

BOOTH'S BODY LAID TO REST

Outpouring of Populace Seldom Rivalled in English City.

CRIMSON BANNERS BORNE ALOFT

Service Takes Two Hours, Though Portion is Left Out—Eulogy by New Commander—Provisions of the Will.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—The body of the founder of the Salvation army, General William Booth, was buried beside that of his wife yesterday in the old cemetery of Abney park, in the heart of the east end of London, where the great evangelist began the work that spread over the entire world. No such gatherings of the populace on a funeral occasion have been witnessed here except upon the deaths of Queen Victoria and King Edward VII.

Several thousand Salvationists, the men and women composing the forty-eight divisions of the army from the London provinces, carrying their banners of "blood and fire" and keeping step to well known Salvationist tunes played by forty bands, marched over the five miles from the army headquarters in Queen Victoria street to the burial ground, through muddy streets, after being drenched by a downpour of rain.

It was more in the nature of a triumphal progress than an occasion of mourning. In the same streets only a few years ago not a few of those who marched today had been mobbed and jeered. No one could estimate the numbers who had assembled everywhere, gathered to witness the passing of the funeral of the late commander-in-chief. All the windows and streets along the line of march were crowded. Plugs at half mast and drooping, rain-soaked at half mast and many of the business houses were closed.

Fifty thousand at Cemetery. The multitude in and about the cemetery numbered not less than 50,000. The new commander, Bramwell Booth, himself pronounced a long eulogy and read the committal service, when his father's body was lowered into the grave. As Bramwell Booth was approaching the grave, Herbert Booth, dressed in civilian clothes, stepped forward and kissed the new general on the cheek.

The mayor of Stoke-Newington and the mayor of Hackney, in their robes of office, were seated on the platform with the Booth family. Mrs. Catherine Booth-Clibborn, the late general's eldest daughter who had for years been estranged from the army with her husband and their twelve children, sat among the mourners.

Miss Eva Booth, commander of the army in the United States, who arrived in London just in time to walk behind her father's coffin, broke down with grief and fatigue. Mrs. Booth-Hellberg begged the audience to excuse her sister from speaking, but the army was anxious to hear the American leader and she came forward. Bramwell Booth and Mrs. Hellberg supporting her.

Miss Booth said: "I am worn out with travel and with grief, but I must deliver my message from the army across the water. My beloved father never lost the hold which he established there so long ago and we feel his loss as keenly as the English corps. He looked forward with so much joy to the visit which he had planned to make to America this year. But God is with us and the work will go on."

With the exclamation of "Oh, beloved father," Miss Booth broke down and was assisted to her seat.

Freelance of WILL. A summary of the will left by the late General Booth was made public today.

All the properties held by him as general of the Salvation Army and all like public trusts, real and personal, including copyrights, are vested in his successor as "general for the time being of the Salvation Army," to be held by him "upon trusts affecting the same."

By a codicil his small private property, having a net value of £47 19 shillings (approximately $2,400), he gives to the Salvation Army, with the exception of certain private papers and memoranda, which are given to his eldest son, Bramwell, and a few articles chosen by himself, which are given as mementoes to each of his children and children-in-law.

Another codicil deals with property estimated in value at $25,000, representing moneys settled on him many years ago by the late Henry Reed for private use. It was this provision which enabled him to draw no stipend nor remuneration of any kind from the funds of the army. This property is divided among his children, Bramwell, Catherine, Marian, Herbert, Eva and Lucy. His executor, Bramwell Booth, is appointed executor of the will.

Insurgents Besiege an American Mine

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Aug. 30.—A force of 300 rebels has demanded the surrender of the El Tigre mining camp, American property, located sixty-five miles south-east of here. Forty Americans fully armed intend to fight if necessary to protect their women and children. Also about seventy federal soldiers are defending the town. El Tigre is one of the richest gold mines in Mexico, controlled by Kansas City capital, and if captured by rebels could finance the revolution.

H. C. Beauparc, general manager of the Transvaal mine, an American property, reports that the mine has been looted by rebels. J. S. Hunter, the store manager, was held for ransom, which was paid.

Late reports say the Americans at the El Tigre property have arranged an armistice with the rebels, in an effort to compromise.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The Mexican government has ordered federal troops to hasten to a point between Hermosillo and Nogales in the state of Sonora for the protection of two Americans, Frank B. Curtis and Arthur Cunningham, who are beset by rebels thirsting for revenge.

FATHER AND SON KILLED BY ROCK ISLAND TRAIN

KELLOGG, Ia., Aug. 30.—N. Keeton, 29 years old, and his 7-year-old son were instantly killed and another young son fatally injured when an eastbound passenger train on the Rock Island struck a buggy in which they were riding late today. The accident occurred at a railroad crossing.

Caught in the Act and arrested by Dr. King's New Life Pills, bilious headache quits and liver, stomach and bowels set right. Only 25c. For sale by Beaton Drug Co.

