Miss Warren Has Appendicitis—Miss Lottie Warren, 908 Forest avenue, was operated on yesterday afternoon at the Omaha General hospital by Dr. W. O.
Henry, to secure relief from an attack of appendicitis.

Saloon Raided by Police—Police raided the saloon owned by Charles Sulling at 414 South Thirteenth street, at 10 o'clock last night. Ten inmates and John Stilling, who is charged with being the proprietor, were arrested. The charge against Stilling is keeping a disorderly house.

Theft Charge Against Boy—Vernon Hock, aged 17 years, of Sioux City was arrested yesterday afternoon upon the complaint of Nathan Wiseman, 2723 Hamilton street, who accuses the youth of having stolen a horse, a racing saddle and a dog. The stolen property was recovered after the boy's arrest, and in juvenile court yesterday he was sent to the detention home until his parents can be heard from.

Gould Dietz Named
Policeman by Ryder

Gould Dietz, Ak-Sar-Ben governor, is now a policeman. He was appointed yesterday by Police Commissioner Ryder, as a special road officer. Mr. Dietz's appointment was made at the request of members of the Omaha Auto club, who say that there is need of such an officer. The position is an honorary one, but it carries authority with it, as well as a billy, a gun and a badge. Mr.
Dietz's duties will not interfere with those of other traffic officers.

DECOMPRESSION OPERATION SUCCESSFUL AT HOSPITAL.

Superiority over surgeons in Europe has been shown by Omaha medical men in the case of Mrs. Christian Jorgensen, wife of a dairyman living at 2115 Millary avenue, who is now at the Wise Memorial hospital recovering from an operation to remove a tumor of the brain.
Mrs. Jorgensen's head was opened last Saturday morning by Omaha surgeons and yesterday the tumor was removed.
When the first operation was made it was thought that Mrs. Jorgensen would succumb, but instead she gradually regained her strength, and yesterday she was able to sit up in bed after the second operation for decompression.

THUMB DRAWN IN MACHINE, BUT YOUTH STOPS WHEEL.

Ernest Demers, 507 Twenty-fourth street, Council Bluffs, was painfully injured yesterday afternoon in the Drebus candy factory when by accident his thumb on the left hand got caught in machinery. With rare presence of mind he stopped the wheel before his entire arm was pulled in, but the thumb was mashed before he could be released.
An hour later Dr. E. R. Porter amputated the thumb at the Omaha General hospital and Demers was taken to his home in Council Bluffs. Demers is 16 years old.

NEW FACES AND NEW BUILDINGS

Expansion the Rule in Student Bodies, Facilities and Accommodations—Educational Notes.

The formal opening of Bellevue college, Bellevue, Neb., will occur Thursday, September 19, this being the thirtieth anniversary of the institution.

The address of the day will be delivered in the college chapel at 10 o'clock by the Rev. R. Cooper Bailey, Ph. D., of Falls City.

Upon Wednesday at 10 o'clock the first chapel exercises of the year will be held in the chapel room in Clarke hall. President Stookey will deliver an informal address of greeting and welcome to the students, and in accordance with the time-honored custom will call upon the members of the faculty for brief talks.

Registration will commence Tuesday at 8 o'clock and will continue until Wednesday at 6 o'clock. Students arriving late will be permitted to register any time during the opening week of school.

The Bellevue preparatory school, owing to the merging with the Avery and Bellevue districts, will now be conducted in connection with the Bellevue High school, under the direction of Prof.
Snare. The new high school will be located at Lovrie hall, which has been entirely vacated as a dormitory and has been repapered and remodeled to meet the requirements of the new enterprise.
Prof. Snare will be assisted by Miss Hunter and several of the college teachers.

Prof. Stookey announces that a department of pharmacy will be added to the curriculum, under the direction of Prof. Evans. Prof. Evans, who is a graduate of Nebraska university and of the Philadelphia School of Pharmacy, has had many years' experience as a practical druggist and also as a teacher of pharmacy and kindred subjects. If the attendance of the new department is large this year the new department will become a permanent fixture.

The contract for the grading of the new gymnasium is being let by the architect, Mr. Latenser, and the work is to be rushed in order to have the floor ready for gymnasium classes and basket ball.
The location finally settled upon is just north and slightly west of Clarke Hall, upon the brow of the hill and overlooking the tennis courts and the athletic field.

FREMONT COLLEGE.

Brief Mention of Happenings of the Week.

The classics conducted chapel Monday, showing by their clear-cut talks and readings there is no lack of encephalic matter among the members. Mr. Kennedy was yell master, Mr. Tranchel master of ceremonies and president and Miss Maude David music master. Splendid readings were rendered by Miss McKellips and Mr. Walm. Mr. Overturf in his treatise of "Character" showed that the character of the Nazarene was the one type for our imitation. The subject

"Success" was ably dealt with by Mr.
Prohaska and Mr. Cohn gave a splendid resume of Wendell Phillips' "Toussaint Loverture."

