GENERAL ARTHUR MACARTHUR.
Brooklyn Eagle: No general officer serving in the campaigns growing out of our declaration of war against Spain is deserving of greater credit than Arthur MacArthur.

WORLDLY WISDOM.
I.
If Nature, stingy, has denied Sufficient flesh your bones to hide;
If your tailored suit has failed to fit—
And you look like a hoe stuck into it—Thee you look like the wreck in a Pink Pill.

GRINS AND GROANS.
"Give as you are able this morning brethren," pleaded Pastor Goodsoe. "The deacons will collect the property, so to speak, and I'll pass it around among my clamorous creditors."—Chicago Tribune.

Thirty Years Ago—
The second day's session of the national convention of the American Woman's Suffrage association was opened in the Baptist church by Dr. H.
B. Blackwell of Boston. Mrs. Lucy Stone read the report for the executive committee. Mrs. Bittenberger reported for Nebraska and General Estabrook reviewed the work in Omaha.

The Omaha Board of Trade entertained Commissioner Loring of the United States Board of Agriculture at an informal banquet at the Paxton. Speeches were made by President Clark, Colonel Chase, Mr. Loring, Ex-Governor Furnas, Major T. S. Clark, Ex-Governor Hoyt of Wyoming, Hon. Pat O. Hawes and Hon. J. Sterling Morton.

MOTHER ANN
By Rev. Thomas B. Gregory.
Ann Lee, the foundress of the "Shakers," died 1825 ago, September 17, 1825.
This remarkable woman was born in Manchester, England, February 29, 1736.

Regulating the Billboard.
New York City recently set its commissioner of accounts to investigating the "billboard business" with a view of evolving means for its regulation. His report is comprehensive and includes references to conditions and regulations in other cities.

Denver Augean Stables.
A grand jury in Denver has indicted a large part of the present and past city administrations from the mayors down upon charges involving about every usually alleged civic transgression. Indictments and charges pile in upon men in and out of office like a turbulent waterfall.

People Talked About
The income tax law recently molded in the surging political laboratory of Wisconsin is so obnoxious to voters that candidates for the legislature are pledging repeal.

Just Where Currie Stands.
BROKEN BOW, Neb., Sept. 11.—To the Editor of The Bee: So much has appeared in the press of the state as to my attitude in the present campaign as chairman of the republican state central committee, I desire to make the following statement.

Why should any Roosevelt elector want to run on the republican ticket in order to get votes by dishonest deception? Suppose a Taft man, or a Wilson man, should smuggle himself onto a bull moose electoral ticket, what would they do to him?
