JOHNSON FAMILY IS IN BAD Panic in Y. M. C. A.

Police Court is Treated to Scene from "Too Much Johnson."

TEN OF THEM ARE IN COURT

Nine are Charged With Drunkenness and Police Judge Foster Hands Out Various Assortments

of Fines.

The Johnson tribe was well represented in police court yesterday. Ten offenders bearing the title of Johnson were brought before Police Magistrate Foster and all but one were charged with the same offense-drunkenness.

Lee Johnson was fined $5 and costs. He was returning home late Monday night with a hayrack party. At Fiftleth and Leavenworth streets he objected to the way the driver was handling the ribbons. He broke a bottle of beer over the "chauffeur's" head and was arrested.

Nels Johnson drew $1 and costs for creatworth street car Monday night. When Officer J. D. Byrne reprimanded him for his unmanly conduct he wanted to engage in deadly combat with him and consequently was supplied with a room for the night free of charge.

Carl S. Johnson, arrested on complaint of Mrs. Bagley, 415 South Thirty-first street, on the charge of being drunk, was fined $15 and costs.

Carl Johnson was assessed $1 and costs for putting on a special stunt at the Ak-Sar-Ben den Monday night. Carl was 'ntoxicated and wanted to take part in the

C. I. Johnson, charged with being plain drunk, was discharged.

John Johnson, a vagrant, was given a "position" with the railroad company. His duty will be to drive spikes. Frank Johnson, charged with begging on the streets, was given thirty days on county feed. George Johnson of Chicago, arrested as a suspicious character, was given thirty minutes to leave town. George promised to make himself an unknown quantity in Charles Johnson was given thirty days in the county jail on a petit larceny charge. He was caught stealing a piece of pipe from a box car in the Burlington yards Sunday.

Women to See Part of the Big Den Show at Ak-Sar-Ben Ball

At the coronation hal, of the Ak-Sar-Ben this year the concert portion of the Den show will be given for the benefit of the wives of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben. This will be the first time that any part of the performance at the Den has been open to women. The entire show could not be presented on the evening of the ball for the reason that there would not be time unless the ball Itself were cut down to practically no time at all. There will not be the usual band concert before the opening of the ball, but the concert will take its place.

Creighton Medics Have Daily Clinics

Pursuant to plans adopted at their annual meeting held last April the Creighton Medical college alumni will hold daily clinics during the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities, September 26 to October 6. Over 200 alumni are expected to attend.

The plan is for the doctors to bring medical, surgical or special cases in which their patients are unable to pay for medical services, excepting the hospital fees. The clinics will be held at St. Joseph's, Nicholas Senn and Omaha General hospitals. Clinics will be held every forenoon and the alumni association has made plans for plenty of entertainment every afternoon and evening.

IMPROVEMENT SHOWN IN NEBRASKA CROPS

Reports on crop conditions in Nebraska continue to be most optimistic. The Burlington's report was most pleasing to al! who have been keeping in touch with the situation, and now comes the crop report of the Union Pacific, which is even more cheering. The report at hand is for the week ending last Saturday, and consequently does not take into account the heavy rains and for Nebraska?" that have been general since that date. condition and a good crop practically as- of the metropolis and the capital city rapid growth and a good yield in sight and hearts," concluded the chancellor. Hordville, Madison, St. Edward, North Platte, Sidney, Kimbail, Big Springs. Llewellyn, Rising City and Bushnell report warm weather all last week, something that was needed for the corn.

Farmers are getting pretty well along with their threshing and are finding their wheat turning out from eighteen to twenty bushels per acre, with the yield up to thirty and thirty-five bushels in many localities.

Potatoes are spoken of as being a wonderful crop, excellent in quality and yielding from 100 to 150 bushels per acre in

SOUTH OMAHA AUTOMATIC PHONE EXCHANGE CLOSED

The South Omaha exchange of the old Independent Telephone company was closed and discontinued Saturday night. Postal Receipts The exchange at Florence was discontinued some weeks ago. This leaves only the Omaha exchange working. There are no more automatic telephones in Florence or South Omaha. In Omaha some 2,000 are still in use. In the office of the Nebraska Telephone company, which is now the owner and operator of the old independent system, there are orders for the removal of 1,000 of the 2,000 that are still in operation. Those ordered out are being removed at the rate of some fifty or sixty per day. Whenever the outer matics are all removed in Omaha the exchange will be closed here, after which arrangements will be made for the selling of the exchange buildings.

When Smoke Fills Long Corridors

Panic reigned in the Young Men's Chriswhen fire was discovered in the place. Several young men who room there leaped from their beds and donning a few articles of wearing apparel, rushed to the street, many by the fire escapes.

When the fire department arrived it was found that the blaze had started in a carpenter's room in the basement and the damage amounted to only about $200, The smoke worked its way into the dormitories by wafting through the elevator shaft and the entire building was filled.

Samson's wild animals howled and the trained animals performed at the Den Monday night for the benefit of 100 of the livest business men of Lincoln, the guests of King Ak-Sar-Ben. The entire performance was in honor of Omaha's guests from the capital c'ty who broke away from their own state fair and from the occasion of the unveiling of the Lincoln monument at the state house grounds in order not to lose out on the great circus put on for them at the Den.

There was nothing spared. The circus was all there. There was no rolling up of guy ropes nor pulling up of stakes in the early part of the evening as there is at the tent shows the small boys attend. But the Lincoln guests got to see it all, from the trained elephants to the bucking steer; from the haunted house to the bull wrestling; from the cage of living breathing, if not gore-sweating, mollycoddles, to the sudden appearance of the bowing, smiling Taft, followed by the obedient G. O. P.; the black-robed Princetonian professor endeavoring to manage his long-sared, braying democracy, and the impetuous rough rider slamming his hat in the ring and yanking in the wildeyeu and snorting bull moose.

A Darn Good Town. This is the cheerful greeting given to the visitors, written and composed by Bruce McCulloch:

Other candidates for political office as well as candidates for initiation were on the list. When the wreckage of the circus, the nitiation and the concert was cleared ten of the Lincoln delegation were called to the big rostrum. They were Governor Aldrich, Chancellor Samuel Avery of the state university, Edward Maggi, Bishop George A. Beecher, Regent George Coupand of the state university, Jack Matthews, Colonel C. J. Henry C. Richmond as chairman said this was one of the two great interchanges of courtesies to take place between the metropolis and the capital this fall, the other being the trip to the state fair of a large delegation of Omaha people Wednesday. He announced the paid membership of the Ak-Sar-Ben to be the greatest in its history, being 2,217 up to ast night.

The speakers were limited to very short addresses. Edward Maggi said whatever was for the good of either Omaha or Lincoin could not but be for the good of the entire state of Nebraska "and," he continued, "kentlemen, are we not all from Bishop George A. Beecher said while there were great issues before us in the present campaign, we had greater ones in the moral issues that confronted us. 'In order to save the boys and girls," he said, "we must put into execution our convictions."

Governor Aldrich said the Samson show and concert was without doubt or exception the best show he had ever seen. Speaking of the two cities represented last night, he said: "We have the same. interests, the same language, we worship at the same torone and we must all work on the broad principle of live and let live and allow every individual the opportunity to make the most of himself." Humorously aliuding to a good-natured political slam Richmond had given him in the introduction, the governor said: Whatever comes up this fall I will be equal to the occasion and I will be so until after November 5, and then I will go to the springs to get boiled out, as my illustrious competitor did two years ago."