Mrs. Gilbert, dean of the classic department, gave the students an address Wednesday. Every student in the college has the opportunity of joining Mrs. Gilbert's class in Shakespeare, which meets Wednesday evening of each week. This term the class will read "Midsummer Night's Dream."

The college Young Men's Christian and Young Women's Christian associations had a union meeting Sunday and the attendance was encouraging. Mrs. J. I.
Ray sang a solo and a general spirit of enthusiasm pervaded the meeting.

If last Saturday night's program at the Star Literary society was a specimen of the programs that will be held during the year, the Stars will have their hall filled every Saturday night of the year.
Prof. Boggeess and Miss Sinamark gave several piano duets and Prof. Ray lectured on his trip to the National park.
The quartet, composed of Messrs. Ray, Krelingner, Bollenbach and Munson, was strongly applauded. Leon Dillard is president, Jerry Maxiner treasurer and Willie Nielsen secretary for the term.

After an excellent program the Union Literary society held a business meeting and social Friday for members and visitors. Miss Maude Davis, the Union president, gave the introductory remarks.
Miss Verna Hoffman, a former classic graduate, gave a reading. Prof. Swthart played a violin solo, Miss Nelson a piano solo and "There, Little Girl, Don't Cry" was sung by Miss Rollins, also a classic reading was given by Miss Rose Cerny.

UNIVERSITY OF IOWA.

Expansion the Rule in Student Body, Faculty and Buildings.

With a splendid enrollment, an enlarged instruction force, and brand new physics building, the University of Iowa opens today upon the fifty-seventh year.

That the state university has taken its longest stride forward is self-evident from one view of the splendid new stone building and a glance over the most recent additions to the faculty. There is also a new woman's building in the process of construction.

Many important changes have been made in the instructional force. First comes Henry W. Dunn, fresh from a successful career as a lawyer in Boston.
He will be dean of the new law school.
He had an unusual record after graduation from the Harvard Law school and indications point to the most successful year in the law school's history.

Another new force is Walter A. Jessup, who was secured from the deanship of the Indiana to become director of the school of education in the University of Iowa.
He like Dunn, has not reached the age of 40, but his record likewise is considered to augur well for a splendid year of progress in the educational department of the state university.

The university regiment will have for its commandant this year Lieutenant James A. Marrs, who takes the place of Captain M. C. Mumma. Both were formerly stationed at Fort Des Moines.
A large force of assistant professors, instructors and assistants have been added this year.

Doane College Notes.

Thursday afternoon the annual reception to the girls was held in Gaylord hall parlor and a large number attended.

In the evening the stag reception was held in Merrill hall club room.

The freshman class, not counting those who are enrolled for music alone, numbered about forty this year and with the increase from that department it will number about fifty, which will be the largest class of 1912 entered.

Doane college opened last Tuesday with an increased enrollment over any year for the last three years. Although there are not yet arrived, the college proper has enrolled about 120 students. Then the Conservatory of Music will have about seventy-five more enrolled, so that, although the academy only numbers about twenty-five this year, the total will be about 225, which is considerably in advance of last year.

Nebraska Wesleyan Notes.

Prof. Brightman has been attending the annual conference at Beatrice, of which he has recently been made a member.

The botany and zoology departments are in receipt of valuable additions to their equipment, mainly from foreign manufacturers.

The office force is busy handling an almost constant procession of students who are getting their credits straightened out in advance of registration week.

A. Crossland, editor of the Wesleyan, the student paper, and R. A. Wilson, editor of the Coyote, the student year book, are on the ground early and making preparations for larger and better publications.

Coach Kline of Nebraska Wesleyan university, who underwent a severe operation for appendicitis last spring, is back and ready for work. While he is much improved in health he will probably indulge in no encounters with the "tackling dummy" this season.

About Nebraska Teachers.

High E. Northrup is the new principal at Erie, and the new principal at Tamora is J. C. Greenwood of Ufa.

Miss Jessie McAndrew is principal of the Ord High school.

Hazard has fitted up a new room and will carry the tenth grade.

C. Richmond of Exeter is at the head of the Germantown schools. While he is making preparations for larger and better publications.

Mattie E. Bloss of Pawnee City has charge of the Armour school.

Miss A. Mary Dittmer of Minden is at the head of the schools at Carleton.

The Benkelman schools retained all of last year's teachers with one exception.

A. Farnsworth will remain at Hagler, making his third year in the schools there.

Miss Ellen Windham is the new teacher of art in the public schools of Plattsmouth.

Miss Nellie M. Schreck of Table Rock is the new principal of schools at Lewistown.

Superintendent R. R. Morrow remains at the head of the Liberty schools for his fourth year.

Superintendent A. J. Hargett, who was at Sioux last year, is now at the head of the schools at Mead.

Principal William Schacterle, who was at Denver last year, is at the head of the Merna schools this year.

Miss Lulu B. Wolford will make the rounds of her schools in Pawnee county in a new five-passenger automobile.

Miss Rita Thomas of Nebraska City has been chosen as head of the piano department of the school of music at Peru.

Miss Caroline MacCreedy, for the last three years principal of the Humboldt High school, is principal of the Liberty High school.

