NIEW STETSONS and IMPERIAL C

Young men and smart dressers who are looking for the latest styles in Hats are especially invited to see our new advance styles in

STETSON HATS $3.50 to $5.00 IMPERIAL HATS $2.00 to $5.00 CLOTH HATS Nobby New Shapes $1.50 and $2.00

Ask the man for an Old Colony hat cleaner-free to you.

Pennants Pennants

Get your Pennants for the Lincoln trip-Omaha, Nebraska, Ak-Sar-Ben. Etc.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S BENSON & THORNE (Q 1518-20 FARNAM STREET.

PROGRESSIVES IN

(Continued from First Page.) Loaving Springfield late this afternoon, Colonel Roosevelt's real journey begins. He turns his back on the east for a time,

St. Paul and thence on a long siege up would aid in the solution of our great and down the Pacific coast states. His economic problems." plans will bring him back to Oyster Bay about the middle of October. HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 2.—Colonel

Roosevelt, in discussing the tariff here

"It is a poor, poor business for any party if it makes a platform upon which its candidate cannot stand. The democratic platform says the tariff is unconstitutional. If it is it has got to be aboi ished at once. But I cannot imagine any-

How Women Can Save Money (Elia Ellis in the Arch.)

"Women save a good part of the cost of many dainty aids to beauty if they purchase the necessary ingredients at the drug store and mix them at home. For less than a dollar you can make a six months, supply of the finest shampoo powder known—one said to really cause hair to grow long, thick and glossy. Just mix four ounces of orris root with a package of genuine therox, sprinkle a little on the head, brush out, and your hair will be clean, wavy and beautifully lustrous.—

Gettysburg because they thought, while he could make political speeches, he was not capable of delivering such an address as was needed on that occasion. It was finally decided to leave it to Lincoln himself, for one of the committee said: 'If the could make political speeches, he was not capable of delivering such an address as was needed on that occasion. It was finally decided to leave it to Lincoln himself, for one of the committee said: 'If the could make political speeches, he was not capable of delivering such an address as was needed on that occasion. It was self, for one of the committee said: 'If the could make political speeches, he was not capable of delivering such an address as was needed on that occasion. It was self, for one of the committee said: 'If the could make political speeches, he was needed on that occasion. It was self, for one of the committee said: 'If the could make political speeches, he was needed on that occasion. It was self, for one of the committee said: 'If the could make political speeches, he was needed on that occasion. It was self, for one of the committee said: 'If the could make political speeches, he was needed on that occasion. It was self, for one of the committee said: 'If the could make political speeches, he was needed on that occasion. It was self, for one of the committee said: 'If the could make political speeches, he was needed on that occasion. It was self, for one of the committee said: 'If the could make political speeches, he was needed on that occasion. It was self, for one of the country thing that would bring more disaster to BATTLE thing that would bring more disaster to wish to see various duties revised downward, but what I especially am anxious to see is the creation of a government tariff commission similar to that in Ger-

"The prosperity of Germany under heading straight for St. Louis where he protection and the industrial retrogreswill speak at the Micsouri progressive sion of England under free trade proves the utter nonsense of supposing that the From St. Louis he will move north to adoption of free trade by this country

VEIL IS DRAWN FROM STATUE OF LINCOLN

(Continued from First Page.)

his letter to Mrs. Gibson showed a wonderful trait of genius.

Gettysburg Address. "His Gettysburg address was another case of great genius. Some objected to having Mr. Lincoln deliver the address at Gettysburg because they thought, while he could make political speeches, he was "The electric needle for removal of acience clear than for the plaudits of the upon to solve he cared more for a con superfluous hair is expensive and pain-ful. A paste made of plain delatone and multitude. He did what he thought was right and that was sufficient for him."

water accomplishes the desired result quickly and safely. Cover the hair with the paste, let it remain a few minutes, remove and wash the surface.

"When eyebrows are thin or lighter in color than the hair apply pyroxin with the finger tips. To make the eyelashes long and darker in color, gently massage the lash roots with pyroxin.

"A frue complexion beautifier that removes freckles, tan, sunburn, dark and middy patches and other blemishes, can be made cheaply by dissolving four punces of mayatone in a half-pint of witch nazel. Use instead of powder. It makes the skin fair, smooth and satiny."

