RED MIKE'S BOND IS SHUNNED

County Commission Refuse to Approve His Credentials. RINGER REPRESENTING RED Attorney for McShane's Appointee Will Start Mandamus Action Against the County Board. Acting upon the advice of Deputy County Attorney George A. Magney, the Board of County Commissioners will stand upon its refusal to approve the bond of "Red Mike" Wallace, Sheriff Felix J. McShane's new deputy. J. Dean Ringer of South Omaha, who has done most of the pushing and preparation of the state's ouster suit against Fire and Police Commissioners John J. Ryan and Joseph Pivonka of South Omaha, is attorney for Wallace. When the board refused to reconsider its action on the bond, Ringer will start mandamus action against the board. Yesterday afternoon Ringer filed with the board a request that it either approve the bond or state the grounds of its refusal. The board refused approval and went to Mr. Magney for advice. Mr. Magney gave no advice as to the merits of the board's objection to Wallace, but said the board may refuse its approval if it has good moral or other grounds. The grounds may be stated in a resolution or not, just as the board sees fit. The board will maintain its refusal on the ground that Wallace is facing charges of vagrancy in district court.

Stephens Wants to Take Away Veto from President's Powers

(From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Dan Stephens, successor to the place held in the house of representatives by the late James P. Latta of the Third Nebraska district, is vexed because President Taft took occasion to veto several very bad tariff bills passed by the democrats. Today he introduced a resolution providing for a constitutional amendment to take away from the president the power given him by that instrument. "I do this," said Mr. Stephens, "because of theagrant violation of the spirit of our government by the president. There are few instances in our history where the president has used this power of veto to more drastic extent than has President Taft. During this session of congress he has vetoed numerous important tariff and supply bills passed by the peoples' representatives. It is a remarkable example of the manifest tendency of the executive branch of the government to browbeat the peoples' branch of the government by forcing congress to enact legislation suitable to his wishes." Mr. Stephens declared that the arrangement of President Taft was not the kind that would be shown by the man on horseback who is now heading the "bull moose" movement, and expressed his sincere hope that in the interest of protecting the rights of the people, the veto power should be taken away. Of Colonel Roosevelt, the representative from Fremont has these words to say: "Should he ever become president again, with his insane ambitions and his despotic tendency, God himself only knows what will happen to the republic. It has already drifted into a monarchical form of government, and if this veto power is not taken from the president it only needs a man like Roosevelt to trample out the spirit of the republic, which was conceived in the idea that the voice of the majority was the voice of the government."

ENTIRE STATE IS SOAKED

Scarcely a Town in Nebraska that Escapes Copious Rain. CORN NOW IN NEED OF SUN Experts Say that Only Lack of Hot Weather Will Keep Back a Bumper Crop of Corn in This State. Copious rains fell in almost every part of Nebraska Thursday afternoon and evening and the railway reports show that hardly a town, hamlet or city in the state was missed. The eastern part of the state received the heaviest showers and in some places ran all the way from one inch to four. In the Omaha division of the Burlington, Plattsmouth received 1.10 inches, and Omaha got 1.18 inches. The heaviest rains fell in the Lincoln division. At Central City a fall of 2.50 inches was reported, at Crete two inches and Fairmont got the heaviest of all with four inches. At Stromsburg 3.00 inches was reported. Good rains fell from Ravenna to Edgemoor. Showers were reported on the Sheridan division and heavy rains at Bridgeport, Curtis and Willard. The Union Pacific reported rains from one to two inches between Omaha and Grand Island and from there to North Platte one-fourth to one inch. Grain experts at the various railways say there is no spot in Nebraska now which needs rain at this time and plenty of sun is needed to make the corn crop this year one of the largest in the history of the state.

Never Shied Brick, but She Knows How to Fill Man's Job

Miss Grace Berger never shied a brick nor made a speech about taxation without representation. She never wrote an article purporting to prove that if Nebraska women were given the "right" to vote they soon would improve their economic condition until it would be as good as that of women in Colorado, Utah, and other well governed states, where the votes of women have purified politics. Without saying anything about it, and taking it all as a matter of course, Miss Berger is filling a man's job. She is clerk of the board of county commissioners. Henry E. Ostrom, clerk of the board, has gone away for two or three weeks' vacation. Miss Berger, a clerk in County Clerk Frank Dewey's office, is holding down Henry's job while he is gone. Anybody who has held this job knows that there's nothing easy and nothing simple about it. It would be easy to write a set of books on "How to Be a Clerk of a Board of County Commissioners" and then one would have to leave out a lot of valuable hints. The fact that the commissioner's transcript business like lightning and resolutions and motions and roll calls fly thick and fast ought to be enough to show what a clerk is "up against."

Elberta Peaches Are to Be Plentiful

Home grown grapes, crabapples, jelly plums and new honey have been introduced on the local market. Colorado apricots also are new arrivals at the grocery stores, selling in four-basket crates for a dollar. Elberta peaches are more plentiful than they have been this year and at the same time are enjoying a great demand. The fruit is selling in four-basket crates around 45 and 60 cents. A carload of them has been ordered from Arkansas and is expected to be on the local market Monday, according to Al King of Hayden Brothers' grocery department. Tomatoes are unusually scarce now and will be the remainder of the season. They are selling at 30 and 40 cents a basket, while a year ago they sold at half that price. Cucumbers, which usually run in quantity of crop along with tomatoes, are plentiful. Probably the largest crop in years is the yield of the present summer. Crabapples for jelly are being passed over the counters at 25 cents a basket and cooking apples are priced at 35 cents a peck. Eggs now are 1 cent higher than a week ago, retailing at 21 cents a dozen. Creamery butter remains about the same, selling around 28 cents a pound.

ALLEGED BANK ROBBERS HELD FOR DISTRICT COURT

BEATRICE, Neb., Aug. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Frank Jackson and Frank Edwards, charged with assisting in the robbery of the state bank at Hanover, Kan., two years ago, were given their preliminary hearing before Justice Thompson at Washington, Kan., today and were bound over to the district court, bond being fixed at $5,000 each. In default of which they were remanded to the county jail. Four witnesses from Wymore testified to seeing the two men at Wymore with other members of the supposed gang of robbers on the morning the bank was raided. The two men were arrested in Arkansas about ten days ago by Detective Searies.

Acting Chief of Police is at the Half-Century Mark

Captain Henry W. Dunn, now acting chief of police, celebrated his fiftieth birthday yesterday. He celebrated in a quiet manner. He said he was going to smoke a cigarette, just to show that he was still young and gay. Dunn was born August 16, 1862, at Aurora, Ill. He came to Omaha in 1878, got a job with the Union Pacific railroad and learned the profession of sheet metal worker. He was a good metal worker. This fact and others led Mayor W. J. Brochard to appoint him assistant plumbing inspector in 1893. He made some record as plumbing inspector and in 1891, in the month of May, he was appointed policeman. In September of that same year Police-eman Dunn went out to Cheyenne to take a job he had been offered, but when he arrived he discovered that somebody else had his job and he was offered another position. He refused and caught the next train back to Omaha and began his second term as policeman. Dunn was made detective in 1902, the same year that Chief Donahue was put on the detective force. In 1907 he was made chief of detectives, which job he held for four years, when he was made captain of police, taking the

J. W. Godfrey Weds Philadelphia Girl

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Dr. J. W. Godfrey of Omaha was married here today to Miss Kate Weaver, a society leader of West Philadelphia. Dr. Godfrey came east a number of years ago and graduated from both the Hahnemann and Jefferson medical colleges, and while a student in these schools became acquainted with Miss Weaver. Dr. Godfrey and his wife have now left on a western tour and will visit the physician's former home in Omaha. Upon their return they will live at Forty-ninth and Florence avenue.

BATTLE-SCARRED VETERAN RE-ENTERS U. S. ARMY

After serving in the regular army through many Indian wars in various lines of army duty for nearly twenty-nine years and then serving for years as messenger to the adjutant general in the United States army building in Omaha, John Smith, now 61 years old, will again enter the army as a private and shoulder a rifle. The permission to re-enter the army, at this age was obtained through a special order of the War department covering his case. Of late years Smith's friends have talked to him about the pity that he did not have thirty years of service in the army instead of twenty-nine, as a man of thirty years' service is now entitled to retirement on pay for the rest of his life. Smith has taken the matter more or less seriously and last year made application for admission into the army. He was then rejected.

GIRL RIDES HER PONY FROM SIOUX CITY TO SOUTH OMAHA

After making the trip from Sioux City, her home, to South Omaha, Miss Amelia Urbach, a pretty young woman, jumped from her cow pony yesterday noon and tripped lightly into the city hall in South Omaha, where she had come to investigate some property matters. The young woman was three days making the trip from Sioux City and says she enjoyed the experience. She wore a khaki suit with a divided skirt. She came to examine into certain tax business.

