Grace Sorenson, who writes jingles and children's stories, has been invited to become a member of the League of American Penwomen.
New Industries Looking in—Four new industries of no small importance are said to be seeking locations in Omaha.
This was brought out by real estate men at the meeting of the real estate committee of the Commercial club. What the industries are the real estate men are not making public, but they say that one at least would mean a big thing to Omaha.
Pays Alimony, Weds Again—D. J. Fred Diessel and Matilda Diessel, both of Millard, who were divorced in district court in February, 1911, have been licensed to re-wed. Mr. Diessel was the plaintiff in the divorce action and was given the degree, the court, however, making an order that he must pay Mrs. Diessel alimony of $5.00. The amount promptly was paid.
Cochran is Naval Surgeon—Dr. Francis B. Cochran, for several years examining physician of the Burlington Railway company with headquarters in Omaha, has taken up his duties as acting assistant physician of the local recruiting station of the United States navy. Dr. Cochran will work in conjunction with Dr. R.
J. Straeten, past assistant surgeon, who has been the examining physician at the local station for two years. Dr. Straeten will leave in a few weeks for the Atlantic coast, where he will participate in the review of the Atlantic fleet in New York harbor.
Warrants Are Issued—Warrant for $50,443.75, taking up $50,000 worth of Douglas county road improvement bonds, has been sent to State Treasurer George. The original road improvement bond issue was for $150,000. Last year the Board of County Commissioners took up $30,000 worth of the bonds. The remaining $50,000 worth will be retired by the board next year. The bonds were purchased by the state.
Jelen Has Broken Rib—James Jelen, clerk in City Clerk Flynn's office, is suffering with a broken rib, received while wrestling Sunday. Jelen fell ill Monday and a pain developed among his ribs.
He worked until yesterday afternoon. A medical examination disclosed the broken rib and he quit work.

Arrangements Made for the Transfer of Four Kaw Games

Final arrangements were made Friday between Pa Rourke, Dale Gear and President "Tip" O'Neill for the transfer of the Topeka series to Omaha next week. A vote of the executive committee of the league gave Dale Gear permission to make the change. The Rourkes by the new arrange ment will arrive in Omaha Monday.

Pa Rourke also announced the purchase of Pitcher Clausen of Grand Island, Pitcher Kingdon of Fremont and Infielder New of Seward. Joe Lutz has also been recalled and the four men will join the Rourkes on next Monday.

The SOCIETY
The BEE-HIVE

By MELLIFICIA.

Friday, Sept. 13.

SEVERAL YOUNG women have decided that to be able to swim and dive is a useful as well as a graceful accomplishment.

Thursday morning a number of young women were having an enjoyable swim at the Metropolitan pool when Miss Eusebia Dudley, who is wearing a beautiful new solitaire, felt the ring slip from her betrotthal finger. There was consternation and excitement.

At that time of morning there were no small boys in the pool to dive for the ring. Miss Cooper, the swimming teacher, was not in her bathing suit, and most of the young women were timid about diving, even if the water was not very deep where the ring had fallen. Finally Mrs. Frederic Thomas, one of the swimmers, said, "I believe I can get it," and, diving down, she found the ring, thus relieving Miss Dudley and restoring order in the swimming pool.

Travelogue Party.

Complimentary to Mrs. Eldridge and Mrs. Hogan of Memphis, Tenn., guests of Mrs. John A. McShane, Mr. and Mrs.
George Barker and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin entertained at an interesting travelogue party Thursday evening at their home. A large number of the guests had spent considerable time in the far east, so pictures of these countries were given.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. McShane on their

L. Cleveland, will resume his studies as senior at the Nebraska Military academy at Lincoln.
Mrs. Lester Crane of Atlanta, Ga., who has been visiting Miss Frances Nash, left Thursday evening for Chicago. She was accompanied by Miss Nash and Mrs.
Lee McShane who will spend the week end in Chicago and return home by the way of Dubuque, where they will spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Boyce have returned from their wedding trip in Europe and spent two or three days in Omaha the first of the week, after which they left for Chicago to make their home. Mrs.
Boyce will return in a fortnight to spend a few days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Patterson.

Fritz Huhn a True Soldier

Serves as a Member of Foreign Legion of Tough Characters.

HE WOULD FIGHT THE MEXICANS

Applies for Service with Uncle Sam with Credentials in the Form of Scars and an Iron Constitution.

"I got more lead in my system in two months at de vite lead factory than I got lead bullets in eight years in der German army and in der French foreign service in north Africa."
Fritz Huhn says that atthe local army recruiting station, where he sought to enlist in the American army. He is a soldier of fortune and he even served in the German army at the Boxer uprising.

This little international tit he did not consider of much importance to a soldier of fortune, so the only relic he brought back was a Chinaman's pistol, which he whacked off with a knife one day by way of pastime.

A Tough Customer.

After serving three years in the German army Huhn enlisted in the Foreign Legion, which does service for the French government in the wilds of Algeria.
He admits that the personnel of this famous legion is made up of some "pretty tough" characters. Frenchmen are not enlisted in this legion, which does service for the French, but every soldier of fortune from any nation is cheerfully accepted. So, marching shoulder to shoulder with Irishmen, Swedes, Hollanders, Egyptians, Japanese and Portuguese comrades this sturdy German for five years chased Arabian freebooters over the sands of the Sahara, when they attempted to destroy the French railroad being built there, and all this he did for a salary which he says was "hardly noting." Besides, the legion was fed on a kind of hard bread that he says has the American hardtack beat an African mile for hardness. "Ven you bite in, you break your teeth out," he explained.

Hardtack Hurts His Teeth.

And this very ration which he substituted on in Africa was the chief cause of his not being able to enlist this morning for his teeth have not yet been repaired. Fritz says he will go to the white lead factory and draw his money.
Then he will get his teeth fixed and enlist under the colors of Uncle Sam, for he feels there is going to be "something doing in Mexico for Uncle Sam before long, he wants to be at the front when it happens.

Although he applied for enlistment on Friday the thirteenth, he said this date held no terrors for him, and that if the stone-like French bread had not broken his teeth out he would be one of Uncle Sam's soldiers before evening.

Creighton Graduate
Manager of Ranch

Thomas Norris, who graduated last June from the arts department of Creighton university, has been made assistant manager of the summer resort located on Eatons' ranch near Wolf, Wyo.
Norris, with five other Creighton students, went to the ranch this spring and worked up to the position. The other students are again at Creighton, but Norris will teach mathematics to a school of young men on the ranch this winter.

Jack Ryder Going to Scour Up Dirty Spots in Outskirts

Police Commissioner Ryder is considering a plan to clean up the east bottoms, where the city dump ground is, and he may recommend to the council that a reurvey of the land be made and then a plan agreed upon to clean it up in sections.
A committee of Sherman avenue residents called on Commissioner Ryder and took him to the bottoms. They said the odor over there was most disagreeable at times.
Ryder declared the conditions justified the complaint and when he returns from the meeting of the American League of Municipalities he will seek to remedy the situation.

Constipated? Go To Your Doctor

It is impossible to be well, simply impossible, if the bowels are constipated. Waste products, poisonous substances, must be removed from the body at least once each day, or there will be trouble.
Ask your doctor about Ayer's Pills, gently laxative, all vegetable.
He knows why they act directly on the liver.
