Saturday's Story in the Suit Salon is a Brief But Interesting Tale

Practically everything in the women's garment and furnishings stores is at some heavily discounted price. We are determined that all remaining from the Bennett stocks and their cancelled orders which we purchased must go regardless of their value or cost to us. A THIRD, A HALF AND IN SOME INSTANCES NEARLY THREE-QUARTERS IS CLIPPED FROM THE PRICES. The most important fact about the sale is that all of the goods are down-to-date in style and of the finest workmanship the regular selling prices warrant—clothes that well-dressed women delight to wear. Be here as early in the morning as possible for some of the lots cannot last.
