Omaha Banks Show Good Condition

BANKS SHOW FINE INCREASE

Deposits Nearly Five Million More Than for Year Ago.

MUCH LARGER THAN IN JUNE

Bankers are Enthusiastic Over the Prospects for Fall Business—Loans Also Show a Healthy State of Affairs.

In response to the call of the national comptroller, statements issued by local banks show that deposits were $4,619,119 greater on September 4 than September 1 of last year and $4,948,000 more than at the time of the last call, which was made June 14. In total figures the deposits show $53,913,089 at the present time.

The tabulation shows an increase of $2,114,300 in loans over the same table compiled on September 1, 1911. An increase of $1,499,587 in loans over June 14 of the present year is also noted. Total money loaned out amounts to $42,508,650.

All the bankers are enthusiastic over the excellent crop prospects throughout Nebraska and the middle west and predict a large increase in deposits within the next three months. Reports are pouring into Omaha from country towns in Nebraska, telling of the bumper crops in nearly every section of the state. The recent rains have added materially to the crop situation and are taken as a good omen for the fall harvest.

The immense increase in deposits and loans since June of this year is also considered a good sign and general good business conditions this fall are expected. Not a single bank shows a decrease in deposits during the last three months and most figures reported show large gains.

Following is the table of the present statement compared with deposits and loans of the last call, June 14, and with the same figures of a year ago:

One Last Effort Being Made to Round Up Commercial Men.

OUTSIDERS WANT TO GET IN

While Visitors Will Be Welcomed Monday Night at the Den, They Will Be Entertained Only as Individuals.

The Real Estate exchange, the Grain exchange and the Commercial club have been asked by the Ak-Sar-Ben management to "get busy" in the matter of hustling all the new members possible for the Ak-Sar-Ben from the ranks of their several organizations before next initiation. Monday night will be the closing of the den performances, and this is the last effort for new membership. The membership hustling committee of Ak-Sar-Ben will hold its last meeting Monday noon at the Paxton hotel, at which time the new members from the realty men, the grain men and commercial men are to be reported. There are still quite a number of men, members of these organizations, that are not members of Ak-Sar-Ben, and Samson is extremely anxious to have all of them get into his circle.

POTTER IS REAL BOOSTER.

E. L. Potter, one of the members of Samson's membership hustling committee, made a new reputation for himself when at Lincoln at the state fair Wednesday. It is said he has become so accustomed to the hustling of members that he forgot he was not in Omaha, and so ardently did he talk Ak-Sar-Ben to a Lincoln man on the fair grounds that he not only got

State Osteopaths Will Meet in Omaha Two Days Next Week

The thirteenth annual convention of the Nebraska Osteopathic association will be held next Wednesday and Thursday in Omaha. All sessions will be held at the Millard hotel assembly room. The call to order and opening address will be delivered by Dr. H. M. Ireland of Kearney, president of the association. Following the opening address three lectures will be made: Dr. C. B. Atzen of Omaha, Dr. Mabel Lewis of Wayne and Dr. N. J. Hoagland of Central City. Five addresses will be made in the afternoon and in the evening, and beginning at 7:30 a debate will be the feature. The question: "Resolved, that the osteopathic profession of Nebraska should urge the next legislature to so amend our state laws that the medical schools and hospitals supported by the state shall be equally accessible to all legalized schools of practice, both in teaching faculty and in clinics," will be discussed.

On Thursday morning a business session and election of officers will take place and four lectures in the afternoon will conclude the convention.

BUTTER AND POLITICS ARE MIXED AT THE FAIR

Claude Bosche, dairy inspector, doesn't believe in mixing butter and politics. He went to the state fair at Lincoln especially to see the dairy exhibit. He couldn't find anything in this line except elephants, donkeys and bull mooses in butter, so he took the noon train home.

Butler as Acting Mayor Extends the Straw Hat Season

Acting Mayor Dan B. Butler put one over on the mayor yesterday while that official was doing the state fair at Lincoln with the South Omaha. "I hereby extend the straw hat season to September 15," proclaimed the acting mayor. Mayor Dahlman intended to extend the season, but his old straw refused to hang together longer than the first and he invested in a new lid more suited to the wintry season. Final cleanup sale of dresses—$10 to $15 values Saturday $3.98; $5 to $10 values, $1.98. Orkin's, 1610 Douglas street.