Adv. wards unveiling the monument.

Up and Down? Co To Your Doctor
Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a tonic. It does not stimulate. It does not make you feel better one day, then as bad as ever the next. There is not a drop of alcohol in it. You have the steady, even gain that comes from a strong tonic. Ask your doctor all about this.
Trust him fully, and always do as he says.

Fighting Phil Sheridan In the Shenandoah

This Campaign Was One of the Most Brilliant of the War. Sheridan Lost 17,000 Men, But Destroyed Early's Army and Saved Washington.

rilling Account of the Battles at Winchester and Fischer's Hill, Where the Confederates Were Defeated; Early's Surprise Attack at Cedar Croek; Sheridan's Ride from Winchester and Rout of the Confederates—

Fully Described and Illustrated in

SECTION 14

Brady War Photographs

(Complete With Elson's New History of The Civil War)

Besides this interesting and thrilling narrative of the last conflicts in the Shen-andoah Valley, Section 14 also contains the complete story of the Attack On Petersburg and the failure of a plan by which Grant expected to capture the city. The photographs are unusually interesting. In them, we see

Gen. Jubal A. Early, the Confederate Raider; The Capitel at Washington, as it looked in 1863; Three Scenes Inside Fort Totten; The Portraits of Six Soldiers in the Civil War Who Later Became U. S. Preutdents; What Eight Thousand Pounds of Powder Did; Sixridan, as He Looked in 1864; General Mahene, "the Here of the Crutor"; Louis M. Alentt, as a Nurse-and Many More

A Beautifully Colored Frontis-piece—Ready for Framing

Cut out War Souvenir Coupon which appears every week and bring or send it to this office with 10 cents to cover necessary expenses such as cost of material, handling, clork bire, etc., and get your copy of Section 14 or any one other section you desire.

We have secured exclusive rights for our territory to distribute these long-lost Brady War Pictures, illustrating Elson's History of the Civil War, and take this method of placing the full set of 16 sections in reach of every home, no matter how limited the means.

TWENTY PERSONS DROWNED Strange Case of

Series of Storms Sweep Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

MANY OTHERS ARE MISSING

Tracks Washed Out-Many Houses in Cherry Valley and Cannonsburg are Wrecked.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 2-Twenty persons are known to have been drowned a series of storms which swept over of West Virginia early today. The Baltimore & Ohio railroad and the Pantraffic can be resumed. Through trains ley was beyond all human aid. were marooned during the night in the flooded districts. Many manufacturing plants are under water and the property damage will be heavy,

Reports from colleries, in the panhandle of West Virginia, are that nine persons have been drowned there and many more are missing, but the exact loss of life cannot be ascertained until the searching parties along the valley of Hannon's creek report.

Cherry Valley, a mining town on the creek, was flooded within half an hour after the rain begun to fall. Foundations of houses were undermined and they toppled over into the flooded streets, George Gillispie, his wife and four children were drowned in the house and the bodies of the children were found on a mattress floating in four or five feet of water. Cannonsburg, Pa., also suffered from the storm, hardly having recovered from a like experience last week. Charters creek overflowed its banks and swept through the town, filooding the railroad and trolley tracks and many of the streets. A number of houses were filled with water but the residents had received ampie warning and hastened to places of safety, but one man who went back to recover some valuable papers was

A number of children in the community are among the missing and several men, women and children who had taken refuge on the roof of a house on the edge of the stream at Cannonsburg, in the flood.

on which he had taken refuge went

At Avella, Washington county, Henry Crow's house was undermined by an ordinarily little stream. Mrs. Crow was badly injured and Crow carried her out, but before he could return for the three children they were swept away. After spending its force south and west of Pittsburgh the storms swing ninh to Butler county, where great damage was done, but so for as known no lives

Oil derricks were blown down, stort streams flooded and scores of persons spent the night marooned by the wash-

Alcoholism Causes Death of Woman

Bryan's address the rain was failing fast touch dead in bed at 809 North Sixteenth but the crowd took the wetting and street at 4 o'clock yesterday morning. Alcoholism is thought to have caused ber death. J. J. Shannan, a teamster, who was in the room with the woman when she died, was arrested.

