No Bliss for Bliss Until Six Months

Jacob A. Bliss, of Randolph, Neb., got a divorce a year ago, but he didn't file the decree and pay the costs until recently, consequently, when he wanted a license to wed Miss Blanche Young, of Randolph, it was denied him.

Remarriage of divorced persons is prohibited for six months. Bliss told Charles E. Furry, marriage license clerk, he was divorced a year ago, but he didn't seem quite sure, so Furry sent him away to get the exact date. He found that while the court granted the divorce a year ago the decree was not signed and filed and the costs paid until recently and the period of prohibition does not begin to run until these things are done.

HIGH LICENSE FOR VENDERS

Council Plans to Tax Transient Merchants $25 Per Day.

WITHNELL ASKS FOR $100,000

Wants Bonds to This Amount for the Purpose of Electing New Fire Barns and a Central Police Station.

An ordinance to exact a license of $25 a day from transient merchants was introduced at a meeting of the city commission in committee of the whole yesterday morning. Police Commissioner Ryder framed and introduced the ordinance.

There was no objection from the councilmen but legal defects in the measure caused postponement of its consideration for a week, in which time the legal department will make it constitutional.

This ordinance is planned to exclude vendors of jewelry or any other merchandise and will apply to goods auctioned by these men as well as stuff disposed of in any other way.

The ordinance giving the present owners of brick manufacturing plants a monopoly on factories, providing all machinery be built along specific lines laid down by the council, was recommended for passage. It provides that chimneys of brick plants must be 100 feet high.

A plan to exchange use of certain streets with the Havens-White and the L. B. McCoun Coal company was considered and referred for a week, the council deciding to investigate before acting.

The appraiser's report for opening Twenty-seventh street from Cumings to Burt, fixing the damage at $5,544.90, was not accepted. The council believes the damages are high and will investigate.

The Missouri Pacific railroad asked permission to lay a track on the south side of the alley between California and Webster and the council agreed to consider the proposition after investigating.

The issuance of $50,000 park bonds to be voted at the next election will be authorized by the council.

C. H. Withnell, head of the department of fire protection and water supply, will ask for $100,000 bonds to build new fire barns and a central police station.

Burlington Crop Report Says Corn Affected by Heat

The Burlington's crop report for the week ending last Saturday takes into consideration the disease that has attacked horses in Kansas and some portions of Nebraska. Superintendent Young mentions Phelps county as the only locality where it is prevalent to any alarming extent. He says that in that county, according to reports received at his office, 300 horses died during the two weeks preceding the issuance of the report.

Relative to crop conditions along the Burlington system the weekly report says the ground is in fairly good condition generally, but there are localities where rain is needed. On account of the lack of rain in many places the sowing of fall wheat has been discontinued.

The prospects for a heavy corn crop, the report says are not so good as a few weeks ago, the hot weather having retarded the growth of the ears and caused the kernels to dry too rapidly.

The comparison of the condition follows:

Divisions	Week	Last Previous
Omaha	50	50
Lincoln	78	78
Wymore	80	80
McCook	82	82

The estimates are upon 100 per cent being a perfect crop.

Except on the Wymore division the pastures are reported to be still in excellent condition. There they are dry and short. Haying has proceeded rapidly and everywhere large quantities have been put into the stack.

No More Free Drinks on the Union Pacific

For years, out at Cheyenne, the Union Pacific has been furnishing free water to all who wanted to go to a tank car and drink. This water has been hauled in tank cars from Granite canon, eighteen miles west. The cars have been left standing on a siding near the depot and all people had to do in order to get the pure spring water has been to go to the cars, turn the spigots and carry the water away in jugs, pails and casks.

This has cost the Union Pacific several hundred dollars annually and the officers see no reason why the practice of hauling water and giving it away should be continued.

GOES COURTING WITH KNIFE

Farm Hand is Arrested for Pursuing Woman He Would Wed.

HE NEGLECTS POTATO PATCH

Is Employed So Diligently Making Love that He is Discharged and Then the Trouble Begins.

Determination of John Thomas, a farm hand, to marry Mrs. Amanda Dreessen, widow of Henry Dreessen, farmer, six miles west of Benson, caused Thomas' arrest and incarceration in the county jail by Sheriff Felix J. McShane, Jr., Sunday night. Mrs. Dreessen was hiding in some shrubbery and Thomas, armed with a knife was prowling about the farm in search of her when the sheriff arrived. Deputy Sheriff W. A. Foster accompanied Sheriff McShane to the scene to see how an arrest is made. Complaint charging Thomas with assault was filed in county court yesterday. He will be given a hearing Wednesday or Thursday.