Miss Marie Armstrong of Lincoln, Ill., who taught last year at Columbus, will be at the head of the new domestic economy department in the Hartington schools.

Principal Harry Ellis, who earlier in the year was elected to a position in the high school at McCook, has been released by the McCook board to accept a ward principalship at Auburn.

Miss Edna Spears has given up her position as principal of the Ashland High school to accept a position as teacher of mathematics in the South Omaha High school. Miss Dutz Von Mansfield of Ashland has been promoted from a grade position to the high school and will take the work in mathematics.

The high school department of the Bellevue and Avery districts have united, establishing a union high school. Principal Albert Snare will be at the head of the school with Miss Myrtle Hunter, formerly principal of the school at Lynch, as assistant.

Educational Notes.

Prof. Zephaniah Hopper, dean of the faculty of the Central High school of Philadelphia, is 88 years of age, has a record of seventy years as a teacher and is still on the job.

Desiring a college education, Miss Charlotte Swartz, aged 37 years, of Athens, Pa., worked and saved from year to year, with a view of eventually getting enough to satisfy her own ambition. Recently Miss Swartz started her studies in Kensington, preparatory to entering the college.

Enrollment in the public schools of Greater New York totaled 723,000 on the opening day. In Philadelphia 120,000 children reported at 23 school buildings, 118-000 in Boston and 80,000 in Cleveland. Owing to scarcity of accommodations in New York City fully 70,000 children will be put on half time.

Dr. Otto Rahn, a bacteriologist, who has to do with the purely scientific side of his subject, has taken up work as assistant professor at the University of Illinois. Dr. Rahn formerly was an instructor in the agricultural experiment station at Halle and at Gottingen, Germany, where he obtained his doctor's degree.

The total registration of students for the summer quarter of 1912 at the University of Chicago was 3,531, of which number 1,782 were men and 1,749 were women. This is an increase of 282 over the summer registration for 1911. The largest increase was in the graduate schools. The total number of different students for the year from July 1, 1911, to July 1, 1912, was 6,508.

KNOX COUNTY AUTO MEN
HEAR STATE SECRETARY

The Knox County Auto association held their annual meeting in the Opera House at Bloomfield Wednesday.

Officers for the coming year were elected and delegates appointed to the State association meeting in Lincoln.

There was evidenced the utmost good will and a brotherly spirit of co-operation. The absence of self-seeking partisan or local jealousy was gratifyingly evident.

Action was taken to place proper signs and markings throughout the county. A plan was adopted, whereby the president, secretary and treasurer are elected from the same town in order to facilitate the transaction of business.

O. C. Turner, secretary of the State Auto association, gave a talk on good roads and the work of the county, state and national associations. He urged the union and co-operation of all automobile owners and good roads boosters in one association as the only effective means of influencing good roads legislation.

CEDAR RAPIDS GETS MEET

Bohemian Fraternal Union Votes to Keep Headquarters There.

CITIES THANKED FOR COURTESY

Dr. V. Smrha of Milligan Made Head Physician and Stanley Serpan of Omaha Editor of Lodge Paper.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., will be the 1917 meeting place of the Western Bohemian Fraternal union. This was decided by a majority vote of the convention in its closing session at Tel Jed Sokol hall last evening. Oklahoma City and Minneapolis bid for the convention, but were overwhelmed on the first ballot. The union meets every five years.

Before the convention adjourned a special committee extended a vote of thanks to Omaha and South Omaha Bohemians for the entertainment during last week. This committee vote was unanimously adopted by the delegates and out-of-town visitors. F. J. Sadtlek of Wilber, presided during the closing session.

Dr. V. Smrha of Milligan, Neb., was elected head physician of the association and Stanley Serpan of Omaha, editor of the official lodge paper. The adoption of the new by-laws of the association was finished by 9:30 o'clock last night, this being the final business of the delegates.

Most of the visitors will remain over until this afternoon when the unveiling exercises of the Jan Roscky monument will be held at Bohemian National cemetery, Fifty-fourth and Center streets.
Louis Berka of Omaha will deliver the principal address of the occasion.

Headquarters Not Changed.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., will continue as the headquarters of the Western Bohemian Fraternal union. This was decided by a majority vote of the convention in session at Tel Jed Sokol hall yesterday after a heated debate lasting nearly two hours.
Nebraska delegates favored a removal of the headquarters to Omaha, but their efforts were defeated by delegates from Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin, who stood pat on Cedar Rapids.

Frank M. Barta of Cedar Rapids was re-elected president of the union and Alois Blaha, also of that place, was chosen secretary. Other officers elected were as follows: Vice president, F. J.
Sadtlek, Wilber, Neb.; treasurer, F. A.
Fadtlek, Cedar Rapids, Neb.

TWO HIGHWAYMEN HOLD UP M'GEE AND GET CASH

The regular nightly holdup occurred last night at 11:15 o'clock near Thirty-first and Farnam streets, when two young men armed with revolvers stopped J. W. McGee, 5812 Leavenworth street, and took $27.40 from him. The highway-men are believed to be the same men that have been holding the attention of the police for the last week.
