PLAN MOVE AGAINST FIRE

Transmississippi Congress Will Educate Children and Adults.

DELEGATES HEAR ADDRESSES

Proposal to Demand Five Millions from Government to Assist the Panama Exposition Part Before Convention.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Aug. 28.—Delegates to the Transmississippi Commercial-congress gathered at a lake resort for the afternoon session of the congress today and heard an address by Rev. E. E. Higley of Denver, "Why See America First?"

The delegates also to a paper by Louis W. Hill, read by E. W. Graham of Seattle, in which was brought out the kernel of the "See America First" movement, which is that when one has seen all the beauties of America he is too old to go anywhere else.

A concrete proposal to demand from the federal congress $5,000,000 to assist in the preparation of the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco was today placed before the delegates. Other demands which must run the gamut of the resolutions committee, the floor of the convention and the national government, so become effective are for a higher protective tariff on farm products and live stock, a federal department of mines and mining, a more liberal administration of the interior department rules affecting forest and other reserves and further harbor and intercoastal traffic improvements on the gulf coast.

A report rendered by the committee on fire waste indicated the members had tracked the red-tongued demon to its lair. Finding 80 per cent of the fires in this country due to carelessness, the committee outlined a course of education for children and for grownups through schools and newspapers and posters, which was submitted to the congress. The committee laid stress also on holidays set apart in some states for removing inflammable rubbish.

The following vice presidents have been elected: Arizona, John Orme; California, George C. Pardee; Colorado, W. Aldridge; Kansas, James A. Kimball; Nevada, Frank Lee; New Mexico, W. C. McDonald; Oklahoma, A. E. Ramsay; Utah, John Derr; Washington, B. A. Crowe.

Deadly Frigate possesses sufferers from lung trouble till they learn Dr. King's New Discovery will help them. Price, 50c and $1.00. For sale by Beaton Drug Co.

LUMBERMAN IS BOYCOTTED

Washington Firm Fails Because of Sales to Consumers.

RETAILERS STOPPED BUYING

Shippers on Coast Regularly Advised by Secretary of Association as to Standing of Middle West Retailers.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 28.—Evidence purporting to show how lumber manufacturers and wholesalers were kept informed as to what retailers in the middle west were considered "unethical" and what firms were supplying them with lumber was introduced at today's hearing of the government's anti-trust suit against the Northwestern Lumbermen's association.

F. D. Becker of Seattle, secretary of the Pacific Coast Shippers' association, identified on the witness stand much correspondence that passed between him and Willard G. Hollis of Minneapolis, secretary of the Northwestern Lumbermen's association, and A. L. Porter of Spokane, secretary of the Western Retail Lumbermen's association.

Through this correspondence, which told of the shipment by various manufacturers and wholesalers on the coast of lumber to unethical dealers and mail order houses in the middle west, the government sought to show that a complete line of communication was maintained between Mr. Hollis and Mr. Porter and the manufacturers. Shippers on the coast, it was brought out, were regularly advised by Mr. Becker through circular letters of the standing of the retailers in the middle west. Copies of these circulars were introduced as evidence and were identified by Mr. Becker.

Before Mr. Becker was sworn, Clark McKeencher, counsel for the government, announced that the witness was not involved in the case.

Selling Consumer Fatal.

Selling directly to a consumer brought about the ruin of the Western Washington Lumber company, which once did a thriving business in the middle west, according to the testimony of M. Elias. Elias and Frank S. Loeb organized the Western Washington company early in 1908 and it did a large wholesale business with line companies, Elias said, until the middle of 1909, when it became known that J. W. Trust, a consumer of Coosco, Ia., immediately following this, he said, its business with retailers dwindled rapidly, until early in 1910 it had entirely disappeared. As soon as it lost its yard customers it openly bid for contractors' trade, but was unable to retrieve its lost fortune, and in March, 1912, went into the hands of a receiver, he said.

Much correspondence was introduced between Mr. Elias, Loeb and retail dealers of the middle west regarding the shipment to the Coosco consumer. A letter was read, written by Mr. Loeb to F. D. Becker, secretary of the Pacific Coast Shippers' association, in which it was alleged that the Western Washington Lumber company did not know the car in question was to be delivered to a consumer.

Admits Statements False.

"The statements in that letter were false," said Elias. "We knew all the time that Trust was a consumer, but we tried to lie out of it. Fear prompted us to write that letter."

