stick. Each of these two players connected safely three times in four times CRUTCHER HAS STRIKEOUT DAY up. Schipke also scored two of Omaha's four runs. He also stole third base in the eighth inning. Hickory Johnson spoiled Lincoln's chance to score in the second inning when he frustrated a louble steal by catching Barbour sliding nome. Barbour was on third and Mullen on second with one out. Bill Dwyer gave the signal for a double steal and both men started for the next bag. Robinson saw what was coming and heaved the ball close to the ground. Stratton was batting and attempted to block the play. but Johnson gave him the shoulder and caught Barbour.

After the second inning Lincoln was never dangerous, aside from the sevent) inning when the men slipped a run over. but Robinson settled and struck Wolverton out with Stratton on first.

Omaha drew first blood in the fourth Thomason got to first on an infield his and went to third on Kane's single to right. Schipke sent one too hot for Lloyd to handle and Tommle scored.

In the sixth with one down Kane reached first on an infield hit. Schipke singled and Nichoff scored both with a triple to center. Schipke singled in the eighth. Niehoff sacrificed. Schipke stole third and scored on Bills' single to right. OMAHA.
