FIGHT POTATO RATE RAISE

Railway Commissioners Register Protest at St. Paul.

SEEK TO BOOST CARLOT CHARGES

Government Experts Have Nothing Definite to Recommend in Connection with Treatment of New Horse Disease.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Sept. 16.—(Special.)—Railway Commissioner H. J. Winnett and Rate Clerk U. G. Powell of State Railway commission have returned from St. Paul, Minn., where they appeared before the Interstate Commerce commission in a protest against a proposed increase in the rate on potatoes from Nebraska to Chicago ranging from $6 to $21 per car. The increase is asked by the Northwestern and the Burlington. Mr. Powell was the main witness in the case and presented an array of figures to show that such an increase would be unjustifiable. Mr. Winnett is of the opinion that Mr. Powell's figures made considerable impression on the commission.

Water Case Goes Over

An attempt was made to take up the hearing in the Sabcock water application for the Loup river privilege, but as Attorney Strode, one of the attorneys, was away on a vacation, the matter was carried over to September 20 by mutual agreement.

Forage and New Disease

There is nothing new to report from the office of the state veterinarian regarding the horse disease. The work of investigation is being carried on as hard as it is possible to carry it, but at present the investigation has not made much headway other than to gain knowledge on which to work. "There may be some connection between the use of forage or newly cut hay and the disease," said Dr. Davidson, the government expert, this morning. "One thing that leads us to think that this is so is the fact that animals in cities and larger towns which have been kept on dry feed all summer are not afflicted with the disease."

Aurora City Institute

State Superintendent Dezell returned Sunday from Aurora, where he attended a city institute in that city. "This is something new for Nebraska," said Mr. Dezell, and was not inaugurated in this state until last year. The Aurora meeting was about the fifth or sixth held in the state and is proving to be a good thing. Superintendent Waterhouse of Fremont was the chief instructor.

Custer for Ticket

Treasurer George was exhibiting a clipping this morning taken from a Broken Bow paper, which showed that at a meeting of the Custer county republican committee last week every precinct in the county was represented and twenty-eight of the thirty-one members of the committee present. While the committee was divided as between Taft and Roosevelt it agreed unanimously to support all candidates of the party regardless of their personal preference on the head of the ticket.

Work of Food Commissioner

The food commissioner and his assistants made 78 inspections during the month of August, divided as follows: Groceries, 35; meat markets and slaughter houses, seventy; drug stores, thirty-six; hotels, nineteen; bottling

BLOTCHES ON FACE DRY AND SCALY

Eczema Began in Hair, Spread to Face, Came on Hand and All Over Fingers, Itching Terrible, Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

205 Kanter Ave., Detroit, Mich.—"Some time last summer I was taken with eczema. It began in my hair first with red blotches then scaly, spreading to my face. The blotches were red on my face, dry and scaly, not large; on my scalp they were larger, more scabby. They came on my hands. The inside of my hands were all little lumps as though full of soot about one-sixteenth of an inch under the skin. Then they went to the outside and between and all over my fingers. It also began on the bottoms of my feet and the calves of my legs and feet, oh, my! I never had anything like it and how I never will again. The itching was terrible. My hands got so I could scarcely work. "I tried different eczema ointments but without results. I also took medicine for it but it did no good. I saw the advertisement for a sample of Cuticura Ointment and Soap and sent for one. They did me so much good I bought some more using them as per directions and in about three weeks I was well again. Cuticura Soap and Ointment entirely cured me." (Signed) Beal Passage, Apr. 8, 1912.

A single cake of Cuticura Soap (25c.) and one box of Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are often sufficient when all else has failed. Sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Ad. dress post-paid "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

*If tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

Six Ministers Ordained

Sunday was a big day for the ministers attending the Methodist conference. At 9 a. m. the conference held a love feast and at 10:30 o'clock Bishop Frank M. Bristol, D. D., LL. D., delivered the sermon. At 2 p. m. six young ministers and that number of elders were ordained. Memorial services for the departed members of the conference were held at 3 p. m. At 7:30 p. m. the Sunday school anniversary was held. Dr. Hartman gave the principal address. All the pulpits in the city were filled by the visiting ministers at the morning and evening services.

