EPPERSON FACTION UP IN AIR

Appointment of Corrick at Order of Dixon Mixes Things.

WITHOUT OFFICIAL STATUS

With Chairman Hillis Recognizing Taft Committee and Moosers Dealing With Corrick Its Position is Uncertain.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
 LINCOLN, Aug. 31.—(Special.)—It seems to be the opinion of state house politicians that the selection of Frank P. Corrick to manage the bull moose campaign in Nebraska puts the Epperson faction of the republican committee considerably up in the air.

The selection of Corrick, it is understood, was made at command of Senator Dixon, Roosevelt's national campaign manager, and therefore the handling of the campaign for Roosevelt will be from Corrick's headquarters.

According to one state house wise-acre, the Eppersonian committee is facing a situation which does not look very good. In event the courts decide the Taft republicans entitled to the name republican and to be the state organization, the national republican committee recognizing the Taft state committee and the national bull moose headquarters recognizing the Corrick headquarters, where he asks, will the Eppersonian committee look to support?

"Of course," said this official, "a great deal will depend upon what the third party mass-convention does next week, but the scheme to sidetrack Corrick has proved to be just the thing he needed to boost him into a position where his enemies who engineered the deal will have to go to him if they want anything. As the special representative and state campaign manager for Mr. Roosevelt, Frank P. Corrick, looks much bigger than Frank P. Corrick, as simply chairman of the bull moose faction."

Firth Wants New Station.
 Most of the politicians who have been watching the republican situation seem to agree that the Taft republicans are entitled to the name and the organization, and that the courts should decide that way.

James C. Curtis, mayor of Firth, accompanied by members of the city council, appeared before the railway commission Friday and filed a complaint against the Burlington railway. The nature of the complaint is that the depot at Firth is a long way out of town and is too small to accommodate the public. They ask that the company be required to erect a new depot about forty rods nearer the city and on the side of the track where the people will not have to cross the four tracks to get to it, as they are now compelled to do.

County Assessors Tardy.
 County assessors who failed to make a showing on valuation of national banks are not coming to the front very fast in answer to the letters of Secretary Seymour inquiring about the matter. Only a few replies have been received and consequently the whole matter is being held up pending replies from the counties which failed to report.

Fatally Wounds His Bride and Himself

CENTRAL CITY, Ky., Aug. 31.—When C. O. Dutsinger, a tailor, today learned that his bride of two months was at a lawyer's office here making preparations to file suit for divorce, he seized a hatchet and running to the office attacked both his wife and the lawyer, James Stroud. After hacking them with the hatchet, inflicting fatal wounds upon his wife, he ran back to his shop and dived through a plate glass window, wrecking a gasoline stove inside and setting fire to the building. He then tried to hang himself with a wire rope, but failed and was hauled himself with the hatchet when firemen dragged him from the burning building. His wounds also are fatal. Crow Dog, Famous Brule Sioux Chief, Dies at Rosebud

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Aug. 31.—(Special.)—Information has been received here of the death of the Rosebud reservation of Crow Dog, sub-chief of the Brule Sioux, for many years one of the most noted of the warlike tribesmen, and who in personal combat killed Spotted Tail, the greatest chief in the history of the Sioux nation.

Crow Dog was 66 years of age and for some time had been quite feeble. Desiring to secure medical attention he was taken to the Rosebud agency, but died soon after arriving there.

It was in 1882 that he killed Spotted Tail, once the great war chief of the Southern Sioux tribes. The killing was done in self-defense. After the slaying of Spotted Tail, Crow Dog was arrested and taken to Fort Niobrara, Neb., and placed in jail there. Later he was taken to Deadwood and tried in the United States court on the charge of murder. He was convicted and sentenced to be hanged. His attorney, however, appealed the case, and the higher court held that there was then no law on the statute books providing for the punishment of an Indian for murdering another Indian, and accordingly, Crow Dog escaped the gallows.

White Crow Dog was jailed at Deadwood his fellow prisoners tore a big hole through a wall of the structure and escaped. They urged Crow-Dog to go with them, but he refused, saying that he knew he was not guilty of any crime and that he would await the decision of the court.

After his acquittal he returned to his home on the Rosebud reservation, and with the exception of a period of two or three months during the ghost dance trouble on the Pine Ridge and Rosebud reservations in the winter of 1900-01, he remained quietly on his reservation.

