In a three-set match featured with remarkable gameness on the part of the loser and lasting barely one hour and twenty-seven minutes, Joe Armstrong, the young University of Minnesota racquet whirlwind, annexed the singles championship of the middle west by trimming the redoubtable "Gravy" Hayes of Chicago at the Field club yesterday afternoon in the challenge match of the blg Midwest tournament which held sway there during the week. The score by sets was 9-7, 6-0, 6-0. Hayes deserves unstinted praise for his gameness in appearing on the courts for the match at all and it was only his dogged nerve and will power after the first set that kept him from keeling over on his left ankle, which was swathed in