Shannan and the woman went to the room early in the morning. Both had been drinking heavily.

The Kiser woman was about 40 years old. Harry Kiser will probably send the body to the woman's home at St. Joseph, Mo., for burial. An inquest may be held.

STRAY BULLET NEARLY FINDS MARK IN WOMAN

Mrs. William Wolf, 836 South Nine-teenth street, had a close escape from death yesterday afternoon when a builet fired into the air by two youths several blocks away crashed through the front window of her home and flattened in the wall a few inches from her head. The occurrence was reported to the police and a few minutes later Patroiman McDougal arrested Edward Everett, 2002 Poppleton. arrested Edward Everett, 2002 Poppleton and H. J. Ryan, 1204 South Twenty-fifth Right Guard First ing firearms in the city limits. One of the youths had a revolver on him when searched, and as the caliber corresponded with the flattened bullet both will be held for prosecution in police court today.

CARLTON T. GARRETSON. EDITOR OF JUDGE, IS DEAD

NEW YORK, Sept. 2 .- Carlton T. Garretson, editor of Judge, died here today of injuries received when he was thrown from his horse May 10. He had been paralyzed from his neck down since the HYMENEAL.

Uher-Kyral. Frank Uher and Miss Mary Kyral both of Omaha were united in marriage by Judge William Altstadt, on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in his office in the Paxton block.

Stanfield-Neal. Neal, and Mr. Roy Stanfield, both of South Omaha, were married by Rev. Charles W. Savidge at his residence Saturday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock. Mr. Bruce Young accompanied them.

Miss Ida Bennett, daughter of Earl lennett, and Clifton Goff were married unday evening at 5 at the residence of street. A number of guests were pres Rev. Charles W. S. die performed the city. eremony.

Iowa News Notes. IOWA CITY-John Greulieh, a ploneer hotel proprietor and grocer, died sud-denly at his home here, aged 71. He had resided in Iowa City fifty-seven years. His widow and one son, John,

FORT DODGE-Mike Brennan, alias McNarmy, who was arrested recently for cutting C. B. McGrew with a pocket knife, has been bound over to the grand jury under $3,000 bonds, charged with assault with intent to commit great bodily injury. McGrew is critically ill with blood poisoning at Council Bluffs as a result of his friur'es.

IOWA CITY-Fire, due to a child's use of matches in a closet, imperiled the lives of four people before dawn. The home of Elmer McGuire was partly burned and his wife just succeeded in saving her sister. Miss like Reese, of Hart, Mich., and the three McGuire children who were sleaping with or near their aunt. FORT DODGE-Mike Brennan, alias

Wrong Identity Has Happy Ending

A case of mistaken identity with every angle chock full of thrilling features ended happily for Miss May Bradley, 2002 Bristol street, Saturday night, and resulted in a friendless colored woman with a somewhat similar name being given a pretentious burial.

Saturday evening Miss May Bradley, who is connected with the Fry Shoe company, called up by telephone the and many others are missing following Joseph's hospital to inquire about her sister, Miss Eva Bradley, who is suffering western Pennsylvania and the panhandle with appendicitis. The hospital attendant who answered the telephone confused the name with that of a Mrs. Bradley who handle railroad were badly washed and it died a few minutes before, and the inis stated that days will pass before formation was given out that Miss Brad-

The sister collapsed at the telephone upon hearing the news, and when she ::covered she notified an undertaker to care for the body. Then she began to notify by telegraph all out-of-town rela-

This accomplished. Miss Bradley made a of her supposedly dead sister, but when she entered the ward she almost swooned when she saw her sister alive and very much improved. The mistake was quickly of drums and beneath two silken flags ferreted out and the relatives immediately carried at half-mast. Men and women told of the good news, and instead of sang. sorrow in the Bradley home now, there is great rejoicing. The arrangements made with the un dertaker by Miss May Bradley had already been fulfilled.