At the morning session

Dr. H. J. Coker, field secretary of the board of home missions, Dr. I. Garland Penn, secretary of the Freedmen's Aid society; Dr. S. F. Kirkbride, agent for the American Bible society; Rev. William Epslin of the Crowell home spoke. Mrs. J. I. McLaughlin, manager of the Nebraska Methodist hospital of Omaha, reported that more than 2,600 patients were treated there the last year, and that $12,000 was spent by the hospital to care for the free patients.

NOTES FROM WEST POINT AND ADAMS COUNTY

WEST POINT, Neb., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—The annual session of St. Paul's German Lutheran church at West Point was held Sunday. At the morning services Rev. George Weller, president of the German Lutheran seminary at Seward, delivered the sermon; in the afternoon Rev. Mr. Martin of Stanton preached, and in the evening Rev. Mr. Krause of Fremont filled the pulpit. Large audiences were present at each of these services.

The usual Sunday blue rock shoot of the Buffalo Gun club took place at the farm home of Peter Nelson, in the presence of a large company of sportsmen. One twenty-five-bird event was shot for, with the following results: Earl Kerr, the champion shot of the county, scored 39 points, followed by J. Bleimelster with 18; Charles Belter, G. Haefelin, J. Albers and Julius Radebach each scoring 17. Four young men of Cuming county, studying for the priesthood, have returned to their respective colleges. They are: Ferdinand Mock, to Josephinum college, Columbus, O.; Joseph Goeken, to St. Pio Nono college, St. Francis, Wis.; and Joseph and John Paschang to the College of Conception, Missouri.

—Trench to Have Bank

FAIRFIELD, Neb., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—The Farmers and Merchants bank of this city is erecting a building at Spring Ranch and within two weeks will install a strictly up-to-date bank.

Days Agone Are Recalled in Modern Bubbling Fountain

All old timers who have any real reminiscences relate how they used to kneel down by the rock-covered spring in the hollow near the little red country school house and with deep drafts of the nectar which Jupiter ought to sip placate that burning esophageal sensation. Undoubtedly there was never any thirst-sinker like that, although latter day sports insist that Jupiter has gone in for mixed drinks, spring water has fallen into disrepute and medical men have pronounced the old oaken bucket a germ-laden danger.

Canned water is all the rage now. Wonderfully complex campaigns against the bellicose microbe have rung the death knell of that valiant little devil. It is the mandate of modern hygiene and the old timers bow before the wisdom of science, but when they visit Omaha's schools, where bubbling sanitary fountains have displaced all other watering systems they have at least one regret. Individual drinking cups are no more. Well and good, they say, for a cup is a nuisance, but the bubbling fountain has an hedonistic fault. When the man of real reminiscences lines up with the kids at recess to take a drink he pauses when his turn comes at the fountain. He stoops over and the cool water gurgles up into his mouth. The taste of the water is not bad. The trouble is the fountain is not big enough, for any man who has cut his initials on a bench in a school house "some forty years ago" will tell you that the only way to drink heaven, old-school fashion is to bury your nose and half your face in the water. And how can any kid do it in a fountain gushing half an inch above the end of a quarter-inch, nickel-plated pipe?

RAIN MARS CLERGY'S MARCH

Parade of Catholics at Eucharistic Congress Held at Vienna.

MEDIAEVAL POMP IN EVIDENCE

Emperor Takes Part in State Coach and Prelates in Line in Gilded Carriages of Olden Times.

VIENNA, Sept. 16.—The brilliance of the great procession concluding the Twenty-third Eucharistic congress today was marred by a continuous downpour of rain and chilly temperature. From 7 o'clock in the morning until 11 in the afternoon, when the emperor followed the papal legate, Cardinal Van Rossum, with the host through the Burgtor, rain fell unrelentingly, drenching many thousands walking in the procession as well as thousands of spectators along the route.

Part of the parade showed little bit of lines of umbrellas, beneath which tramped Catholic societies, clergy, venerable bishops in full canonicals and others, through mud ankle deep and under such conditions that it was impossible to hold the celebration of mass in the open air on the top of the Burgtor court.

The procession simply passed through the Heiden-Platz from the Ring-Strasse into the inner court of the Hofburg, where the papal legate, the cardinals, the emperor and Archduke Franz Ferdinand entered the Hofburg chapel and deposited the host. Vast crowds lined the route from the cathedral of St. Stephen to the Hofburg, standing patiently for hours for the procession to pass.

The city was early astir for the crowning feature of the Eucharistic congress, the people beginning to gather for the first part of the procession before 6 o'clock. Several hundred marshals arranged the various groups and the procession began to move an hour or two later. Only men and youths were permitted to participate. Along the spacious Ring-Strasse the houses were decked with flags and the route was lined with troops.