Elias said that he first learned that the trade generally was aware of the transaction with Trust when he received a clipping from the Scout, a Detroit lumber journal, telling of the deal. The clipping was sent by George E. Lang, the Minneapolis agent of the Western Washington company, and across the back was written, "Cut these people out; they are no good," and signed "Flynn," said the witness. Flynn, he explained, was connected with the St. Anthony Lumber company of Minneapolis, one of their best customers.

Answers Critics of Nation's Constitution

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 29.—Severe criticism of those who question the adequacy of the federal constitution and of those "who seek to replace it with policies dictated by passing whims and fleeting emotions" was made by United States Senator George Sutherland of Utah in an address before the American Bar association tonight.

Maintaining that the chief value of the constitution "is in its operation to prevent ill-considered and impulsive action," Senator Sutherland denounced the plan for recall of judicial decisions, which he said in effect would be "to render a judicial decision by a show of hands at the polls."

A motion to urge President Taft and congress to increase the salaries of federal judges provoked heated debate and resulted in tabling the question. The purpose is to provide for a uniform system of pleading in the state and federal courts.

COMMISSION GOVERNMENT ADOPTED BY NEW ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 29.—A commission form of government, including the right of initiative and referendum, was adopted at the special election here today, 22,000 for and 2,119 against. Both regulars and reformers voted for the new system of government.

Political Notes

Governor Woodrow Wilson talked about trusts with Louis D. Brandeis of Boston and expressed himself on immigration before a delegation of Italians from Essex county, New Jersey.

George C. Perkins, United States senator from California, announced his intention to retire from political life. Falling health and the infirmities due to age were given as the reasons for this decision.

Practically complete returns from the state democratic primary which took place in South Carolina indicate that Governor Cole L. Blease has a majority of more than 1,100 votes in the race for governor.

The declaration that the protective tariff system was directly responsible for campaign contributions from corporations was made at a democratic rally in Bangor, Me., by Governor Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana.

"In sixty days we will have educated the people of the United States a quarter of a century in advance of where they have been before," said Governor Hiram W. Johnson of California in an address in Salt Lake City.

Jardine Hopes Someone Will Steal Boy's Melons

Walter S. Jardine has a better notion of the productivity of the soil of Nebraska than he ever had. He has invented a plow for the purpose of aiding the farmer to turn his soil into dollars, and he owns a princely estate over in Iowa, where he has about $100,000 invested, but it is neither of these institutions that has awakened him. A few years ago he bought some below-grade lots out in the west part of town, and his wife took a fancy to the location. So Walter negotiated with a grading contractor and had the waste from a couple of big excavations dumped onto the lots, making a fill of about twenty-five feet. Then he built a home and moved out there. Last spring the pride of the Jardine home, a boy of unusual enterprise, caught the gardening fever at school and asked his father's permission to plant a patch in the back yard.

"Go as far as you like," said Walter S., with that magnificent generosity that marks his dealings with other folks.

"I'd like to plant some canteloupes," said the boy.

"Fine!" exclaimed Walter, his parental heart swelling with pride, as he contemplated the enterprise of his son. "Fine, and I'll give you a dollar apiece for all you raise."

RUNAWAY LASS FOUND HERE

Fern Smith, Thought to Have Been Enticed Away by Young Man.

HE IS NOW HELD BY THE POLICE

Vivian Verry Ran Away With Smith Girl and She Was Arrested By Detectives in a Resort on North Fifteenth.

Fern Smith, 17 years of age, of Rockport, Mo., who has been missing from her home since last Thursday, was found yesterday at the Good Shepherd home and taken back by her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Chamberlain.

The Omaha police have been looking for the girl since last Thursday upon request of Mrs. Chamberlain, who thought the girl had been enticed to Omaha. She denies that she was brought here and says she left home because her aunt would not allow her to keep company with her boy friends.

Last Tuesday Lee Leigh was arrested by Detectives Ring and Van Dusen on suspicion of having brought the girl to Omaha. He was acquainted with her and with the aunt, but the girl says she had nothing to do with her leaving home.

Leigh Held by Police.

Leigh is being held on the charge of aiding and abetting the delinquency of Vivian Verry, also of Rockport, who left home a day before the Smith girl. The Verry girl is 17 years of age. She was arrested last week by Detective Van Dusen in a house of ill-repute at 33 North Fifteenth street. The Verry girl lives in the same block with the Smith girl in Rockport and both were intimate friends of Leigh. Leigh is a well-to-do girl, but he denied having any connection with their leaving home.