Rural Carriers Hold Meeting at Columbus

COLUMBUS, Neb., Sept. 2.-(Special the Nebraska Rural Carriers' association, from nearly all sections of the state were the last notes were sung. present and a very good program was crushed in the collapse of his house and carried out. a boy fell into the tiood when a porch

The forenoon session was devoted listen ing to addresses by Congressman Stephens and Postoffice Inspector L. A. Thompson preceded by short tddresses by Mayor Held, President Frischholz of the Commercial club, Postmaster McAllister and Ex-Postmaster Kramer.

The afternoon business session was pr slipped on the shingles and disappeared sided over by President Reed and two subjects, "The Care of the Horse," and "Good Roads," were taken up by Carriers Kronkheit of Seward, and Brock of > sided over by Inspector Thompson followed by election of officers as follows: President, W. W. Wilson of Raymond; vice president, John Kronkheit of Seward; secretary, E. W. Cliff of Humboldt; treas urer, F. W. Wheeler of Hastings. Delegates to the national convention.

lumbus; C. A. Morton, Cheney. Norfolk was selected as the next place of meeting, the time being left to the

Aldrich Makes Reply

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Sept. 2.-(Special.)-Governor Aldrich today gave out a long statement in reply to Lieutenant Governor Morehead's refusal to meet him on the platform. Summing up his argument, the governor says:

governor says:

Mr. Morehead stands at last out in the open admittedly as a reactionary and the plastic tool in the hands of the special interests and opposed, on his own record and admissions, to a genuine people's government. With an admitted state of facts the people will have no trouble in determining what to do, and in every single instance where the contest has been between the people and the representative of special interests the people have turned down the corporation tool and kept the government within their own hands. In the contest of two years ago there was one satisfaction in Mayor Dahlman's fight. He was courageous, out in the

in Industrial Purse

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 2 .- Right Guard, owned by J. M. Doyle of St. Joseph, Mo., had a walk-away in the $1,000 Industrial purse race which was the opening event of the western circuit races at the state fair grounds here this afternoon, taking all three heats by several lengths. The 2:17 class pacing furnished some fast racing for a $500 purse. Earthquake, owned by Frank Howard of Pawnee City, winning from Joe-Joe, owned by J. H. Iseman of Lincoln, after the race had gone six heats. Summary:

Rebels of Mexico Would Sack Capital

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 1 .- A plot by Zapastistas to capture and loot the cap-Mins Grace Neal, daughter of John Ital has been discovered by the police here. Papers taken from an agent of the Zapustistas after he had been arrested revealed the plan and information obtained from the agent resulted in the finding of 100 guns and a quantity of ammunition and bombs. The Zapastistas had planned their attack for September 15, a holiday. A tiputsand Zapastistas mingling with the cele-Mr. L. A. Bennett, 22 North Fifteenth brants of the holiday were to incite the populace to revolt and simultaneously ent and a wedding lunch was served, hordes of Zapastistas would ride into the

The Persistent and Judicious Use of Newspaper Advertising is the Road to

Many people are wondering how the nickname "bull moose" came to be applied to the new party. When Colonel Roosevelt went to the republican convention at Chicago in June a reporter asked him how he was teeling.

"Like a bull moose," he said. The expression was caught up and im mediately adopted by both friends and enemies as peculiarly characteristic of the movement.

Mid Peals of Thunder, Omaha Mayor Leads His First Religious Meeting. RIVERS DESCEND ON PEOPLE

Pay Tribute to the Memory of the Dead Leader of the Salvation Army jagged streaks of lightning flashed across the sky and the torn and rain-splashed tent trembled to the steady roll of thunder, James C. Dahlman, cowboy, politician, veteran campaigner, and mayor, conducted his first religious meeting with an audience of 200 ragged, unkempt men and reformed women of the street at the Salvation army headquarters at 1711 Davenport street last Standing in front of the tent was the mayor's big automobile and lined up behind it were the machines of many "swells" who had come because they were curious to see, not hear, the "cow boy mayor" preach a sermon on the life of the dead general of the Salvation trip to the hospital to secure the effects army, William Booth, to whose memory memorial services were held. An army ensign led the Salvation army workers up Davenport street to the beat

"Shall we gather by the river. Where bright angel feet have trod; With its crystal tide forever Flowing by the throne of God?"

