Holds Up Pullman
 in View of Onlookers

While nearly a score of people sat on their front porches looking on a highwayman presented a revolver to the heart of Harry Pullman, 1815 North Eighteenth street, last night at 9 o'clock and robbed him of $20 and a $500 diamond ring.

Pullman was within a few feet of his home when the robbery occurred and the man forced him to walk several blocks by his side before he disappeared.

According to the story told the police last night, Pullman had just left the street car at Seventeenth and Clark streets and was walking to his home when a man apparently intoxicated staggered in front of him. Pullman attempted to pass, when suddenly the man straightened up. Whipping out a pistol he presented it to the heart of his victim and rifled his pockets.

He then made him walk directly past his own home and nodded to the members of Pullman's family, who were sitting on the porch. When the highwayman reached a convenient alley he thanked his victim and disappeared.

DODGE COUNTY AUTOISTS
 LOOKING TO THEIR ROADS

W. O. Turner, secretary of the Nebraska State Automobile association, spent last week traveling through Dodge county and reports auto owners in that county much interested in the good roads movement.

The Dodge County Auto association, which is affiliated with the state organization, has a vice-president in each precinct whose duty it is to advise road overseers as to needed repairs on all roads within his scope. Permission has been obtained from the county commissioners to use all money derived from payment of automobile licenses in degrading the cost of dragging the roads, the plan being to hire a man and team for each six miles to be dragged.

This plan has resulted in a noticeable improvement and hereafter autoists traveling through Dodge county after a heavy rain will be assured of good roads.

JURY PUTS RESPONSIBILITY FOR DEATH ON RAILROAD

Negligence of the Union Pacific railroad in not having a rear flagman on the train was the cause of the death of John Vazios, the Greek section laborer, killed by a freight train at Seventh and Jackson streets Thursday morning, according to the verdict of the coroner's jury.

The evidence showed that Vazios was stepping over the rails at the time of the fatal accident and was not warned of the approach of the train. The witnesses testified that a rear flagman should have been on the train.

Turks and Italians Engage in Battle

ROME, Aug. 17.—It was officially announced today that Lieutenant General Garioni, commander of the Italian troops in Tripoli, has succeeded in establishing a base at Zuara, a town about sixty-six miles west of the city of Tripoli, where the Turks and Arabs had concentrated their forces and stubbornly resisted the advance of the invaders. The Italians successfully carried out the plan of carrying off the large Turkish force from the caravan routes to the Tunisian. The battle lasted all day along a front four miles in extent and ended in the retreat of the Turks, who left numerous dead on the field. The Italians lost six men killed and ninety-eight wounded.

DEPUTIES ARE GUARDING THE ROCKEFELLER ESTATE

TRRRTOWN, N. Y., Aug. 17.—John D. Rockefeller's estate at Pocantico Hills was guarded tonight by a number of deputies because of fear of violence on the part of discharged employees. Several men were recently let go by the foreman of a large force of foreign laborers on the estate and trouble ensued, culminating in an attempt to burn the cottage of Foreman Antonio di Marco.

TWO MEN ARE CHARGED WITH PUTTING POISON IN FOOD

MASON CITY, Ia., Aug. 17.—(Special.)—On August 5 last John Andropoulos died and twenty-four hours later Alex Jones passed to his final abode. Both of these men died from excess in drinking. It was thought by the police officials that manufactured liquors were responsible for their deaths and an investigation was entered into. The stomach of the former was sent to Iowa City for examination, and now comes the report that poison was found in the stomach, which caused a warrant for the arrest of Theodore Daviras and Nick Andropoulos, charging them with "mixing poison with food, drink and medicine." The maximum penalty on conviction is ten years in the penitentiary and a fine of $1,000. The men are now under arrest.

Nebraska is full of opportunities that await millions of people

Nebraska is blessed with nearly all nature's richest bounties—climate, soil, water power. Its towns and cities are prosperous. Its churches, colleges and public schools stand at the top. It has 8,000 miles of railroads. It has 76,808 miles of territory—some of it the richest in the world. And its population is not quite sixteen to the square mile.

There are millions in Nebraska waiting to be taken out of the ground. There are many other millions to be made out of trade, manufacturing, building, and the myriad other activities that obtain in a prosperous state.

Nebraska needs people to take these millions—to occupy these various rich sections, now sparsely settled; to build up new industries, to expand and utilize the resources (wonderful resources that they are) of this state. Nebraska needs people, remember that.

People who push out to Washington, Oregon, and other western states could stop here with more profit, saving the fare and expense of the western trip. There is money here—lots of it. Labor is scarce and dear. There is work for all who will come.

The column reprinted herewith shows the kind of information that will be found in the

Nebraska Development Number of The Omaha Bee

The publication of this volume is the first systematic attempt to promote immigration to Nebraska. It cannot be made more reliable and explicit. It is true to the present minute. Handsomely bound and printed and a masterpiece of beauty in every detail.

To people who have land to sell, real estate men, land companies, publicity bureaus of local commercial clubs, this volume should be of greatest practical value—money-making value.

Its usefulness depends on its distribution—on its reaching people outside of Nebraska, who may, through it, become interested in this state.

People who will be most benefitted by this volume ought, to a great extent, to do their own distributing. The statements made in these columns, because of their impartial source, will have more weight than the statements of the man who is directly interested in the promotion of his own gain.

All your present, and prospective future customers should have a copy of this great volume. The Bee is doing all it can in gathering the material and in putting out this wonderful volume—we suggest that you help by sending copies far and wide.

You should cover your own particular territory. Let The Bee know at once how many copies you will need. Send us your mailing list and we will have the copies sent out from this office cheaper than you can do it yourself.