It seems that Thomas has caused Mrs. Dreessen more or less trouble ever since the death of her husband a year ago. Thomas had worked on the farm for several years. He decided that he was the logical successor of Mr. Dreessen as boss of the place and it appeared to him that marriage to Mrs. Dreessen would be about the proper caper.

She Enters Demurrer.

When the matter of Dreessen was mentioned to Mrs. Dreessen she demurred. Thomas decided to bide his time, but it appears that he worked so hard trying to be an efficient bidder that he didn't have much time left for real labor. This grating on Mrs. Dreessen's nerves somewhat and Thomas couldn't seem to realize that the best way to make a hit with her would be to hoe two rows of potatoes where he had hoed only one before.

He Was Discharged.

By and by, Mrs. Dreessen tired of boarding and rooming Thomas and informed him that on and after a certain date the farm would cease to be an eleemosynary institution. Gently, but firmly she told him he would have to evacuate his stronghold in the room over the back kitchen. His work didn't suit her any more and he was discharged.

Thomas left, but he has hung around the neighborhood ever since, occasionally getting word to Mrs. Dreessen that he still wanted to marry her.

Paul Rosen, a hand whose work suits Mrs. Dreessen, met Thomas at Bennington Sunday afternoon. He resented some remark of Thomas' and hit him on the nose as hard as Mutt hits Jeff. Thomas didn't say anything then, but he got madder and madder until Sunday night he went to the farm and announced that it was his. He took after Mrs. Dreessen with a knife. She fled, screaming. The sheriff was telephoned for.

FINED FOR ABUSING WIFE AND TWO CHILDREN

L. Bagersdorfer, 209 Castellar street, was given a ninety-day sentence by Police Magistrate Foster on the charge of abusing his wife and family. He pleaded not guilty to the charge, but his wife's testimony showed plainly that she and the children, ranging in age from 4 to 19 years, had been most cruelly treated by him.

According to Mrs. Bagersdorfer, he drove her and the children out of the house Sunday morning about 1 o'clock, not giving them time to put on their clothes. They were forced to seek shelter for the night at the home of Tom Hartwell, son-in-law.

Illinoisans Take Up Cheap Nebraska Land

S. R. Howard of the Burlington's land department has returned from the west, where he piloted 100 Chicago and Illinois men who were seeking cheap land in Nebraska.

Before Mr. Howard returned from the sandhill country many of the Chicago men had purchased land, while a number of the others had filed upon Kinkaid homesteads. In fact, they cleaned up everything in the Broken Bow land district that was vacant. Last week in that district, fifty filings were made. There are still a number of tracts over in the Alliance district to the west that are vacant. Before buying deeded lands, some of the Chicago men will look these tracts over with a view to filling upon them.

Pedestrian Hurlled by Motorcyclist

H. M. Binder of the Johnson Electric company, riding a motorcycle, struck O. L. Bradley at Sixteenth and Howard streets at 1:30 yesterday afternoon. Bradley was thrown about fifteen feet, but received only slight bruises. Bradley's home is in Milwaukee and he is stopping at 1822 Locust street.

CREAMER BREAKS UP CONVENTION AND IS FINED

W. L. Creamer was fined $10 and costs in police court on three charges, disturbing the peace, carrying concealed weapons and threatening to shoot. Creamer, H. C. Adams and M. C. McLaughlin engaged in a heated argument at the latter's home, 380 Ohio street, over politics and McLaughlin, a staunch bull mooser, booted the conversation. This so angered Creamer that he pulled out a revolver and started in pursuit of McLaughlin. At this critical point Sergeant Samuelson happened along and placed the three delegates under arrest.

Adams and McLaughlin were discharged.

Beauty Aids at Low Cost
(From the Journal of Fashion.)

"Many toilet accessories can be made at home at comparatively small cost. A complexion beautifier may be dissolved in an original package of mayonaisse in a half-pint of which hazel is far better than expensive powders or patent lotions. It removes tan, sunburn, discolored patches and other blemishes, and keeps the skin attractively smooth and fair."

