This advertisement is absolutely unique It has been a practice of theater managers of late years to confine their use of newspaper space to as little display as possible, trusting to the newspapers to give enough free notice to things at the theater to make the enterprises profitable. Manager Johnson of the Gayety has taken another view of the matter. With his well known enterprise, he decided that if a big advertisement in a newspaper For Marquetters was a good thing for a department store. it ought to be just as good a thing for First annual picnic of the Marquette the theater, and, with his characteristic

List Nebraskans as Heroes and Martyrs to Prohibition Cause

Nebraska figures as contributing more than most states to the list of "heroes and martyrs" enumerated in the prohibition year book which is issued also as a campaign document for the prohibition party.
