were one, two, three on both sides. In the sixth, with two down, Schipke got to first on an error by Barbour, and took second when the third baseman threw wildly to first.

Niehoff walked and with two on bases Bill stepped to the plate. The first ball over was called a strike and Bills threw sand in the umpire's face.

The Rourke tribe was dangerous in two other frames, but either tight pitching by Hagerman or sharp fielding prevented them from sending the necessary run over the plate.
