PAROLE REFUSED CONVICT

Brother-in-Law of Morley Must Remain in Prison.

SENT UP FROM DOUGLAS COUNTY

Greek from Omaha Who is Assessed Judgment for Breach of Promise Appeals His Case to Supreme Court.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Aug. 8.—(Special.)—J. W. Connell, alias W. T. Dorson, sent up from Douglas county on a charge of robbery in April, 1909, has made application to the Board of Pardons for a pardon and the same has been denied.

Connell is a brother-in-law of Charles Morley, connected with the outbreak at the penitentiary last spring, and was sent up for holding up Louis Parsley at his place of business in Omaha. Parsley was forced at the point of a gun to hand over $120 in cash and in addition an overcoat, which was afterwards identified and led to the arrest of Connell.

Connell had been in trouble before in Kansas City for stealing a diamond ring, but got out of it on payment of a fine of $100 and costs. He then came to Nebraska and in company with his brother-in-law Morley, began operations which landed them both in the penitentiary.

Saletopulos Appeals Case.

To show that it does not pay to play with the affections of the gentler sex, some time ago George Saletopulos, was sued in the district court of Douglas county for failure to keep his promise to marry Agelike Katsura, a 19-year-old Omaha girl. Agelike claimed in district court that George asked her to marry him twice and that she finally agreed to do so. However, she discovered later that he was getting ready to go to the old country in search of a bride, and she tried to persuade him that there was no need of such time and expense being gone to when she was ready to slip on the matrimonial noose. However, George persisted in saying that the stuff was off as far as marriage with Agelike was concerned and so she then and there sued him for breach of promise, placing the damages at $10,000. However, she set forth in her affidavit that she was still ready to carry out her part of the contract if George would do his part. She was given a verdict in district court in the sum of $1,500, but as George does not look at it that way he has appealed to the supreme court to reverse the judgment.

Saloon Men Take Case Up.

Another appeal to the supreme court comes from the district court of Clay county in a case wherein William Burup of Harvard had sued three saloon keepers, Timothy Hartnett, Klundt & Co., and Biskup & Sacker of Sutton for damages in the sum of $915 for the loss of one mule, one horse, damages to another mule and horse and the loss of a wagon and repairs to harness, caused by being run into by a Burlington freight train on a crossing between the towns of Sutton and Harvard. Burup set forth in his affidavit that he had sent his hired man, Herbert T. Pembroke, to Sutton with a load of feed. Hitched to the wagon were a team of mules and horses. While in Sutton Pembroke visited the saloons of the defendants and became intoxicated and was not in a fit condition to drive home. The testimony of Pembroke showed that he knew nothing of what happened after entering the last saloon until he found himself lying in bed in his own home suffering from the effects of the collision. The jury in district court found for Burup in the sum of $900, and the case is appealed by the defendants.

Colonel Phelps Talks.

Colonel A. A. Phelps of Peoria, Ill., accompanied by his wife, is visiting at the home of his brother, Adjutant General Phelps of the Nebraska National guard. Colonel Phelps has not been in Lincoln since 1882. In 1873 he was with General Crook scouting in the west and participated in several Indian battles. He was well acquainted with Buffalo Bill and was frequently with him in expeditions against the Indians during his five years' service as a government scout under General Crook. Colonel Phelps believes that there will be an entire reversal of feeling toward President Taft before the November election, and says that there is a much stronger sentiment for the president in Illinois than people have any idea of. According to Colonel Phelps, the Roosevelt fellows are doing all the talking, and he does not believe that the number of votes can be judged by the amount of talk.

"When Bryan ran for the presidency the last time," said he, "it seemed to be a foregone conclusion that nothing could prevent his election. It was Bryan all the time, all the way, but just before election day rolled around the thing changed and Mr. Bryan did not have a look-in. I feel sure that the same thing will happen again. When the national committee gets started on its campaign, you will find that the people are going to discover that the fellows who have been doing all the talking have not been sticking to facts."

"I was in New York recently," continued Colonel Phelps, "visiting a cousin and was invited by him to attend a political meeting of a republican nature, but declined to go for some reason. On his return he told me that they took a poll of the meeting of 2,109 voters present and 900 of them were for President Taft and only 200 for Mr. Roosevelt. "Illinois is going to show the country something when the votes are counted in November. We seem to be badly split up just now, but when we get down to the street, there is going to be a surprise in store for the bull moose fellows. President Taft is much stronger in Illinois than people outside of the state have any idea of."

Omaha Firm Incorporates.

Adjutant General Back.

Lieutenant F. C. Test and Adjutant General Phelps returned last night from the Pole Mountain maneuvers with the guard. The trip was a successful one and very beneficial to the guard. The march of eighteen miles from Pole Mountain to Laramie, where the guard took the train was made in five hours and forty minutes. The boys stood it pretty well, only six men falling out and taking the ambulance. However, before reaching Laramie many of the guards took off their shoes on account of the blistered condition of their feet and made the rest of the trip in bare feet. General Phelps returned by the way of Denver, accompanying the McCook, Beatrice, Auburn and York companies, who at their own expense desired to put in one day in that city. Tourist sleepers were secured for the night at $25 each, which the boys "chipped in" and paid for instead of going to the hotels while in that city.

Major Penn Ill.

