Wildness of Pitchers Helps to Defeat Louisville Team.

ERBORS PLAY IMPORTANT PART

Consecutive Bitting, Together with res on Passed Balls, Enables Kansas City to Win a Victory.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 17.-Wildness of the pitchers contributed to the score of today's victory for Kansas City over Louisville. Errors by Lennox, a walk and two singles gave the visitors two runs. In their half Kansas City scored four on pases to the first hatters, Carr's double to left and Tennehill's sacrifice fly. Consecutive hitting scored the other runs.

LEGG IS STILL GOLF CHAMP

Minneapolis Man Defeats Middleton Six Up and Five to Go.

GAINES OF OMAHA A WINNER

Bents Morrison of Kansas City in the Consolation Event, with a Score of Four Up and Three to Go.

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 17 .- Harry G. Legg of Minneapolis, for the fourth consecutive time, won the championship of the Transmississippi golf tournament by defeating W. N. Middleton, Davenport, Ia., this afternoon, 6 up and 5 to go. F. H. Gaines, Omaha, won the consolation event by defeating E. R. Morrison, Kansas City, 4 up and 3 to go. In the morning round the cards were:

Both men got away badly, each taking the first hole in five, one over bogey. On on the fourth, however, by taking it in six, bogey, to his opponent's seven. Playing the sixth, Legg made it 1 up, playing the hole in 3 par. He made it 2 up on the ninth; which he won in 5, bogey. Over the inside, Legg began playing in better form, having a medal of 38, and winning the eleventh, fourteenth, sixteenth and seventeenth holes. Time and time again Middleton missed easy putts, which would have given him the hole Both men drove in about equal form.