Judge Ben Baker is at the Mercy of Ak-Sar-Ben's Goat

Judge Ben Baker, city corporation counsel, is seriously considering the advisability of bringing suit against King Ak-Sar-Ben or seeking an injunction enjoining the special representatives of the Kingdom of Quivers from initiating him twice into that high order. By pure oversight, says the judge, he paid his initiation fee twice this year. Secretary "Dad" Weaver was much pleased with this display of generosity and notified the judge that the extra $10 would be used to good advantage. The judge consulted the stub of his check book and found the facts as set forth true. Immediately he called in his pretty stenographer and sent the secretary to the king a caustic letter, at the close of which he cordially invited the return of his $10. He intimated, however, that "Dad" would see that he wasn't forced to go through with the terrible initiation he might keep the $10. But inadvertently he dropped the suggestion that another $10 would be forthcoming if it would give the king's knights power or nerve to slip him through the initiation line. Secretary Weaver is considering the proposition. He may insist on the intention, but may give the judge a written permit to dance twice as long as he ought to at the Ak-Sar-Ben ball or drink twice as much punch as he is entitled to.

BANQUET FOR STATIONERS Joy Attends Last Meeting of National Convention.

Alden talks of fraternalism. Sudden illness of Samuel Ward of Boston only outward event which Mars Novelty at Field Club. With a banquet, the like of which has not been seen by the national body of stationers, the eighth annual convention of the National Association of Stationers and Manufacturers was brought to a happy end last night at the Field club. Nearly 300 men and women surrounded the banquet tables which were spread through the open hall jutting from the west of the clubhouse. The service began at 7 o'clock and by the time the speeches and toasts had been finished the chimes rang 11. It was an informal dinner and the toast-giving and speech-making were mostly impromptu and extemporaneous. A kind of gathering which the eastern delegates were heard to refer to afterwards as "typical of the west." Only one incident came to mar the joy of the guests assembled. Samuel Ward of Boston, a prominent member of the association, was attacked by acute indigestion as he sat at the speakers' table during the after-dinner revelry. He was taken from the banquet hall and removed in an ambulance to the Rome hotel. Late last night it was said he was not in a serious condition and would be able to return to his home today. It was said he had undergone an operation for an abscess on a leg yesterday and the attack last night was augmented by the sickness attendant upon the operation. Mayor Dahlman, A. W. Jefferis, Charles A. Alden and F. L. Elick were the principal speakers, all of whom, with the exception of Alden, made short speeches in appreciation of the presence of the stationers and manufacturers in Omaha. Alden was the principal speaker of the evening, delivering an address on "Fraternalism." Fraternalism Defined. Fraternalism was defined by him as faith, brotherly love and service and with elaborate subdivisions of these three, he touched a responsive chord in every one of his hearers and left them with something of profundity on which to think. James Logan, mayor of Worcester, Mass., proved a witty toastmaster with an abundance of stories. He was introduced to the banquet by the retiring president of the association, Millington Lockwood of Buffalo. In turn the toastmaster introduced the new president, R. D. Patterson of St. Louis, who made a short talk in appreciation of the honor which recently was given him. An incident for spontaneous applause was the awarding of a loving cup to Charles Wadham, winner of the golf matches at Happy Hollow club on the opening day of the convention. The banquet hall was beautifully decorated in huge American flags and palms. These symbols of patriotism surrounded them inspired the guests to national songs and anthems. Singing interpolated the program throughout and as a close to the convention of 1912 the visitors and home folk rose to the rhythmic tunes of Auld Lang Syne. Hymeneal. Tritt-Vedene. MINDEN, Neb., Aug. 16.—(Special.)—Miss Laura C. Vedene was married to J. Randolph Tritt yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Vedene. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. M. Carman of the Minden Methodist Episcopal church in the presence of immediate relatives of the bride and groom. The bride has taught in the Shelton

CHIEF DONAHUE AGAIN ABLE TO ENJOY TOBACCO'S CHARMS

"Chief of Police J. J. Donahue will without doubt recover." James Donahue, the detective, who is a cousin of the chief, said the difference in names, makes the prediction. Donahue visited the chief at the hospital yesterday and engaged in a twenty-minute talk with him. The sick man appeared to have regained some of his strength and he was glad to see his relative. "Jim," said the chief, "I have just about everything here that's good for me except chewing tobacco. They won't give me any. You haven't got a chew on you, have you?" The "chew" was forthwith presented and the chief was happy for the first time in several days. At the hospital it was said Donahue's temperature at midnight was normal and he appeared to be getting along nicely.

Boils, Rashes, Pimples, Etc.

When the blood becomes infected with any unhealthy humor the effect is shown by boils, pimples, and rashes or eruptions on the skin. Humors get into the blood usually because of an inactive condition of the eliminative members. Remove these humors and no skin trouble can exist, because its very source is then destroyed. Boils, rashes, pimples, etc. can never be cured through the application of external medicines, the most to be obtained from such measures is temporary relief. S.S.S. CURES all skin affections because it purifies the blood. It goes down into the circulation and cleanses it of every particle of unhealthy matter. Then the blood supplies nourishment to the cuticle instead of irritating it with a fiery humor. If you have any skin trouble you could not do better than purify your blood with S. S. S. It does not "patch up" it cures. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free to all write and request same. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.