POLK MOOSERS NAME TICKET

Sixty Meet at Des Moines and Start Ball Rolling. SOCIALIST HEADS TICKET

Man for Many Years Leader of This Party Prominent Among Des Moines Progressives—Carriers Meet.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
 DES MOINES, Aug. 31.—(Special Telegram.)—Sixty members of the bull moose party met in mass county convention here today and decided nearly two to one for nominating a county ticket, then named a ticket that is regarded as very weak. It is headed by A. D. Pugh, for many years prominent as a socialist, as candidate for judge, with W. H. Harwood, real estate man and Dr. Charles Smith, for members of the legislature. Those who opposed naming a county ticket fought hard and long against it and openly declared a fight for local offices would make it impossible to carry Iowa for Roosevelt. There was no enthusiasm at the convention. Delegates were elected to the state convention in favor of a state ticket, but instructions were refused.

The Iowa convention of rural letter carriers today paid high tribute to Congressman Prouty of this district for his work in their behalf in congress and gave him an oration when he entered their hall. The convention also gave its indorsement to Senator Cummins.

Old Railroad Ticket Presented.

All of the ambulances in the city were in constant use at the campus. The guards and spectators were in the direct glare of the sun where the temperature was more than 100 degrees.

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—Chicago this afternoon experienced the hottest weather this summer. At 2:30 p. m. the temperature had risen to 94 degrees, this being two degrees higher than it was at any time in July. Great humidity added to the discomfort. One death due to heat was reported.

DO LOOK AFTER YOUNG GIRLS

Who Will Patrol the Streets at Night and Will Attend Dances to See That Prohibited Movements Are Not Practiced.

The first policewoman to serve on the Omaha police department has been appointed by Commissioner Ryder. She is Mrs. Katherine Drummy, widow of Sam Drummy, a policeman who was killed on duty about three years ago.

Mrs. Drummy will wear the title of assistant matron and she will have police power. While she will not be assigned to make arrests on the street, her duty will be to see that the young girls who go unescorted on streets at night and day, are not molested, bear catcalls, bunny buggers and dancers of any other of the objectionable or prohibited dances.

Mrs. Drummy was formerly a school teacher. Commissioner Ryder says she will make an excellent policewoman. She will go on duty Tuesday at a salary to be fixed by the city commission then.

"I have seen dozens and dozens of cases where a woman with police authority was greatly needed," Mr. Ryder says, "and I will expect Mrs. Drummy, who is now in the prime of life, to be of much assistance to the police."

The new policewoman's work will be chiefly at night, when she will patrol the streets and keep watch on young girls, or will attend dances and see that the prohibited dances are suppressed.

ELGIN RACES TAKEN BY RALPH DE PALMA IN SWIFT SPEEDING

the day, the $2,500 free for all. These entries were:

Ralph Mulford, Knox; George Clark, Mercedes; Ralph De Palma, Mercedes; Teddy Tetslaff, Fiat; Eddie Hearne, Fiat; E. Bergdoll, Benz; Nell Whalen, National and Hughie Hughes, Mercer.

Five of these eight, Mulford, Clark, De Palma, Tetslaff and Whalen, also were entered in the 354 mile Elgin National trophy race, which was to be run at the same time with the free for all.

Entries in Trophy Race.
 In addition to the last five named, the following entries made up the field of ten in the Elgin National race: Harry Engdott, Mason; Gill Anderson, Stutz; Charles Marx, winner of yesterday's Illinois trophy; Stutz; Spencer Wishart, Mercer; and Hughie Hughes, Mercer.

Thousands of people arrived in Elgin last night and this morning, largely interested in the big crowds that witnessed yesterday's races. As a result, the policing of the course became more strict and additional national guardsmen were stationed at the more dangerous turns, where accidents to spectators might result.

Two Cars Drop Out.
 The 120-horsepower Fiat entered in the free-for-all was disabled during a tryout this morning. A crankshaft was broken, putting the car out of the race. The National city, to have been driven by Nell Whalen, also was put out of the race before the start by mechanical troubles.

Starter Wagner sent off Ralph Mulford, the first to start in today's two races, at 11:10 o'clock. The others in the field were sent away at thirty-second intervals. The field had been reduced to a total of ten by the withdrawal of a National and a Fiat.

At the end of the ninth lap, or seventy-six miles, Bergdoll, driving a Benz car, led the field in the free-for-all race. Ralph De Palma, with a Mercedes, led the contestants in the Elgin National trophy race at the end of the first seventy-six miles. De Palma also was a contender close to Bergdoll in the free-for-all.

BUZZINGS

A writer contributing an article on "Bryan" to the current Atlantic refers to a debate during his first campaign for congress with "a certain Mr. Connell." Yes, it's the same.

Senator Hitchcock is having his home repainted. He's painting it red, too.

At any rate, Howard Baldrige has reached the place where they introduce him as "your next congressman."

Rome Miller's right name is Romulus. Just try it on him some time when he looks particularly amiably.

Reports from Atlantic City say that since John L. Webster's departure, no two persons can agree as to who is the best dressed man there.