As the quavering air died away, the brigade marched under the dripping tent. Mayor Dahlman, head uncovered and wet mohair coat clinging to him, marched with them. The mayor sat behind an improvised altar and Ensign S. A. Moyer stood beside him and directed the singing. A prayer was offered by Staff Captain Telegram.)-The tenth annual meeting of Caldwell. "Til Follow Thee," sang the audience, the brass band accompanying, was held in this city today. Carriers A sheet of rain descended on the tent as "We have paid tribute to General Booth," said Mayor Dahlman, "because all the world has recognized him as a man whose heart beat for the plain people and those in distress.

"Coming from the plain people, as do, I have been a follower of General Booth. He had ability, wisdom and a Booth. He had ability, wisdom and a great heart. He extended the helping Turkey Hastens hand. He went through storm and sunlight, but he never lost sight of his purpose, and he delivered the goods. "Many have come to me objecting to streets, singing and praying and trying to reach those who cannot be reached any other way. "I have seen so many people appealing for something beyond their grasp! This

Salvation army appeals to the men and "I have met many men and women the responsibility, but I was glad I had Booth and Organizer. General Booth as an organizer and th effective work of the organisation which he founded and the character of the man who was "father to the forlorn, the to Morehead Letter of the poor," were the subjects of a talk by E. F. Denison, of the Young woman companion of Louis Potter, the foul breath. Get a 60 cent bottle of Ely's Men's Christian association. He wished the Salvation army success in raising money to build an assembly house, a > contemplated by the local corps. It was still raining when Mrs. Anna Dodds pronounced the benediction and year and is also said to have done litthe meeting broke up. The audience erary work for eastern publications, She the rude pulpit to shake hands with the member Dead Chief. YORK, Sept. 2.-Filled to over flowing with fervent leaders and other followers. Memorial hall at the national this city was the center of services held formed today. His death was sudden, reposts throughout the country in memory

MANY SERVICES IN NATION

Nine Thousand Posts in World Re

headquarters of the Salvation Army in yesterday, the State department was inyesterday at more than 900 Salvation Army suiting from uraemia and heart failure. of General Booth. The services were also a part of similar memorials in 9,000 all of which being ordered at 3 o'clock sidered, virtually a continuous twenty-

DAHLMAN EULOGIZES BOOTH four-hour service in which millions of of the army.

Services here were preceded by a parade of national and local officers, headed by the national staff band. More than 500 men and women were in line.

The day was not only one of memorial to the founder of the army, but a consecration to carry on his work for humanity under oath of allegiance to his succeeding son, General Bramwell Booth. The congregation sang the general's favorite hymns, while tributes which the king and queen of England President Taft, Colonel Roosevelt, Joseph Choate and many other distinguished persons had paid to the general, were LONDON, Sept. 2.-At all Salvation Army citadels yesterday impressive memorial services were held in honor of the late General William Booth. At Congress hall, Clapton, General Bramwell Booth, the new head of the army, presided at the exercises, which were attended by Evangeline Booth, commander of the Salvation army in Morocco, and Mrs. Booth Hellberg, chief of the army in Denmark, General Booth apologized for not wearing his new uniform, saying "I hadn't the courage. I felt that I wasn't ready to put it on.

Four Millions More for Rural Carriers

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.-Under authority conferred by the postoffice appropriation bill, Postmaster General Hitchcock today increased the salaries of rural letter carriers on standard routes from $1,000 to $1,100 a year, thus affecting 30,000 men with proportional increases to carriers on shorter routes.

The order will become effective Septem-

This will mean an increased disbursement of $4,000,000 a year. It is the second salary advance for rural carriers made in the last four years. The increase provides rural carrier adequate compensation for additional bursystem effective January 1. Mr. Hitchcock has directed rural mail carriers on the completion of twelve months' service, be granted fifteen days leave with pay. This will require an additional $90,000 a year to pay substitute carriers.

dens to be imposed by the parcels post

Move for Peace

CHIASSO, Switzerland, Sept. 1 .- The the men and women who work on the proposition of Count Leopold Von Bergh instant relief. thold, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, that autonomy be gradually given all European provinces of Turkey a little higher than they ought, reaching has spurred on Turkey to hasten the unofficial negotiations for peace with Italy. which are in progress in Switzerland between Turkish delegates and Pietro Bertolini, former Italian minister of When the people placed me in public works, and Guido Fusinato, who H. Talbot, Table Rock; H. B. Reed, Co- the chief executiveship of the city I feit was an Italian delegate to the last peace conference at The Hague tle, formerly resided in Riverside.