The miners from Tyrol in quaint costumes headed the procession, and were followed closely by the bakers' guild from Munster in picturesque attire. Then came the various Catholic societies and the representatives from foreign countries in the national groups, including Belgium, Bavaria, England, France, Switzerland, Spain, Albania, Hungary, Croatia and Bosnia. The four groups last named wore grotesquely colored peasant costumes.

Clergy and Bishops

The second division was composed of the clergy and bishops and civil authorities to the number of 10,000. It was headed by the seminarians, and these were followed by members of the Reichsrath, provincial diets and the city council of Vienna and government and municipal officials. The clergy to the number of 8,000 were in full vestments.

The court division, a mile and a quarter in length, formed the last part of the procession. The emperor drove in a magnificent state coach of plate glass and gold, drawn by eight horses, led by grooms in black and gold liveries, from the Hofburg to the cathedral to attend the removal of the host from the high altar to the state coach of the papal legate. Privy councillors and the highest officials of the court and empire went first in court carriages, and then the archbishops and cardinals.

The cardinal archbishop of Olmutz, one of the wealthiest of the Austrian sees, drove in a splendid golden wagon built in the reign of Maria Theresa. It was drawn by six horses brought from Olmutz for the occasion.

Following these dignitaries came the archduke in state coaches, and last of all the emperor. Behind the monarch rode the most striking figure in the whole procession, the papal legate, Cardinal Van Rossum, bearing the host. His carriage was a ponderous gilded affair especially built for the empress Maria Theresa. The monstrance containing the sacred elements was one of the most costly specimens of church plate in the empire.

MOOSE QUESTION COMES UP OVER RUNNING NEWSPAPER

GREENSBORO, N. C., Sept. 16.—Whether or not a newspaper incorporated under the state laws "for the purpose of promoting republican doctrine and espousing the candidates of that party" has a right to land its editorial support and influence to the Roosevelt and Johnson ticket is to be determined in the North Carolina courts.

The first step in the litigation will be taken here tomorrow when a minority of the stockholders of the State Dispatch of Burlington, N. C., will petition Judge Whedbee to restrain the majority stockholders and the editor of the paper from publishing editorials or articles supporting the national progressive cause.

Trotters and Pacers Race at Sioux City

SIoux CITY, Ia., Sept. 16.—The new half-mile track at the Interstate fair grounds was opened for the first time here today. Rain Saturday and Sunday made the track spongy and the time was slow, it took five heats to decide the 2:20 trot, which went to Highland Twist. Frank Clayton won the 2:14 trot in straight heats after losing the first to Axlon. Summaries:

2:20 pace, purse $500; Highland Twist first, Cover second, Dakota Princeton. Best time, 2:19.

Best trot, purse $500; Frank Clayton first, Axlon second, Jim O'Shlay third. Best time, 2:20.

Running four furlongs, 2 and 3-year-olds, purse $100; Little Jack first, Jack Lamar second, Eddie Fitzgerald third. Time, 2:24. Golden Thought and Sail Home also ran.

NEWS NOTES OF PAWNEE AND PAWNEE COUNTY

PAWNEE CITY, Neb., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—Several officials of the Burlington railroad were in town yesterday conferring with the citizens and business men about widening the road underneath the Burlington bridge on the west side of town.

Several farmers in this vicinity are having trouble with their hogs, large numbers of them dying from cholera.

Changing the high school from the old building to the present location has not bettered the crowded condition. Two hundred and twenty are enrolled in the high school, and as the assembly room will not hold them all a few are compelled to sit in one of the class rooms.

Only two of the high school teachers of last year returned this year, the new ones being: Mr. Gilbert, mathematics; Miss Hessler, Latin; Miss Osborn, German; Miss Hartman, English, and the new superintendent, Mr. Clark. The high school dismisses this year at 2:30.

The Rock Island railroad has been doing some much needed repairing on its track in this vicinity. For the last several weeks a bank leveler and a steam shovel have been employed to grade and ballast it.

Surprise on Manager Lann

Andrew Lann, manager of the Spaulding and black, the club colors. He has been his own since Saturday night when the members of the base ball team gathered at his home and gave him a little surprise. During the evening it was decided to start the club dances soon and continue them during the winter.

