STOCKHOLDERS ASKED TO PAY

Twenty Creditors of Independent Phone Company Seeking Relief. MATTER IS TAKEN INTO COURT Fifty-Seven Thousand Dollars Demanded from Those Who Owned Stock in the Defendant Concern. Twenty of the creditors of the Independent Telephone company have filed claims aggregating $7,000. They are those whose claims were unsecured and consequently left out by the terms of the decree of foreclosure, which put them at the bottom of the list, even subsequent to the bonds. It is contended, however, that in the original sale of bonds by the Independent Telephone company, shares of stock were offered free as a special inducement to the purchaser of bonds. Under the laws of the state of Nebraska, after the corporate property of a company is exhausted, there immediately follows the legal obligation resting upon the several stockholders to pay the balance due upon their unpaid subscriptions on the stock so held by them. The petitioning creditors allege that such unpaid subscriptions would be sufficient to pay all the debts due and owing the general creditors of the insolvent company. It is said that those who got stock of the company for nothing are likely to be compelled now to pay par value to the receiver in order that he may make good its debts. Provisions of the Law. In behalf of the twenty creditors, Attorneys Charles S. Elgutter and Joel W. West have filed a petition in federal court, asking that their judgments against the insolvent company be allowed as prior and superior liens to that of the bondholders and to the liens of the stockholders themselves upon the funds in the possession of, or under the control of the special master. The petition also asks that the special master be required to ascertain who the bondholders are, who are also holders of stocks, and the amount of stock held by them, and the amount of unpaid subscription due on the preferred stock. It is also asked that the special master be required to ascertain the proportionate amount each of the stockholders ought to pay upon stock in order to raise a fund sufficient to pay the claims and judgments of the twenty creditors, who were left by the terms of the decree of foreclosure. They ask that the special master be required to pay out of such fund the amount due to satisfy these claims, with interest and costs prior to any distribution of funds to any bondholders owing unpaid subscriptions of stock. Federal Judge Smith has made an order setting aside $60,000 of the funds now in the hands of the special master for this contingency. Leon Shapiro Run Over and Killed by Dodge Street Car

Leon, the 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shapiro, 1121 North Twentieth street, was run over and instantly killed by a northbound Dodge street car in front of the family residence yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The mother stood in the doorway of the home and saw the child ground to death under the wheels of the car, unable to do anything to save the boy. The front wheels of the car crushed the child to death. The motorman, Wilber Hathaway, 218 North Nineteenth street, put on the emergency brake and stopped the car before the wheels had passed entirely over the body. Frantic with grief the mother stood close by while the motorman backed the car so the mangled body could be removed. The car, it is said, was going at a slow rate of speed. The boy was standing near the curb when the motorman first noticed him. When the car got within fifty feet of the boy he started across the street and was run over and killed. The motorman and the conductor, J. H. Roberts, 237 North Twentieth street, were arrested and released on bond. Another child of Mr. and Mrs. Shapiro died two weeks ago.

THE SOCIETY THE BEE-HIVE

KEEP getting interesting picture postals from it seems nearly everywhere. Our Omaha people must be at every pillar and post. Up at Tobin's Harbor, Isle Royale, Mich., there is a large colony, measured by the mail that comes back. It seems last Saturday the cottagers were delightfully entertained by a polite vaudeville, produced under the direction of Clarke G. Powell, the well known automobile man, who was there with his wife and children. Mr. Powell has a brother, Sidney Powell, who has made good before the footlights, but this is the first occasion Clarke's friends have had to discover that the older brother is likewise talented. Harry V. Burkley, who would have been a second Signor Scotti, had not the business world got him first, was the baritone and leading man for a musical sketch. According to the notices received the affair was a Weber and Fields burlesque on Victor Herbert's American opera, "Natoma." Clarke Powell had the role of "Young Man Afraid of Herpicide," Harry Burkley was "Chief Mud in the Head," and Mrs. Powell "Whispering Zephyr," but some one said it was a scream. A talented young woman from Kansas City played the picture show music, and, altogether, the performance was pronounced one of the clearest ever given at this gay summer resort. The audience included, beside the cottagers, the gentle fisher folk who reside on the island and take visitors' money for letting them pretend they made the haul.

They corroborate the Scripture outline of the "Plan of the Ages" (Ephesians 3:11 Diablogott rendering); or the "Eternal Purposes of God" (King James rendering). All interested are invited and will be welcome. The same lecture will be given to the deaf in the sign language at 2 o'clock.