POTTER'S COMPANION WAS TENNESSEE WOMAN

Miss Miller came here in 1904 from Nashworkingman's hotel and other structures ville, Tenn., according to those who remember her. She taught music about a cheered at the close and crowded up to left here presumably for Colorado on account of ill health, and later, it was reported that she had died, but the report was never confirmed.

HAMILTON KING, MINISTER TO SIAM DIES SUDDENLY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Hamilton King of Olivet, Mich., United States minister to Slam, died at Bangkok, Slam, Man Drowned Near Yankton, YANKTON, S. D., Sept. 2.—(Special posts and out-posts throughout the world, Telegram.)-Andrew Johnson was drowned in the river here Sunday by falling off constituted, if difference in time is con- an excursion boat. The body has not been recovered.

Began With Pimple. Spread All Over Face. In Agony All the Time. Itched and Smarted. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Was Cured.

Moberly, Mo .- "My trouble began with s small pimple on the left side of my face and it spread all over my face and to my neck. It would be scarlet red when I got warm. My face was a sight. It looked very unpleasant, and it felt uncomfortable. My face was something awful; it just kept me in agony all the time. Some said it was tetter, and some said it was that awful eczema, but I rather think it was tetter. I had been tried many remedies but got no relief until "When I would wash my face with the Outicura Soap and apply the Cuticura Ointment it would cool my skin and draw great big drops of matter out of the skin. You would think I was sweating; it would run down my face just as though I had washed it. If itched and smarted and I suffered in the day time most from the heat from the stove. I used the Outicura Soap and Outi-cura Ointment for a month and I was cured of it. I will tell everyone I know who has any trouble of the skin." (Signed) Mrs. J. Brooksher, Apr. 15, 1912.

Outlours Soap and Cutlours Ointment sold throughout the world. A single set is often sufficient. Liberal manple of each mailed free, with 32-p. Blein Book. Address. post-card "Outfours, Dept. Tr. Boston."

For Tender-faced men should use Cunicu Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

NSTANT RELIEF FOR COLD IN THE HEAD AND CATARRH

No matter how miserable you are with catarrh or a cold in the head, nose stopped up, throat sore, eyes running, dull pain in the head, dry cough, fever, foul breath, Ely's Cream Balm will give you

It gets right at the root of the trouble cleanses, heals and strengthens the raw. sore membranes, stops the nasty discharge so that you are not constantly blowing the nose and spitting. In a few minutes after applied you can just feel it doing its work of clearing the head, the pain and soreness are relieved, the breathing becomes natural and the stuffed up feeling is sone. This cleansing, healing/ antiseptio Balm contains no mercury, cocaine or other harmful drugs. It is easy to apply, pleasant to use, and never fails to give relief, even in the Worst cases.

Never neglect a cold, and don't suffer RIVERSIDE, Cal., Sept. 1.-Miss Martha the miseries of catarrh nor disgust your the treatment of a Chinese ductor in Seat-tle, formerly resided in Riverside. ever made.

Makes of Motors Free from Carbon Are You Using POLARINE on Your Car?

Our booklet, "Polarine Pointers," tells all about the Polarine isrand of automobile lubricants and contains many useful hints on the vare of a car. Free, postpaid. Address any atoucy. Standard Oil Company

Mobraska c.

MRS. WENSLOW'S SOUTHING SYRUP Has been used for over SIXTY YEARS by MILLIONS of MOTHERS for their CHILDREN WHIER TETHING, with PERFECT SUCCESS. IT SOOTHES the CHILD, SOFTENS the GUMS ALLAYS all PAIN; CURES WIND COLIC, and is the best remedy for DIARRHCEA. It is absolutely harmless. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrap," and take so other

HOTELS AND SUMMER RESORTS