See Eozema Vanish! See Blotches Go!

Costs You Only 25c to Try ZEMO and Prove What a Wonder It Really Is.

Apply a little ZEMO a few times on those eczema sores, that nothing else you have ever tried has benefited—and in a few days those very sores will be gone—absolutely gone! There's no doubt about it, a trial of ZEMO proves it positively. There will not be a spot left, the skin will be as smooth and clear as though you never had eczema in your life. No remedy in recent years has enjoyed such a sale, because you can't sink on it, and everybody knows it that has tried it.

Do you have dandruff, there's another chance to prove how wonderful ZEMO is. Dandruff is eczema of the scalp. That's why ZEMO positively stops it. To make it easy for any man or woman to prove what it will do in curing eczema, itching, inflamed or irritated skin, dandruff, blotches, pimples, cuts and sores, and to get a real surprise, your druggist will supply you with a 25-cent bottle. Then, when you have "seen for yourself," at small cost, get a $1 bottle which contains six times as much as the 25-cent bottle.

ZEMO is sold in 25-cent and 51-cent bottles at drug stores, or sent direct, on receipt of price, by E. W. Rose Medicine Co., St. Louis, Mo.

ALLEN ON THE WAY HOME

Virginia Court House Murderers Go Through Cincinnati.

MISS IROLER IN THE PARTY

All Deny that Girl Gave Clue to Whereabouts of Men Willingly—Detectives Explain How the Trick Was Turned.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 16.—Handcuffed, guarded by three stalwart detectives and accompanied by the girl, who unconsciously gave the police the clue to their hiding place, Sidsa Allen and his nephew, Wesley Edwards, who took part in the shooting up of the court at Hillsville, Va., on March 12, last, arrived here tonight from Des Moines on their way back to the scene of the crime.

Their trip to this city from Des Moines, where they were captured yesterday, proved uneventful. Chief of Detectives Baldwin said the prisoners were ideal in behavior and in far from a dejected frame of mind. With the exception of Miss Maude Iroler, whose love for Wesley Edwards led the detectives to his hiding place, the entire party apparently relished their food and even the exchanging of jokes was not infrequent on the trip.

The younger of the two prisoners as well as the girl herself were solicitous in having a rumor denied that she had deliberately betrayed her sweetheart, Wesley Edwards. Detective Baldwin corroborated their statements and told the story of the events leading up to the capture to prove that the girl was no traitor to her lover.

He stated that when Edwards left Mount Airy, N. C., the girl's home, he had left $50 with her to be used to join him when he was safely secreted. The money was stolen and then replaced in this manner Miss Iroler's father learned of it. Detective Baldwin said he had two of his men working on the Iroler farm and in this way learned of a correspondence between the girl and Edwards.

"The remainder is easy," said Baldwin. "We watched her. When she left, these two men, Lucas and Monday, followed her and I was right behind them on the next train. You know the story of the arrest and that is all there is to it."

The party took supper in this city and left for Rosnoke, Va., at 5 o'clock tonight over the Norfolk & Western railroad, expecting to arrive there tomorrow at noon.

With the exception of desiring to correct the statement concerning Miss Iroler, neither Edwards nor Allen would talk tonight, confining their conversation to "It's too warm to talk."

Handoffs on an Allen. CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—"All the trouble in Virginia was caused by a deputy sheriff who insisted on putting handcuffs on an Allen," said Sidsa Allen today during a brief stay in Chicago en route from Des Moines east in company with Wesley Edwards and Miss Maud Iroler.

The trio were in custody of Chief of Detectives Baldwin, who says his prisoners had been well behaved since leaving Iowa.

Sidsa Allen laid the capture to the fact that Edwards, his nephew, had insisted on going to visit Miss Iroler at her home in Mount Airy, N. C.

"I told that boy he would get in trouble and we both would be caught, but he just naturally would go," said Allen.

"We could have lived in Iowa the rest of our lives if he had not been in love with Maud."

Allen talked of his wanderings with his nephew through the Virginia mountains and in Kentucky and Missouri. He indignantly denied that he and Edwards were outlaws.

"I never saw an outlaw until we got away from home," Allen said. "In Virginia we don't have locks on our doors and nobody ever thinks of anybody doing any harm. But during our travels we saw a number of persons who would kill a man for a dollar."

He referred to the assault on a deputy sheriff for which Floyd Allen was tried by Judge Massie when the judge was shot.

