BILLS MAKES STRATEGIC PLAY

Pa's Foxy All-Round Athlete Springs Surprise on Topeka Twirler and Niehoff Gallops Home.

Omaha and Topeka divided yesterday's double-header, the Rourkes losing the first battle, which lasted eleven innings, by a 6 to 5 score, and taking the second affair, by a score of 5 to 1. The second game was called on account of darkness at the end of the fifth inning.

The first game was by far the more interesting in that it was anybody's game until the end. The Rourkes took a two-run lead, but the Kaws tied it in the fifth, when Harry Hicks was overcome with heat and forced to retire. However, the little southpaw left the game with the score 2 to 1 in Omaha's favor. Beebe went in, but gave way to Ryan with the score tied in the eighth. Ryan finished the game and the losing of it was credited to him.

Some poor ball playing mingled with excellent work made up the first battle, but Omaha's players could not locate the ball after McKee relieved Cochran at the end of the fifth inning. McKee finished the game and in the six innings he worked, he allowed but one hit.

King Defeats Omaha.

Bert King robbed the Rourkes of the first game in the eighth inning, when he made a wonderful catch of Scanlon's Texas leaguer over second base with the bags all populated. With the bases full by virtue of three walks, Scanlon was sent in to bat for Beebe. He lifted a nice one over second, which looked like a sure hit, but King made a dash and speared the ball a few inches from the ground.

A pretty double play in the fifth inning of the first game robbed Topeka of a couple of runs. The Kaws had sent three across and only one was out with Walsh on first base when Lee sent a swift one past Beebe. Justice made a dive, got the ball on second bag and shot it to Kane, doubling Lee at first.

The second game was put on ice by the Rourkes in the first inning. Cockreham, a recruit, was sent in to work against the Rourkes. He was wild and gave three walks in the opening frame. These and three hits, one a double by Schipke, scored four runs.

Bills Punts One Over.

In the first inning Bills pulled off a pretty play. Niehoff was on third and Bills drew a walk. Bills began running for first base with all his might and when he reached first he made a dash for second. Cockreham was not used to that kind of play and shot the ball to Walsh on second. Niehoff in the mean time started for home. Bills delayed the play long enough for Niehoff to score and then went out at second.

Justice singled in the first inning of the second and went to second on Coyle's sacrifice hit. Thomason singled to center, scoring Justice. Kane walked. Thomason was caught stealing. Kane stole second and scored on Schipke's double to center. He took third on Nagle's error. Niehoff walked and a double steal worked. Schipke scoring. Niehoff took third on Gardner's error and stole home.

In the fifth Justice walked and scored on Coyle's triple. Topeka got its only run in the fifth. McDonald walked. Cockreham walked. McDonald scored on Bashang's single to right.

TOURNAMENT OPENS MONDAY

Crack Mid-West Racqueters Have Entered,

LOCAL MEN TO PARTICIPATE

Tourney Will Continuen Throughout the Week and There Will Be Social Features Every Evening.

Promptly at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning the racquet and tennis ball will come into their own when the tenth annual mid-west tournament will start on the clay courts of the Field club. In addition to forty local tennis adepts about twenty-five premier racqueters from points in Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Kansas, Missouri, Colorado, South Dakota and Minnesota will compete for the singles and doubles supremacy of the middle west.

From the start there will be something doing every minute up until Saturday evening, when the event ends; not only during the day when the matches are in progress, but in the evenings when the social program of entertainment will be carried out.

Play each day will start at 9:30 o'clock in the morning and continue throughout the day. All preliminary and first round singles and doubles are expected to be finished by Tuesday afternoon. Finals will come Friday and the challenge round singles, the feature event of the tourney, will start promptly at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Drawings This Evening.

Drawings for the events will be made at the Omaha club by members of the Field club tennis committee this evening. The entry roster closed last night at 8 o'clock.

"Gravy" Hayes of Chicago will, as usual, be the big drawing card of the meet and is expected to pull off his comical antics when he defends his title in the singles Saturday. Joe Armstrong, St. Paul; Roland Hoerr, St. Louis; Ray Branson, Mitchell, S. D.; Olin Sweet, Des Moines; R. E. Musselman, Quincy; Alec Squair, A. L. Green and L. J. Washburn, Chicago; Harold M. Holland, Galesburg, and Stuart Gilman, Sioux City.

Omaha's hopes will be pinned on Harry Koch, 1912 city and state singles champion; Art Scribner, Cub Potter, Walter Crunden, "Spike" Kennedy, Sam Caldwell and Herbert Kohn. Young Joe Adams of the Field club is also expected to make a good showing.

Walter Crunden of the Country club, formerly of St. Louis, will probably enter the doubles with Roland Hoerr as a teammate. Hayes will pair with Ray Branson.

Irish Player Entered.

Maurice Goodbody of Dublin is visiting friends here and entered the tournament. He is considered an adroit player across the water and his playing here may show some style unlike the American method of the court game.

Following is the program of entertainment as arranged:

Monday Evening—Ak-Sar-Ben Surkis at the den.

Tuesday Evening—Smoker at the Field club.

Wednesday Evening—Dance at the Field club.

Thursday Evening—Reception at Happy Hollow, with vaudeville.

Friday Evening—Reception at Country club.

Saturday Evening—Dance at Field club.

The entry list is as follows:
