GRIZZLIES CAPTURE THIRD

Ragged Fielding and Poor Hitting Help Omaha Lose, Four to One.

KINSELLA KEEPS HITS APART

Denver's First Run Result of Error -Schipge is the Only Local to Show Loud Fielding Form.

Omaha's inability in hit kinsella at opportune times, coupled with poor fielding on the part of the Rourkes, enabled Denver to take the third same of the series by a 1 to 1 acore preterday after neon.

Kinsella was there in the pinches and aithough the Rourkes managed to get men on hauss in most of the innings, the bit to scove the runs never came. The the runs never came. The ily run Gmaha did get was made pos- in the Second Douglas Strikes Out able by an error of Quillin's.

Denver's first run, which came in the second inning, was the direct result of an error by Justice. Two errors coupled with two hits meant two more for Denver in the eighth.

The Grislies played snappy bail all through the asme and managed to get to Ryan in every inning but three. The fielding of the Denver outfield was great. Kenworthy shut off Omaha's chance to Kenworthy shut off Omaha's chance to score in the third inning. Justice was on second and Coyle on first when Curtis, cf.

Second of Double-Header. WOLVERTON GETS A SUSPENSION

Pitching the Feature in Both of the Contests, While Baniels Does Some Great Work in Hitting.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.-New York broke even in the double-header with Detroit today, losing the first game, 8 to 3, and winning the second, 3 to 1. In the first game Detroit hit Fisher and Caldwell opportunely, while Mullin and Dubuc were at their best in the pinches. Ford won a pitchers' battle from Willett in the second game. The batting of Daniels in the first game was the feature. In five times at bat he made a home run, a triple, two singles and drew a pass. Wolverton has been suspended indefinitely.
