ALL-NATIONS PLAY STORZ TEAM HERE TODAY

The All-Nations and Storz Triumphs will meet for the second time this season this afternoon at Rourke park. The first battle between these great semipro, clubs may result in a victory for the cal team after one of the hardest fought games on the Rourke grounds.

Donaldson, the crack colored southpaw, being confident of his ability to defeat the brewers, will be opposed by "Park" Olsen, the brewers' big "knuckler," and a most interesting duel is assured. The

KENNEDY FILES HIS ANSWER TO EPPERSON

John L. Kennedy, former chairman of the republican state central committee, from whom Ambrose C. Epperson, the Roosevelt claimant to the chairmanship, replevined the committee's property, has filed answer to Epperson's replevin suit in district court. Kennedy's answer admits that he formerly was chairman, but no longer is. It asserts that he has no claim upon the property and has no interest in the matter, the controversy being one between Epperson and Frank L. Currie, the regular republican claimant of the chairmann a broad sweep, and it is to interplead so that the court may dethe rightful claimant.
