-Says He is from Florida.

NEW ORIZANS, Sept. 5.—Suffering from a fractured skull, the bandit, who, single handed, robbed the New York Limited train on the Louisville & Nashville rathroad twelve miles east of New Orleans last night, later to be felled by the locomotive driver, was brought to New Orleans this morning and placed in the charity hospital.

The bandit said his name was E. Edwards and that his family lived in Jupiter, Fig. He gave the police in formation which is expected to lead to the early capture of three other members of a gang that is believed to have been responsible for a series of sensa tional train robberies in this section. Edis in a precarious condition.

Men in Six Cars Robbed. Edwards first crawled aboard the engine not far from New Orleans and covered Engineer Baer and the fireman with two revolvers. He carried a small valtse in which he had dynamite and nitro-The train was stopped and with the engineer and fireman preceding him at the point of a revolver, Edwards rifled the mail car of all regis sengers in five sleepers and a club car He did not offer to melest women. He secured almost $1,000 in cash, then marched the engineer and fireman back to the engine and or dered them to proceed.

After riding on the engine for about twenty-five miles Engineer Baer caught Edwards off his guard and struck him a terrific blow on the head with a brass torch, fracturing the base of the skull. Edwards fired one shot as it fell. It went wild. Engineer Baer proceeded to rain blaws with the toron until he had the

Two Splendid Suggestions for the Skin and Hair

Simple little home-renedies usually do more to conserve the complexion than expensive preparations, and especially is this true of a spurmax lotion for the face, neck, arms and hands. This is face, neck, arms and hands. This is prepared by putting 4 ounces spurmax into 5 pint witch hazel or hot water, and adding 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine. The spurmax lotion is invisible when en and imparts a delicate and velvety smoothness to the skin. Its use banishes all complexion unsels and presents the skin from chaps and roughness.

The lack of serious interest in the games on the part of the British public is declared by the committee to have greatly affected the enthusiasm of the British competitors. Owing to want of funds these also were deprived of opportunitles training under trainers acquainted with the best scientific methods.

It rests with the British public, says the eport, whether this state of things shall be remedied in the future.
