(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Ja., Aug. 13 .- (Special Telegram.)-Henry E. Sampson, assistant attorney general, has returned to Clinton to continue directing the probe into graft in county affairs there. An investigation is being made by expert accountants and by the highway commission as to the cost of bridges, also the grand jury is probing into the manner in which county business has been transacted for good many years.

It is found that there has been great graft going on for a long time and the county is out large sums. One member of the board has resigned and other resignations are said to be imminent. When the probe in that county is completed other counties will be investigated also.