"The deputy for spite put handcuffs on Wesley Edwards and his cousin," said Allen. "It was the first time handcuffs ever were on an Allen and it made us all wild. That was what caused all the trouble."

"Aunt Delia" Gives

Birthday Party for Nephew "Will" Taft

MILLBURY, Mass., Sept. 16.—Miss Delia Torrey gave a party today in honor of her nephew, "Will" Taft. The president was 55 years old today and he was the guest of honor, but Mrs. Taft, Miss Helen Taft and C. P. Taft, the president's brother, and Mrs. C. P. Taft were present.

"Aunt" Delia had plenty of apple pie, such as the president was fond of when he went to school in Millbury, but there were many other things to accompany a perfectly good birthday party. The president went to church in the morning with Miss Torrey, took her for a motor ride in the afternoon and started back for Beverly with all the guests later in the day.

FREMONT MAN ARRESTED

ON CHARGE OF FORGERY

FREMONT, Neb., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—Otto von Gemmingen, who has been driving the United States mail wagon between the Union depot and the post-office while the regular driver was taking a vacation, is thought by the officers to be responsible for some mail disappearing from the postoffice. Last week he went to a creamery office with a check payable to William McCready and, representing himself to be a son of McCready, asked to have it cashed. A number of other checks sent through the mail by the same concern to their customers were traced to him, and late last night a warrant was issued for his arrest on the ground of forging an endorsement to the McCready check.

BEWARE OF FAKE PENNANTS

Presidential Campaign Pennants Are Not of the Right Colors.

COLORS SAME AS THE COLLEGES Colors on Pennants Should Correspond with College Colors from Which the Candidate is Graduate.

Pennant salesmen who have attempted to sell pennants in Omaha for the presidential campaign have experienced some difficulty in not having their colors properly arranged to correspond with the standard colors of the colleges from which their candidates were graduated.

It happens this year that the three candidates respectively represent the three most important universities of the east. The college idea has been carried out in the east in the manufacture of Taft, Wilson and Roosevelt pennants.

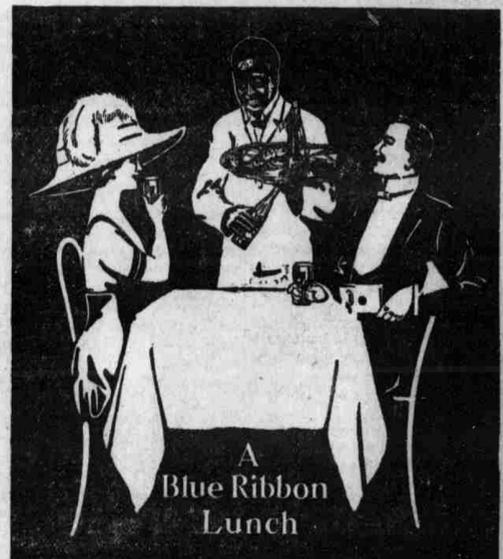

The standard Pennant. The Taft pennant to be standard must be white on a field of blue to represent the colors of Yale, the college of which the president is a graduate.

The Wilson colors to be acceptable must be orange and black to represent Princeton, the college of which the democratic candidate is president emeritus.

The Roosevelt colors in order to represent the colonel's alma mater, Harvard, must be white on a field of dull crimson. Yet a pennant agent had the nerve to walk into republican headquarters in Omaha and try to sell Taft pennants in all colors from orange and black to white and crimson. He was told there was nothing doing until he learned the colors of the candidates and made his pennant conform.

A Song of Pabst "Blue Ribbon" Beer

"T is a drink for the gods," and my sweet ladye fayre, Raised a glass to her ripe, rosy lips,— And honeybee-like, on a hollyhock spike,— She daintily sips and sips: "I drink to your health, to joy and to wealth, To years of delight and of cheer; And to this I drink,—bid your glasses to clink,— To PABST FAMOUS 'BLUE RIBBON' BEER."

As water that springs from the hillside and sings, And laughs its way down to the glade,— Just as pure this beer, so drink without fear, For 't is best the world ever made. 'T is science, and art, 't is conscience, the heart, With nothing to shun nor to fear,— Drink once more to my toast, the Nation's great boast, PABST FAMOUS 'BLUE RIBBON' BEER."

Bottled only at the brewery in crystal clear bottles, showing at a glance that it is clean and pure.

Don't forget to order a case today. Phone or write.
