Three brides-elect, whose weddings will be of much local interest are Miss Eusebia Dudley, Miss Fannie Hoffhine and Miss Juanita Slater. Although none of these young women is an Omaha girl, each has so many friends here that her marriage will be attended by a number of Omaha people.

The engagement of Miss Dudley of Council Bluffs to Mr. Raymond Perry Conner of Denison, Ia., was announced Friday at a luncheon given by her mother, Mrs. William Harrington Dudley. The wedding will take place November 12 at St. Paul's Episcopal church in Council Bluffs. The matron of honor will be Miss Katherine Milroy, who will then be Mrs. Mel Uhl, Jr. Miss Hazel Nell of Chicago will be maid of honor. The bridesmaids will be Miss Helene Smith of Boston and Miss Ruth Barr of New Orleans. The best man will be Chester Dudley, Miss Dudley's brother.

Miss Dudley, since leaving school at St. Mary's, Knoxville, Ill., has been one of the most popular society girls of Council Bluffs and is well known in the Omaha Country club younger set. Mr. Conner attended the Culver Military academy. He is the son of Judge J. P. Conner, ex-congressman and a prominent banker and newspaper owner of Denison.

Miss Fannie Hoffhine, who came from Columbus, O., about a year ago to live with her brother, John Hoffhine, at the Hamilton apartments, will be married September 28 at the Hamilton to Dr. A. D. Brown of Omaha. The wedding will occur at the Hamilton. Miss Marie Tracy of Edina, Mo., will be bridesmaid and Dr. A. A. Smith of Lincoln will be best man. After the marriage Dr. Brown and his bride will reside at the Hamilton.

Miss Juanita Ellen Slater of South Omaha, who is a popular member of the Kountze Memorial choir, will be married at the church September 28 to Mr. Thurman G. Stewart of Laramie, Wyo. Miss Slater is the daughter of Mrs. Anna Slater.

Society Has Movies at Home.

The movies have found their way into the residences and have come to be a highly popular mode of entertainment there. Instead of going out to the moving picture shows a number of Omahans give their own shows right in their homes. They own either stereopticon or post card machines, in which they show pictures of people and places which they themselves have seen on their travels here and there over the whole world. And they are amply competent to supplement the pictures with descriptions drawn from their own experiences.

The travelogues given by Mr. Charles Martin and Mr. Frank Martin at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Barker are social events with a distinctly educational tinge. Both the Messers. Martin are expert with the stereopticon and have studied their subject so thoroughly that they are prepared to give interesting verbal sketches to accompany the pictures. During the summer several travelogues were given by them on the lawn of the Barker home.

Mr. Gurdon W. Wattles has a fine collection of Burton Holmes slides and borrows the Martin stereopticon occasionally to give an exhibit. Mr. Wattles has a post card machine also in which he shows pictures which he has collected on his trips. Those of Japan, China and the Philippines are especially good. John A. McShane has a rare collection of slides which he bought while in Europe and which he shows in his stereopticon machine.

Mr. Ralph W. Breckenridge recently came back from a trip around the world laden not only with experiences and ideas from many lands, but also with pictures of all the places he and his family visited in Europe and the orient. These he exhibits on his post card machine for the enjoyment of his friends.

Louis Nash has one of the post card machines and will use it for displaying the interesting pictures which he got while in Panama—pictures showing the tropical life there and the work on the canal. He has not been able to use the machine in his country home, Nashwood, because of lack of electricity, but will display his pictures when he and his family move in town.

Debutante List Grows.
 The list of prospective debutantes keeps growing. The latest addition to the number of attractive young women who will make their bow to society this season is
