Gossip of Players in Western League

After losing twelve straight games Des Moines finally won one. But it had to be at the expense of the Rourkes. Why could not Denver have suffered, as they could afford to do it much better than BY UNITED WORKMEN At Fort Omaha Sunday the Workmen

"Beat out Wichita." This is the slogan which the Topeka ball players and fans have adopted, and just to show that there might be something doing along those lines, the Kaws are going like a house-afire.

"Ducky" Holmes and the entire Sioux City ball team are anxiously awaiting the call of today's game in order to take a rap at the Rourkes. To date the in-dians have "had it on" Omaha and expect to keep the hoodoo still working, day. The but Arbogast says there will be a different tale to tell when this series is first game

Evidently 1912 will go by without the proposed Western league field day being pulled off. Last year it was held at Lincoln and at that time St. Joseph insisted that it be held in Joetown this year, but not a peep has been heard from them to date. But then the Drummers are having trouble enough at present.

Roxie Middleton and Jack Ellis will be five-man teams representing the differ-all the teams in the Western league are sitting up and taking notice of the gait at which the Antelopes are going. Hughie Jones, when he took the managerial reins of the Lincoin team, promised the fans of the Nebraska capitol that he would give them a team and he has done it and the fans are showing their appreciation by turning out in large numbers and are boosting for all they are worth. are worth.

Well, no one has any kick on the way the Rourkes played in Des Moines. Out of the four games the Omaha boys got three and the last one was dropped by a score of 1 to 0. This would not have been so bad, had it not been for the fact that the Boosters only got three hits and at that still copped the game. In the two Sunday games the old fighting spirit which characterizes the Rourkes was in evidence and two games, which had apparently been dropped, were won in the eight and ninth inning railies.

An Opening

Tuesday afternoon and evening an opening for you and for the people of Omaha At that time we invite your inspection of our new and fashionable store for gentlemen.

We are confident that the up-to-date fixtures, the artistic color effects and the perfect indirect lighting system will call forth your enthusiastic approval.

Our opening here is not an experiment. While new in Omaha we are not new in Nebraska—ten years of the same business in Lincoln has given us a host of friends throughout the state who will vouch for our reputation and the soundness of our business methods.

Operating these two stores in conjunction we have a greater buying power, a more economical administration-a greater efficiency. Hence, we can offer you greater values, which we promise to do.

We shall carry exclusively high-grade (but not high-priced) apparel for men and young men. Kensington clothes, Stetson hats, Manhattan shirts, and Perrin gloves are samples of the quality which will characterize everything in our stock.

Omaha needs an up-to-date, metropolitan store for gentlemen, which we have tried to supply. We invite your inspection and judgment at the opening, 2 to 5 p. m. and 7:30 to 9:30 p. m.