The Smith girl's relatives are well-to-do people. When she disappeared 100 friends scoured the country for miles around, thinking the girl had been assaulted and carried out of town.

She says she walked from her home to Hamburg, Ia., and came from there to Omaha by train. She was found by two Sisters of Mercy on a bench at Seventeenth and Capitol avenue asleep, and they took her to the convent and notified her relatives, who took her home.

Knight Errant Takes Omaha Woman North, Where Romance Ends

Mrs. Lulu Webeck, who formerly lived with her husband, a mason, at 428 South Nineteenth street, Omaha, is now at her mother's home in this city with her belief in romance shattered. Her husband was last heard from at Milot, S. D., and the other man, who posed as a rich rancher of Dakota, is pitching straw on the Rufing ranch near Dallas just as he did before he became her hero.

Three weeks after her marriage July 6, Mrs. Webeck with her husband while at Lake Manawa was annoyed by a drunken reveler. A stranger finished him off where Mr. Webeck stopped and that was the beginning of the acquaintance. The rancher told fairy stories of his life in Dakota which Mrs. Webeck believed and the two disappeared while the husband was absent working at his trade.

The couple left a train at Dallas and drove to the Rufing ranch in Lyman county which the man said he owned. There it was found he was nothing but a hired man, Clyde A. Rich, a brother, went to Dallas and persuaded Mrs. Webeck to return which she did gladly, declaring she must have been drugged when she consented to the elopement.

BUZZINGS

Chief of Police Dunn could go on the operatic stage with his magnificent voice and put them all behind the bars.

Omaha's new chief of detectives, Steve Maloney, originally got his police force transfer from being a railway switchman and brakeman. He will continue to apply the switch to the law breaker.

Captain Heitfeld may not make much noise, but he makes himself felt.

Commissioner Ryder believes in promotion along the ranks according to merit. That's the way he came up himself.

The head of the Omaha police department thirty years ago was named "Angel." He long since took flight.

Dahlman Proposes Comfort Stations Underneath Street

Mayor Dahlman will present a resolution at the meeting of the city council Tuesday directing the city engineer to report on the probable cost of two substreet comfort stations at Sixteenth and Harney streets and Sixteenth and Douglas streets.

Mayor Dahlman says he expects a report on the project by the middle of November. He believes two such stations, placed beneath the street in busy sections, will cost about $18,000.

No attempt will be made to build these this winter, but after the first of the year the mayor intends to push this request until he secures some action. Establishment of such stations was one of the mayor's issues in the campaign.

Hustling Retailers Growing in Numbers

Members of the hustling committee of the Retailers of Omaha, a new organization of local retail men started about six weeks ago to encourage trade conditions in Omaha, held a luncheon at the Hotel Loyal yesterday, when reports on the membership enrollment were made and other matters of business transacted. Together with the new members enlisted on the roster the organization now totals over 100 active retailers.

Regular meetings of the retailers will be held on the 15th day of every month hereafter at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at the Commercial club rooms.

Following are the members of the hustling committee: Phillip Schwartz, chairman; Arthur Hoese, Thomas F. Redmond, F. E. Myers, H. F. Kerr, C. B. Brown, W. R. Matthews, C. E. Maloney, J. W. Stewart, A. S. Peck, W. Baxter, Robert Rosenwald, H. A. Thompson, president of the organization, and James Metcalfe, secretary, also attended the luncheon.

WOMEN CHARGE COUNCIL WITH AIDING SCALE TRUST

Petitions signed by 40 women were filed with the city clerk protesting against the "assistance rendered the scale and grocery trust" by the city council in passing a weight law.

Mrs. F. D. Thomas and Mrs. Ray Abbott head the list of signers. The petition makes the following assertion and appeal:

We, the undersigned residents and taxpayers of Douglas county, Nebraska, do petition the city council to refuse any assistance to the scale trust or grocery trust in passing any ordinance that will drive the commission houses and shed off Omaha out of business, and put off competition and raise the price of living, and create a prejudice in the country against Omaha, such as the scales ordinance and ordinance of the city council from the men elected on the square platform.

DEATH RECORD.