"If your eyebrows are lighter than your hair, or thin and scraggy, apply plain pyroxin with the finger ends. They can be trained into well-formed arches by daily brushing. Pyroxin also improves the eyelashes and makes them long and lovely."

"Mole-hairs, fuzzy growths and superfluous hair on face or fore-arms are removed without pain or injury with a paste made of plain powdered detelone and water. Cover the hairs with this paste, leave on two minutes, remove, wash the surface, and the hairs will be gone."

"A six months' supply of shampoo powder is made by mixing four ounces of orris root and an original package of the powder. Brush this mixture through the hair (it comes out easily) and your scalp will be clean, while your hair will be light, wavy, lustrous and easy to do up."

Omaha Bonds Not Affected in the East by Venner Company

School bonds in the amount of $125,000, the last issue sold, will be delivered to the purchasers in Chicago today. The purchasers of these bonds asked for a rebate because, they declared, the price of Omaha bonds had been lowered by the suit brought by C. H. Venner & Co. of New York. The board refused and asked for immediate execution of the contract, as the money will be needed within the next few months.

City Treasurer W. G. Ure, who returned yesterday from New York, says the suit brought by Venner & Co., in which they ask for $14,000 damages for alleged misrepresentations of the assessed valuation of Omaha property, has not affected Omaha bonds appreciably. All bonds, he says, have slumped and Omaha's bonds have slumped with the rest.

The display is valued by the Hayden firm at $10,000. It comprises the finest and most expensive of imported hand-made lace as well as the more moderately priced domestic machine-made laces. The display and sale opened yesterday and will last through Thursday.

CLEAN SHOWS FOR CARNIVAL

Samson Eliminates Those that Are Not Strictly Elevating.

WORK STARTED ON THE BOOTHS

Contractor Lee McGreer Commenced Work Monday in Getting the Grounds and Booths in Good Shape.

When the trumpets begin to blare on the midway of Ak-Sar-Ben this year, the visitors will find a higher class of shows and attractions than they have ever found there heretofore. It has been the aim of the committee to lift up the general tone of the line of shows to be permitted to do business on the grounds this year and "Dad" Weaver in letting the contracts has been careful to eliminate those that were not considered elevating. The result is that there will this year be no montrosities, no five-legged calves, no double-headed cows, no snake shows or human freaks. Instead there will be wild animal shows, dog and pony shows, high class vaudeville, aquatic divers, Indian shows, an Arabian theater, and many other classy attractions.

Different Arrangement.

The show grounds this year are to be laid out differently than ever before. On the vacant lot northwest of Eighteenth and Douglas streets, where many of the shows have always held forth, are to be many of the shows this year, but instead of having a row of booths along the front of this tract facing Eighteenth and facing Douglas, the management has decided these two lines of booths are to be done away with and that the shows occupying the lot are to be allowed to front flush on the curb-line.

A group of bill posters went out in the state yesterday armed with great rolls of bills to post in the western towns and in other parts of the state to call the attention of the people of the state to Ak-Sar-Ben. The contractors, Lee McGreer, has begun work on the building of the booths.

Mogey Bernstein has been awarded the contract of getting out the printed program for the wild west show to be given in connection with the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities.

Jones Will Save Cigars Hereafter

It don't always pay to try to make friends with the "cops" by giving them 15-cent cigars. James Jones found this out last night.

He offered Detective Connolly a cigar at Fourteenth and Farnam streets and was promptly arrested for being a vagrant. He was discharged in police court.

THE SOCIETY OF THE BEE-HIVE

By MELLIFICIA. September 9.

ISN'T IT strange how clever and brilliant a woman may be and yet not have the slightest idea of practical business?

I was spending the afternoon with a charming friend of mine when our conversation was interrupted by the telephone. She returned to the veranda somewhat peeved.

"Well, what do you think, the National bank just called up to tell me I had overdrawn one dollar and thirty-nine cents. I just told them that they had already bothered me by sending a couple of notices and now they call me up on a hot afternoon, and if they bothered me again, I was going to take my account to another bank. Why, the idea of a big bank like that bothering about a dollar and thirty-nine cents. Well, I said, if you think I am going to bring my check for this month's allowance down town this hot weather, you are mistaken. Anyway, my husband has several thousand dollars in that bank that I know of, and you can take that dollar and thirty-nine cents out of that if you think my credit isn't good. And it seems to me my husband owns stock in that bank, so you do not need to worry."

Wedding Plans.