Military Discipline in Prison Called Off

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Aug. 30.—(Special.)—Deputy Warden Ames of the state penitentiary has been called on the carpet by Warden Melick for punishing convicts who refused to salute him in military style whenever he passed. Such convicts were strung up by the wrists until in a more humble frame of mind. It is the charge for which the Warden censured his deputy. Deputy Ames was a National Guard officer when he took the position at the penitentiary and his military ideas did not prove entirely acceptable.

ORIENTAL TREATMENT FATAL

Noted Sculptor Dies in Great Agony in Seattle.

UNDER CARE OF CHINESE DOCTOR

Operation Something Like Vaccination for Skin Disease Causes Death—Woman Companion Is Prostrated.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 30.—Louis Potter, 39 years old of New York, a noted American sculptor, died in great agony in an obscure hotel on Sixth avenue here today after undergoing ten days' treatment at the hands of a Chinese physician for a skin disease with which he had been afflicted almost since birth. The exact cause of Potter's death has not been determined, although Coroner Snyder is convinced that it was not blood poisoning, as at first believed. An autopsy was held tonight but nothing was found to indicate the nature of the final ailment. A chemical analysis of the stomach will be made tomorrow.

Mr. Potter, who came to Seattle ten days ago with a woman companion and registered at the hotel as "Dr. Peroy and wife," told a few friends to whom he made himself known that he was seeking relief from the dermal malady which American and European physicians had told him was not serious but was incurable.

Mr. Potter had met a woman tourist who had been treated for a similar ailment by a Chinese physician in California with satisfactory results and she advised him to consult a Chinese doctor when he came to Seattle. With this in view, Mr. Potter registered under an assumed name. The Chinese physician performed an operation similar to vaccination on Potter's abdomen last Friday, lacerating the skin and applying a strong oriental plaster. Potter complained that the treatment was severe but was hopeful that it would be successful.

The woman, who was known at the hotel as Potter's wife, was taken to another hotel and placed under the care of a physician who said she was suffering from nervous prostration. All efforts to communicate with her were futile and the attending physician declined to discuss her case or give out any information concerning her, finally refusing to answer the door or the telephone.

At the home on Sixth avenue, where Potter died, it was said that the woman claimed to have worked formerly on New York newspapers. At no time did she enter into details of her identity.

Had International Fame.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Louis Potter was not quite 39 years old, but he had attained international fame as a sculptor. Several years ago he attracted attention by executing a remarkable bust of Mark Twain, although he had never seen the great humorist and worked solely by the aid of pictures. A group entitled "Earth Bound" exhibited here last year was another of his noteworthy productions. Mr. Potter was born in Troy, N. Y., and studied in this country and abroad. Perhaps his best known works are groups of American and Alaskan Indians. It was said here that he was not married.

Marines Fired on Escape Uninjured

BLUEFIELD, Nicaragua, Aug. 30.—Official information has reached here that fifty marines, fired on Saturday by rebels while repairing the railroad between Managua and Leon, escaped without injury. Though forced temporarily to retreat they resumed and completed their repair work Sunday and then returned safely to Managua.

SONS OF VETERANS ELECT GRANT COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 30.—Robert M. Grant of Hartford, Conn., today was elected commander-in-chief of the Sons of Veterans to succeed Colonel Newton J. McGuire of Indianapolis, and Miss Frances M. Fox of Rochester, N. Y., was elected president of the Ladies' auxiliary to succeed Mrs. Flora Staples Whitney of Worcester, Mass. The choice of a city for the annual encampment next year was left to the encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, which takes place next month at Los Angeles, Cal. The orders next year again will have a joint meeting, as heretofore has been the case. Other officers for the Sons of Veterans are: Senior vice commander, Charles J. Martin, Parsons, Kan.; junior vice commander, C. H. Hudson, Madison, Wis.; council-in-chief, H. F. Welser, Boston, Mass.; Arthur J. Vesceilus, Paterson, N. J., and W. B. Moynihan, Rochester, N. Y.

BERNSTEIN ACCUSES WARD WITH SELLING MINOR BEER

Patrick Ward, a habitue of the Burke saloon at Ninth and Capitol avenue, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Juvenile Officer Bernstein, who charges him with aiding and abetting the delinquency of a minor. Ward is alleged to have sold beer in a can to the children of Pat Haley, Seventh and Webster streets.

Culls from the Wire

The business portion of Malstone, a town in Ferris county, Montana, was destroyed by fire. Great Britain's policy regarding Tibet is severely criticized in this morning's liberal newspapers. The balloon Kansas City II, John Watts, pilot, won the balloon race for the Antlers' trophy which started from Colorado Springs. September 15 is the date set for the hearing before the supreme court on the application of the democratic state committee of South Dakota for a mandamus to compel the secretary of state to place the name of Robert P. Stewart of D. ad wood on the regular democratic ticket as a candidate for supreme court judge from the First district.