Thomas Murray, WEST POINT, Neb., Aug. 28.—(Special.)—In the death of Thomas Murray, Cumming county loses one of its oldest pioneer settlers. Mr. Murray expired Tuesday at the St. Joseph's Home for the Aged in West Point. He was 87 years of age. His death was due to a complication of diseases incident to his advanced age. By reason of family estrangements Mr. Murray had lived alone for some years, but owing to the influence of Father Rueping he was provided with a pleasant home during the last few years of his life. He was the father of ten children, of whom eight survive—John E. of Omaha, Thomas E. of Holt county, Mrs. Mary Uppell of Long Pine, Mrs. Michael Wortman of Wahoo, William, Harry, Anna and Clara of this county. Funeral services were held from St. Mary's church, Rev. Father Kiernan, assistant pastor, celebrating the requiem mass. Mr. Murray was a native of Bristol, England, and had been a resident of Cumming county for nearly forty years.

John T. Bradbery, aged 85 years, a corporal in Company H, One Hundred and First regiment, Indiana volunteers, in the civil war, was found dead yesterday morning in bed at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Ford, 32 North Thirty-fifth avenue. His death was due to heart trouble. He was here on a visit from Omaha. The body will be taken to Ashland, Neb., for burial.

Mrs. Agnes C. Jones, LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 29.—(Special Telegram.)—Mrs. Agnes C. Jones, for thirty-five years a resident of Iowa Falls, Ia., died suddenly here today.

Gunboat Vicksburg Reported, TUCSON, Ariz., Aug. 29.—The United States gunboat Vicksburg, about whose safety fears were entertained yesterday, was reported today as having arrived at Guaymas, on the west coast of Mexico, last night. The Vicksburg was reported damaged while on the way to aid the wrecked freighter Fieldas at Magdalena bay.

AGE LIMIT SET FOR THE OLD

Young Women's Associations Here Have Not Fixed Mark.

NO DORMITORIES AT HOME

Women Must Be Sixty-Five Years Old to Be Admitted to the Old People's Home in Omaha.

There is no age limit in the boarding home of the Scandinavian Young Women's Christian association, according to Miss Marie Halness, president. Miss Halness does not agree with the Chicago Young Women's Christian association which decided that 35 years should be the age limit and ousted all over that age.

She says that the Scandinavian home takes many women near 50 years of age; that recently an Episcopal deaconess over 60 stayed at the home for several months. Miss Lily Strong, general secretary of the Omaha Young Women's Christian association, which has no dormitories and consequently has not the age problem to deal with, says that 25 is too young to set as age limit, that 35 or 40 would be better. She says that the Chicago Young Women's Christian association was overcrowded and set this age in order to make way for the younger women for whom the association is primarily planned to aid. Miss Strong declares that there ought to be an age limit—otherwise old women would live at the associations and take the place of the younger ones.

The Old People's Home sets its age limit at the opposite extreme. A woman must be at least 65 years of age to be admitted, says Mrs. E. O. Loomis, chairman of the admissions department. The oldest woman at the home now is Mrs. Van Plack, who is 81; Grandma Parker, who died recently, was 95 years of age.

Is This Why English Beauties Are So Fair?

(From London Heard.)

Ever since the discovery that mercurized wax would absorb and remove a soiled complexion, its use by ladies as a substitute for toilet creams has grown rapidly. A perfect complexion can be maintained indefinitely if this remarkable substance is used. Its beneficial cleansing, clearing and preservative action is quickly apparent, and ladies who have been paying as high as a guinea a jar for "special cream" from beauty specialists, soon recognize that mercurized wax outranks them all. It has become so popular that it can also become extremely popular. One ounce powdered saxonite is dissolved in one-half pint witch hazel. Bathing the face in this has a splendid effect.

Mrs. Sarah Shipley, One of the Nebraska Pioneers, is Dead

Mrs. Sarah R. Shipley, one of the Nebraska pioneers and the first woman married in Washington county, died at her home in Florence yesterday afternoon, aged 72 years. She is survived by eight children, six sons and two daughters. The children and their residences are: Jacob and Willard, Florence; Freeman, Oscar, Jeffrey and Frank, South Bend, Wash.; Mrs. Lena Reiley, San Diego, Cal.; and Mrs. Viola Thair, Omaha.

Mrs. Shipley was in remarkably good health for one of her age. She was up and around the house until two weeks ago. At first her illness was considered only a trivial matter, but she rapidly grew weaker and passed away as gently as if going to sleep.

Mrs. Shipley was born in Ohio and with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison, came west in 1838, settling in the Ponca creek valley on a farm near the present Ponca school house, north of Florence. March 25, 1854, at Blair, she was married to Thomas Shipley, who died some thirty years ago. Soon after the death of her husband, Mrs. Shipley removed to Florence, where she resided, her home
