ern brand of base ball today, allowing only three hits and breaking the Hastings season's record with sixteen strikeouts, which rivals Lotz's record for the league this year of seventeen. Hastings was able to do what it pleased with Hanks. It was a sensational game before a big booster day crowd. Smith, Watson, Brannon and Laflumboise divided honors in fielding and Watson starred in hitting, getting two runs and three hits, including a home run. Hastings' only error saved Seward from a shutout, Neff scoring on a fumbled throw D after he had hit for two bases. Score;
