Exciting Double-Header is Played at Rourke Park Sunday.

ELEVENTH HOUR RALLY WINS

When the Broukes Go to Bat in the Ninth Inning the Game is Tied.

Four to Four, and Justice Scores Wining Run.

McDonald's poor throw of Thomason's sasy grounder in the ninth inning gave maha the second game of a doubleeader yesterday, by a 5 to 4 score, after the Rourkes had romped off with the first game to the melody of 5 to 1.

The second game was tied, 4 to 4, when the Rourkes came to bat in the ninth inning. Justice drew a pass and went to nd on Coyle's sacrifice hit. Thomason came next and sent an easy one to McDonald, who made a perfect stop, but poor throw to Billings at first. The ball went into the bleachers and Justice galloped home with the winning run.

Both games were highly interesting, esdally the second. Hall had little puble with the Kaws in the first, repardiess of the fact that five errors were illed up behind him. However, he was lover in danger and pitched a great The Rourkes took the lead in the first inning on a single, a sacrifice and wild pitch. In the second a walk and we hits brought in another. Topeka got one in the sixth on two hits and two errors. The Rourkes, however, got another in the sixth, and put the game on ice in the seventh with two runs.