Major Penn, recently instructor for the Nebraska National guard, was taken ill at Pole Mountain during the maneuvers and was taken to the post hospital. NOTES FROM BEATRICE AND GAGE COUNTY

BEATRICE, Neb., Aug. 9.—(Special.)—A strange malady has appeared among a few herds of hogs in Glenover, a suburb of Beatrice, and in nearly every instance has caused death. The disease affects the hind legs of the animals afflicted and makes them so weak that they cannot stand up. When they lie down death usually follows in a day or two. The disease so far has baffled the veterinarians of this city.

Henry Seibert, the farmer who was so severely burned a few days ago when his threshing machine exploded, is holding his own, and it is now thought that he will recover.

Harold Giddings is suffering from blood poisoning in his left hand, which he contracted in some way while working with a threshing machine near Filley.

Company C arrived home yesterday from Pole Mountain, Wyo., where the boys have been attending the military maneuvers. Company K of Wymore also returned on the same train.

John S. Martin and Miss Rosina Chipman, both of this city, were married Thursday evening at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. W. G. Brown officiating. Miss Augusta Epp, the school teacher who was probably fatally burned here yesterday in an explosion while trying to start a fire in a cook stove, was alive at last reports, although it is believed she cannot recover.

Table Rock Notes.

TABLE ROCK, Neb., Aug. 9.—(Special.)—Word has been received here of the death at Detroit, Mich., August 7 of W. S. Unshley, who was postmaster at Table Rock in the Harrison administration over a score years ago. The body was taken to New Haven, Conn., his old home, for burial. He is survived by a widow. A fine rain fell here last night, measuring 1.41 inches. It was the heaviest rain

DOCTOR WHO TRIED TO POISON SON IS DECLARED INSANE

SCOTTS BLUFF, Neb., Aug. 9.—(Special.)—Dr. A. G. Emerson, who attempted suicide Sunday and who also administered poison to his son, had a hearing before the insanity board and their verdict declared insane. Sheriff Fred Aaron leaves this morning, having him in custody for the state institution at Lincoln. Both he and the boy have recovered from the effects of the poison sufficient to be entirely out of danger.

The city council has decided that the water system of Scott's Bluff needs an extension and have called an election for August 27 for the purpose of voting on the question of issuing $38,000 bonds for the purpose designated. The city was by ordinance divided into improvement districts at the last meeting, with the purpose of ordering in several miles of needed sidewalks and concrete gutters. The chauntauqua starts here today, and Dr. Loveland, formerly of Omaha, is one of the opening guests. Dr. Loveland was here several years ago, and those who heard him will be on hand to hear him again.

Hearing on petition of Mrs. Phebe Maurer, widow of Henry Maurer, deceased, for letters of administration of the estate of said deceased, will be held before County Judge M. S. McDuffee tomorrow.

The band rendered good music and Judge Wall made an address. The Ravenna band and ball team turned out, and a crowd of 1,000 people witnessed the game. Ravenna presented their best battery—Stroble and Greenslit—while the visitors had the famous Hazard battery—Roberts and Haller. After nine innings, that graded right up to professional ball, Ravenna won, 3 to 1.

PARIS NEWSPAPER THINKS ROOSEVELT HAS A CHANCE

PARIS, Aug. 9.—Commenting on the somewhat jocular accounts of the progressive convention in Chicago, published here, the Temps in a laudatory leader on Theodore Roosevelt, declares that those who fail to take seriously his chances in the three-cornered fight for the presidency are making a profound mistake. The Temps adds: "He stands on a platform admirably and cleverly constructed, giving the bull moose plenty of ground over which to paw, with Roosevelt in good form on strong ground, well supplied with funds and able to count on sympathy among those nominally his enemies. He is capable of working miracles and achieving success under circumstances which would break anyone else."

RUSSELL INSISTS CLAIMANT TO FORTUNE IS NOT BROTHER

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Aug. 9.—William C. Russell of Melrose declared today that no apparent proof ever could convince him that the man from Dickinson, N. D., who is seeking to establish his identity as Daniel Blake Russell, really was his brother. He made this statement at the continuation of his examination at the master's hearing to determine the identity of the Dickinson man, who is trying to set up his right to share in the $50,000 estate of William C. Russell's father, the late Daniel Russell of Melrose. He referred to various incidents in his boyhood days in which his brother figured, but when reminded that the Dickinson claimant had testified to these incidents in the probate court said this fact was insufficient to convince him that the North Dakota man was Daniel Blake Russell.

SHORTS SCHEDULED TO QUIT AS HEAD OF CLOVER LEAF

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—A meeting of the directors of the Toledo, St. Louis & Western Railroad company was held this afternoon at which it had been reported that Theodore B. Shonts would resign as president and that a general rearrangement of operating officers would be made. After the meeting it was officially stated that Mr. Shonts' resignation was not presented and that no definite action regarding the other matter was taken, except to refer it to the executive committee. No statement was made when action would be taken by the committee. Since the Union Pacific Railroad company supplied the Chicago & Alton with a certain amount of money to meet pressing obligations it has been generally understood that some steps would be taken to segregate the operations of the Alton and "Clover Leaf." They are now being operated through joint officers. Valparaiso Man in Hospital. WAHOO, Neb., Aug. 9.—(Special.)—R. J. Rump of Valparaiso was committed to the hospital for the insane at a dip-somania by the County Board of Commissioners today.
