WE LAUNDER EVERYTHING

Send Us Your Currency— NOTHING IMPOSSIBLE FOR US— By Elbert Hubbard—

The other day in a western city I sent a bundle to the laundry. When the clothes came back, there came also a big, square sealed envelope. I opened this envelope and found in it three $10 bills, all nicely washed, starched, ironed and carefully placed between two pieces of cardboard and tied up with a blue ribbon in a lover's knot. No explanation was made, out in the bill I saw they had charged me 25 cents for laundering the moneys. Of course, I kicked, but what was the use! Just for the fun of the thing in order to get a line on that particular wash house, I went around and demanded an explanation. The young woman in charge said they had found the money in the right-hand pocket of a left-hand white vest which I had sent in the bundle. Then she explained quite candidly that whenever soiled clothes came in every garment was carefully inspected for valuables. Every day they found in my pockets, diamond studs in shirt bosoms, valuable links in cuffs, and collar buttons enough to roll under all the buttons in Christendom. "It is part of our business," said the young woman, "to protect our customers against their own carelessness." She saw I was interested, and continued: "We never send garments home with the buttons off." "Do you iron many buttons off?" "No, we do not, but when garments come in with buttons off we always sew them on, so as to return the garments in good order, ready to wear. Also we do any little darning and mending that should be done, all this without charge. Our business is to please our customers."
