Looked for.

OMAHA, Aug. 24, 1912. No one doubts but that the final figwell up toward 700,000,000 bushels. This is the fact which is keeping the trade bearish, regardless of the present com-mercial position. It is very clear that Chicago is not getting a normal supply of wheet, and the grain in public cievators is decreasing instead of increasing. Reports from Duluth claim they have made charters to ship 2,000,000 bushels of wheat down the lakes. Minneapolis ciaims that all the big milling interests are well sold ahead and that it will take the first big run of when, to meet the milling debig run of when, to meet the milling demand. Traders are curious to know where the hedging is coming from, and where the speculative selling pressure is to come from without any leadership. The Liverpool market opened 1/2 to 10 higher. Speculators favor buying on the Soft spots. Cash wheat unchanged.

The corn traders are puzzled as to whether the climax has been reached in the cash corn advance. Many of the corn products companies pulled out of the market as buyers yesterday. Many cash bouses quit buying also as if the corn had been secured to fill all the east-corn had been secured to fill all the east-corn caused family. $20.00021.00; short clears, $19.750. moft spots. Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—Outlook for larger arrivals of northwest wheat dulled the edge of today's market, which at the start showed a fair advance. The close was steady at 1/4c from the bottom, although still at a gain of 1/4c to 1/4c over final prices yesterday. Corn varied at the close from 1/4c lower to 1/4c higher. Oats finished a shade down to 1/4c up and provisions at the last were unchanged to 5c higher.

Strong foreign markets due to 1/4c provisions at the last were unchanged to in higher.

Strong foreign markets due to bad weather abroad gave an early upturn to wheat. September traveled between 34% 694% and 34c, closing 447% higher, at 349604%c. Outside limits for December were 35% 694c and 35%c, with final figures 4c higher, at 33%c.

Corn displayed some firmness all day with the usual week-end covering. September covered the most ground, touching 75c and falling to 71%c, finishing 4c down, at 73%c. December reached 54%c and sank to 54%c, closing %c higher, at 54%c. No. 2 yellow was quoted at 30% 35c.

Sic.

September cats enjoyed a liberal trade, elevators buying largely. Export business, was also a feature, 125,000 bushels outward bound out of total cash sales of 200,000 bushels being reported. September closed &c higher, at 22½622½c. December finished a shade lower, at 23½622½c. Foreign buying of January provisions supplemented by packers demands kept the list firmer for the most part. Gains were not marked at any time, although backed by covering trade. The close left October provisions: Pork, 318.50, 5c up. lard, 311.07½, 2½c higher, and ribs, 310.97½ [11.00], a shade higher.

grades are very nearly steady with the close of last week. The demand for feeding cows has been so good throughout the week that common grades have also remained steady all the week. On the other hand the medium kinds of killers are a little lower than last week and about 75c@$1.00 lower than the extreme high point two weeks ago. Stockers and feeders have been in very good demand throughout the week and have been free sellers every day. Prices under free buying have gradually firmed up until at the close are around 15@25c up until at the close are around 15@25c higher so far as the good grades at least are concerned.

HOGS—With about fifty-one loads of hogs on sale the market opened mostly 5@10c higher for the best offerings, other kinds being fully a nickel higher than yesterday the packers took the small end of the receipts from first hands, shippers and speculators buying about two-thirds of the whole supply. Trade had considerable life, as everything was cleaned up comparatively early in the morning. Some good hogs made a top of $3.45. On the whole quality of the hogs was poor when compared with the last few days.

Receipts for the week foot up about $2.20 head, being around 9,130 head short of last week and almost 1,400 less than for the corresponding time a year ago. The average price at the close of the week is $@10c higher than last Saturday, the bulk then being $8.00@8.20 as compared with $8.06@8.25 today. Top price a week ago was the same as today.

BRANDEIS' BIG CORPORATIONS ARE TO BE REORGANIZED

Important business has called Arthur D. Brandels, head of the big Brandels interests, east for a week or ten days. It is said that a reorganization, or rather a separation, of the real estate holdings and mercantile establishment is in progress, a new corporation to be formed to take over all of the real estate which includes the Brandels building, the Brandels theater building, the old Brandels store, the Courtney building, the American theater and the two new structures in course of erection on Douglas

When this is brought about Mr. Brandeis will devote his attention exclusively to the big stores, and supervision of the realty company will devolve upon John L. Kennedy. Mr. Brandels is said to be also negotiating the sale of his farm and poultry ranch northwest of the city.
