GROCERS ARE UP IN ARMS

Announce Intention of Going After Scalps of Four Commissioners.

SIGNATURES NOT EFFECTIVE

Council Starts New Legislation Which Makes the Signatures Already Signed of No Avail—Declares None a Subterfuge.

Secretary Joseph A. Becker of the Retail Grocers' association and the executive committee of the organization have announced their intention to "go into politics and get the scalps" of at least four of the seven city commissioners. This announcement follows the action of the city council yesterday, when Commissioner Butler moved a reconsideration of the ordinance repealing the standard weights law.

Go into Politics.

"We will go into politics. The grocers and butchers have some influence with their customers and this influence will be exerted against the men who are a bunch of peddlers who pay no taxes and refuse to enact a law that will be of benefit to the grocers and the grocers' customers."

Man Who Grabs Gold is Sent to the Pen

Had nature given Walter Williams, a young colored man, a normal right hand instead of an elongated one, almost as small as a woman's wrist, Williams might not now be under sentence to a term in the penitentiary. He pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny in the criminal division of the district court and Judge Sutton sentenced him to one to seven years. Williams is the man who reached through the grating of a teller's cage at the First National bank and grabbed a small sack of gold. He had the specie out of the cage and was almost out of the bank before employees caught him. No ordinary hand could pierce the grating.

It's True That Our Work Is Backed by 15 Years' Experience and that this experience has cost us loads of hard-earned profits. But we are too big and too old in the business to "Cry Over Spilt Milk." In fact, we look back after our experience and past griefs with the same tender devotion that a grown up boy looks back at his early grade school teachers. Those days seemed hard to him, but if it were not for their knocks and ever correcting him of his errors he would not have been the well-equipped man that he is today.

And so it is in the Cleaning business. Our early knocks have trained us to be better cleaners—to be careful with every garment that comes into our plant—to demand the best of every expert in our entire organization, and has taught us the wisdom of equipping all departments with the very best, newest and most efficient pieces of machinery, that the results will ever come nearer to perfection.

To enable you to realize the true value of our business, and to realize that we are the largest and best equipped and most reliable cleaners and dyers in the entire west, we intend telling you the "ins and outs" of the Cleaning and Dying business, and of the care and attention we give to every garment that enters our plant.

Watch for our ads each week. They'll be an education to you—well worth the time it takes for you to read them.
